দেরাদুনের রাষ্ট্রীয় ভারতীয় সামরিক কলেজ

দেরাদুনের রাষ্ট্রীয় ভারতীয় সামরিক কলেজের পরবর্তী শিক্ষাকাল ১৯৬৪ সালের জানুয়ারি মাসে আরম্ভ হইবে।

এই কলেজে সৈন্য, নৌ ও বিমান বাহিনীতে কমিশন লাভেচ্ছু বালকগণের জন্য পাবলিক স্কুল পর্যায়ে শিক্ষাদানের ব্যবস্থা আছে। বালকগণকে সিনিয়র কেম্ব্রিজ স্কুল সার্টিফিকেটের মানে শিক্ষিত করা এবং জাতীয় প্রতিরক্ষা একাডেমির প্রবেশক পরীক্ষার যোগ্য করিয়া তোলার উদ্দেশ্যে শিক্ষা সংক্রান্ত শিক্ষণ ব্যবস্থা নির্ধারণ করা হইয়াছে। শিক্ষার্থীগণকে শারীরিকভাবে সক্ষম এবং কর্মতৎপর করিয়া তুলিবার নিমিত্ত আবশ্যিক শারীরিশিক্ষণ, ক্রীড়ানুষ্ঠান ও কুচকাওয়াজের বন্দোবস্ত যেমন আছে, তেমনি তাঁহাদের নিয়মানুবর্তিতা, স্বনির্ভরতা এবং সমাজ শিক্ষণ ব্যাপারেও বিশেষ নজর দেওয়া হয়।

১৯৬৪ সালের জানুয়ারি মাসে কলেজের যে পরবর্তী শিক্ষাকাল আরম্ভ হইবে তাহাতে ভর্তি হওয়ার জন্য প্রার্থীদের ১৯৬৩ সালের অগাস্ট মাসের তৃতীয় সপ্তাহ নাগাদ কলিকাতায় অনুষ্ঠিতব্য এক প্রবেশক পরীক্ষায় উত্তীর্ণ হইতে হইবে। তাহার পর এক সাক্ষাৎকার অনুষ্ঠিত হইবে। প্রার্থিগণের জন্ম ১৯৫২ সালের ২রা জানুয়ারির পরে কিন্তু ১৯৫৩ সালের ১লা জানুয়ারির পূর্বে হওয়া চাই। কলেজে ভর্তির জন্য কোনও শিক্ষাগত যোগ্যতা নির্ধারণ করা হয় নাই, তবে প্রার্থিগণের মাধ্যমিক বিদ্যালয়ের অষ্টম শ্রেণীর মান পর্যন্ত বিদ্যা প্রত্যাশা করা হয়। শিক্ষাকালের জন্য বেতন ৭৫০ টাকা; এতদ্ব্যতীত পোশাকাদি, হাত খরচা, পুস্তকাদি, ধোবা খরচ প্রভৃতির জন্য অতিরিক্ত ব্যয় ৪০০ টাকা। এইভাবে বৎসরে মোট খরচ হইবে প্রায় ২,৩০০ টাকা। তফসিলী সম্প্রদায় বা উপজাতির দুইজন ছাত্রীর নিকট হইতে কলেজে হ্রাস হারে বার্ষিক ১,৫৫০ টাকা হিসাবে লওয়া হইবে। একজন শিক্ষার্থীকে কলেজে পাঁচ হইতে ছয় বৎসর কাটাইতে হয়।

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their application from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.
2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.
3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he or she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted challan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates

They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

A. C. ROY, Secretary,
Public Service Commission, West Bengal.

Alipore, the 27th February, 1963.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.
2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.
3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

Advertisement No. 29

A COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION will be held in Calcutta in October, 1963 for recruitment of English Typists in the West Bengal Secretariat and certain other Government offices. The examination will also be held at Asansol and Jalpaiguri only if there are sufficient number of candidates for these centres. Pay: Rs. 125—200 plus house rent allowance, if admissible.

Qualifications: (i) Candidates must have passed the School Final (or equivalent) Examination; (ii) Must have ability to type accurately at a speed not less than 30 words per minute; (iii) Age below 25 years on 1st February 1963. Temporary typists in the Secretariat or other offices where recruitment is made on the results of the Typists' Recruitment Examination will be eligible if their age on 1st February 1963 does not exceed 25 years by more than the period of continuous temporary service. Age limit relaxable by five years for candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Tribes and by three years for a displaced person from Pakistan. Age limit is also relaxable in some other cases.

Copies of detailed notice and application form obtainable free of cost on and from 9th July 1963 from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a self-addressed large envelope (size 10"×5") with postage stamps worth 25 naye paise affixed thereon. Those who intend to take application form, etc., and/or submit the applications personally, should do so between 10-15 a.m. and 3-00 p.m. on full working days and between 10-15 a.m. and 12-30 p.m. on Saturdays. Applications (with two passport size photographs) to be submitted on the prescribed form with a Crossed Postal Order of Rs. 5.00 payable to "the Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal", or a Treasury Chalan for Rs. 5.00 under head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". The Commission may remit fees of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced persons. A candidate seeking remission of fees will, however, be required to pay the prescribed fee along with the application. If he appears at the examination and satisfies the Commission that he is a bona fide displaced person in indigent circumstances who can ill afford to pay the fee, the amount paid shall be refunded to him.

Last date of filing applications—31st July 1963.

A. C. ROY,
Secretary,
Public Service Commission, West Bengal.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such case be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date late applications may be rejected.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission :—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

OFFICE OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, WEST BENGAL

4 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1

A COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION will be held in November 1963 to recruit Senior Accounts Clerks for employment in the various offices of the Executive Engineers under the Government of West Bengal against 85 anticipated vacancies. The precise dates of the examination will be intimated individually to those persons whose candidature is accepted.

The subjects in which the candidates will be examined are (i) Essay or Precis, (ii) Elementary Book-keeping, and (iii) Arithmetic and Mensuration.

Pay: Rs. 150—5—250 (Efficiency Bar after the 10th stage), plus the usual dearness and other allowances as admissible from time to time under the rules of the Government of West Bengal. Appointments will be temporary for the present, but some may become permanent in due course. Successful candidates have also the prospect of becoming Divisional Accountants on passing the prescribed departmental examination. All appointments carry liability to serve anywhere under the Government of West Bengal.

Candidates should be graduates of a recognized University. Age should not exceed 23 years on the 1st November 1963. In the case of Clerks with experience for two years in the Accounts Branch of a Public Works Division or in the Works Audit Department of the office of the Accountant-General, West Bengal, relaxation may be permitted up to 30 years ordinarily and up to 33 years in very special cases. Bona fide displaced persons may be allowed relaxation in age-limit up to three years. Scheduled Castes/Tribes will be allowed relaxation in this respect up to five years. Any candidate, who is already in service, should apply through the head of his office.

Accounts Clerks of the Central Public Works Divisions under the audit control of the Accountant-General, West Bengal, will also be eligible to sit for the examination on the conditions under which they were hitherto been allowed to appear at the examination conducted by the Accountant-General, Central Revenues/Accountant-General, Commercial Works and Miscellaneous.

Application forms and further particulars may be obtained from the Superintendent, WMI Section, at 4 Brabourne Road (5th floor), Calcutta-1, between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. any working day except Saturday or by sending a self-addressed large-sized stamped envelope.

Application forms, duly filled in, should be either hand over personally in return for an acknowledgement or sent by Registered post superscribed on the cover as "Application for Initial Recruitment Examination". In either case, they should be accompanied by:

(i) A crossed Postal Order for Rs. 7.50 nP. (Rs. 1.50 nP. in the case of Scheduled Castes/Tribes candidates) issued in favour of the Accountant-General, West Bengal, Calcutta-1;

(ii) Original Matriculation or School Final Certificate and

(iii) Original University Degree, or a provisional certificate issued by the Principal of a College in anticipation of the ward of a Degree at a Convocation.

The applications should reach this office on or before the 16th September 1963.

The Accountant-General reserves the right to reject any application without assigning any reason.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

Candidates who are unable to obtain opies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar ped (not handwritten) form showing exactly the ording and spacing of the sample form published in the Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided e blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates hould furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and revious experience together with certificates written not ore than one year prior to the date of their applications, om responsible persons, testifying to their private haracter.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as ecorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School inal/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candiate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or chool Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of ge is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2 An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.— Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan om a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. ostal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. hey should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy ecretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No pplication will be considered unless accompanied with the equisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees ith the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as he case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which ill have to be attached to their applications to be ubmitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure efore depositing fee that their applications will be orwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the ee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications; from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the 'Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidate to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify the for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation of persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or school Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission:—

1 A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2 An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3 A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

A. C. ROY, Secretary,

Public Service Commission, West Bengal.

Alipore, the 27th February, 1963.

Advertisement No. 46

APPLICATIONS are invited from amongst the students of the School of Printing Technology, Jadavpur, Calcutta, for recruitment of seven Apprentices in the West Bengal Government Press, Alipore, and the Secretary to the Governor's Press, Calcutta. The candidates must apply through the Principal of the said school and should furnish with their applications Certificates of responsibility and character from him. The number of apprentices for the branches of the Presses will be as follows:—
Name of the Press and Branch and number of vacancies.

(A) West Bengal Government Press, Alipore—
Hand Composing—6

(B) Secretary to the Governor's Press, Calcutta—
Hand Composing—1
Total—7

Candidates should state clearly in their applications (below item 20 on page 4 of the prescribed form) in which press they desire to be trained. If more than one press is indicated, the order of preference (subsequent change will not be entertained) should be given. They need not, however, submit separate applications or pay separate fees for different presses. An apprentice should not be ordinarily transferred after appointment from the branch in which he accepts initial appointment to any other branch.

Pay: Each of the apprentices shall be given an ad-hoc stipend of Rs. 100 per month during the period of one year training in the Presses.

Qualifications: (i) Must be a citizen of India as defined in Part II of the Constitution of India. (ii) Must be a student of and must have successfully completed two years' course in the School of Printing Technology, Jadavpur, Calcutta. Age: Not below 18 years and above 23 years on the 1st January 1963.

The period of apprenticeship training shall be one year. Certificates of proficiency will be awarded to all apprentices on successful completion of training on the results of a final test to be held by a Board of Examiners. Apprentices, at no time, shall have a claim as a matter of right to any appointment under Government. An apprentice may, if vacancies exist in the Section of the Press in which he served the apprenticeship and if he passed the test after successful completion of the training, be absorbed in the temporary or permanent establishment of the Press as a Distributor in the Hand Composing Section on a scale of pay of Rs. 100—3—136—4—140 per month.

If no vacancy exists in the temporary or permanent establishment on the termination of period of apprenticeship, the apprentices will be discharged. In regard to apprentices who have satisfactorily completed the full course of training but cannot be absorbed immediately on completion of their training, preference shall be given to them over outside candidates while filling up future vacancies occurring within the next three years.

Prior to joining, a selected candidate shall be required to furnish a security deposit of Rs. 100 in cash to be forfeited by Government in the event of his desertion or discharge before completion of his training in the Press. The security deposit shall, however, be refunded on completion of training period.

Age Concession

The upper age limit is relaxable by five years for Scheduled Castes/Tribes and up to 45 years for displaced persons from Pakistan.

A candidate who before the 15th August 1947, was detained, imprisoned, interned, or externed on account of his/her activities in connection with the country's struggle for independence, not being convicted of an offence indicating moral turpitude, shall be entitled to a concession in respect of the upper age limit. The concession granted will be equal to the exact period of detention, imprisonment, internment or externment suffered up to a maximum of four years.

Apply to Secretary with a Treasury Chalan of Rs. 5 under head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of Public Service Commission, West Bengal", or a Crossed Postal Order of Rs. 5 payable to "Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Overseas candidates may deposit their application fees with the High Commission of India or the Indian Embassy, as the case may be. Particulars and prescribed application forms are obtainable from the office of the Commission, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a self-addressed large envelope with postage stamp of 35 nP. and the name of the post superscribed on the envelope. Those who intend to take application forms and/or submit the applications personally, should do so between 10-15 a.m. and 3-00 p.m. on full working days and between 10-15 a.m. and 12-30 p.m. on Saturdays

Closing date—The 9th November 1963.

Separate schedule of quantities for each of the above and tender forms embodying conditions will be available from the Superintendent, Ranchi Manasik Arogyashala, Kanke, Ranchi, on payment of the usual fee Six Naye paise per set. Amount of earnest money, which should accompany tenders, shall be ten per cent. at estimated value of each schedule to be deposited in the manner prescribed, vide Instructions of Tenderers embodied in the conditions of contract. In the event of earnest money, which must be furnished afresh. In the event of the contract being awarded to a contractor who has monies lying at his credit for due performance of previous contracts, either fulfilled or due expiary, such monies will not be accepted or adjusted. Duplicate samples of each article should be submitted in wide mouth glass phials and the phials should be half filled with and sealed. The quantity of samples in the phials must be at least two chattaks in each phial. No tender which is not accompanied by duplicate samples in proper form and with an up to date Income and Sales Tax clearance certificates and necessary foodgrains storage and handling licences if there be any will be considered. This ruling equally applies to the New comers. For sake of facility and convenience of the Contractor in making the supply timely and regularly every day the Government shall give a godown within the premises of the Hospital to the contractor, but the contractor shall have to pay rent for it at the rate, fixed by the C.P.W.D. (for H.M.D.) and by the P.W.D. (for R.M.A.) which shall be deducted out of the price of articles supplied. 'Sealed Tenders' superscribed 'Hospital Diet' will be received by the Superintendent, Ranchi Manasik Arogyashala, Kanke, Ranchi, up to 4 p.m. on the 6th December 1963. If at any time during the period of contract any commodity is controlled by Government the contractor will supply at the Contract Rate. Tenders submitted must hold good up to and for 31st December 1963. If the tender be withdrawn before this date, the Earnest money of the tenderer will be forfeited. Tenderers should specifically mention in the tender whether the rates quoted are inclusive of sales tax or exclusive of sales tax, and free delivery at the godowns of both the Mental Hospital. The Diet Committee reserve the right to accept or reject any tender or to amend scheduled quantities without assigning any reason. Pakistani Nationals and minors are debarred from tendering. The Diet Committee reserve the right to auction the lowest tender.

L. P. VARMA,
Superintendent,
Ranchi Manasik Arogyashala, Kanke, Ranchi.

RASHTRIYA INDIAN MILITARY COLLEGE

Applications are invited from the permanent residents of West Bengal for admission to the next term of the Rashtriya Indian Military College, Dehra Dun, commencing in August 1964.

The College provides a public school education for boys who wish to obtain commissions in the Army, Navy or Air Force. The educational training is designed to bring boys up to the standard of the Senior Cambridge School Certificate and the qualifying examination for entry into the National Defence Academy. Compulsory physical training, games and parades ensure physical fitness and smartness, while special attention is paid to the imparting of discipline, self-reliance and social training to all cadets.

Candidates for admission to the next term of the College which commences from August 1964, will have to qualify at an entrance examination to be held at Calcutta some time in the third week of February 1964, followed by an interview. Candidates must have been born not earlier than July 2, 1952 and not later than July 1, 1953. The age-limits can in no case be relaxed.

No educational qualification is prescribed for admission to this College but it is expected that the candidate should have read up to Class VII standard of a Secondary School

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission :—

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the school, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury challans are not accepted. Postal order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee accompanied with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuine indigent and bona fide displaced person from Pakistan.

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is bona fide displaced person from Pakistan, e.g. refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(iv) An indigent displaced person shall, in the first instance, pay the application fee prescribed for a gazetted post advertised by the Commission but if he/she is selected for and appears at the interview, the fee paid by him/her will be refunded afterwards.

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date late applications may be rejected.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts of "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application: Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required: Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission, -

1. A certificate from the Headmistress of the School, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

2. An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence

3. A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

(3) Fee: Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury chalans are not accepted. Postal Order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fee with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

Note: A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(4) Address: Candidates should give their permanent address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing: Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e. g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their post or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected

RASHTRIYA INDIAN MILITARY COLLEGE

Applications are invited from the permanent residents of West Bengal for admission to the next term of the Rashtriya Indian Military College, Dehra Dun, commencing in August 1964.

The College provides a public school education for boys who wish to obtain commissions in the Army, Navy or Air Force. The educational training is designed to bring boys up to the standard of the Senior Cambridge School Certificate and the qualifying examination for entry into the National Defence Academy. Compulsory physical training, games and parades ensure physical fitness and smartness, while special attention is paid to the imparting of discipline, self-reliance and social training to all cadets.

Candidates for admission to the next term of the College which commence from August 1964, will have to qualify at an entrance examination to be held at Calcutta some time in the third week of February 1964 followed by an interview. Candidates must have been born not earlier than July 2, 1952 and not later than July 1, 1953. The age-limits can in no case be relaxed.

No educational qualification is prescribed for admission to this College but it is expected that the candidate should have read up to Class VII standard of a Secondary School.

The fees are Rs. 750 per term plus additional expenses of Rs. 400 (e.g., uniforms, pocket-money, books, washing, etc.). The actual cost is thus about Rs. 2,300 per annum. One candidate belonging to Scheduled Caste/Tribe who may be admitted to the College may be charged fees at reduced rates of Rs. 1,550 per annum. A cadet spends five to six years at the College.

A limited number of scholarships of Rs. 1,000 per annum is awarded to the deserving cadets after admission to the College by the West Bengal Government.

Application on the prescribed form in duplicate which can be had on request from the Assistant Secretary, Home (Defence) Department, Government of West Bengal, Writers' Buildings, Calcutta-1, should be submitted so as to reach him on or before January 15, 1964.

(iii) in sub-section (5), after the words "the Gift-tax Officer", the words "after taking into account all relevant material which he has gathered" shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 16.

13. In section 16 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), for clause (a), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(a) has reason to believe that by reason of the omission or failure on the part of the assessee to make a return under section 13 of the gifts made by him or any other person in respect of which he is assessable under this Act for any assessment year, or to disclose fully and truly all material facts necessary for assessment of the gifts made by him or such other person for that year any taxable gift has escaped assessment for that year, whether by reason of under-assessment or assessment at too low a rate or otherwise; or".

Substitution of new section for section 17.

14. For section 17 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Penalty for failure to furnish returns, to comply with notices and concealment of gifts, etc.

"17. (1) If the Gift-tax Officer, Appellate Assistant Commissioner, Commissioner or Appellate Tribunal, in the course of any proceedings under this Act, is satisfied that any person—

(a) has without reasonable cause failed to furnish the return required to be furnished under sub-section (1) of section 13 or by notice given under sub-section (2) of section 13 or section 16 or has, without reasonable cause, failed to furnish it within the time allowed and in the manner required by sub-section (1) of section 13 or by such notice, as the case may be, or

(b) has without reasonable cause failed to comply with a notice under sub-section (2) or sub-section (4) of section 15; or

(c) has concealed the particulars of any gift or deliberately furnished inaccurate particulars thereof, he or it may, by order in writing, direct that such person shall pay by way of penalty—

(i) in the cases referred to in clause (a), in addition to the amount of gift-tax payable by him, a sum equal to two per cent. of the tax for every month during which the default continued, but not exceeding in the aggregate fifty per cent. of the tax;

(ii) in the cases referred to in clause (b), in addition to the amount of gift-tax payable by him, a sum which shall not be less than ten per cent. but which shall not exceed fifty per cent. of the amount of the tax, if any, which would have been avoided if the return made by such person had been accepted as correct;

(iii) in the cases referred to in clause (c), in addition to any gift-tax payable by him, a sum which shall not be less than twenty per cent. but which shall not exceed one and half times the amount of the tax, if any, which would have been avoided, if the return made by such person had been accepted as correct.

(2) No order imposing a penalty under sub-section (1) shall be made unless the assessee has been heard or has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (iii) of sub-section (1), if in a case falling under clause (c) of that sub-section, the minimum penalty imposable exceeds a sum of rupees one thousand, the Gift-tax Officer shall refer the case to the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner who shall, for the purpose, have all the powers conferred under this section for the imposition of penalty.

(4) An Appellate Assistant Commissioner, Commissioner or the Appellate Tribunal, on making an order under this section imposing penalty, shall forthwith send a copy of the same to the Gift-tax Officer.".

Insertion of new section 19A.

15. After section 19 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Assessment of persons leaving India.

"19A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, when it appears to the Gift-tax Officer that any individual may leave India during the current assessment year or shortly after its expiry and that he has no present intention of returning to India, the gifts made by such individual during the period from the expiry of the previous year for that assessment year up to the probable date of his departure from India, shall be chargeable to gift-tax in that assessment year.

(2) The taxable gifts made in each completed previous year or part of any previous year included in such period shall be chargeable to gift-tax at the rate or rates specified in the Schedule, and separate assessments shall be made in respect of each such completed previous year or part of any previous year.

(3) The Gift-tax Officer may estimate the value of the gifts made by such individual during such period or any part thereof, where it cannot be readily determined in the manner provided in this Act.

(4) For the purpose of making an assessment under sub-section (1), the Gift-tax Officer may serve a notice upon such individual requiring him to furnish, within such time, not being less than seven days, as may be specified in the notice, a return in the same form and verified in the same manner as a return under sub-section (2) of section 13, giving particulars of the gifts made by him during each completed previous year comprised in the period referred to in sub-section (1) and during any part of the previous year comprised in that period; and the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, and subject to the provisions of this section, apply as if the notice were a notice issued under sub-section (2) of section 13.

(5) The gift-tax chargeable under this section shall be in addition to the tax, if any, chargeable under any other provision of this Act.

(6) Where the provisions of sub-section (1) are applicable, any notice issued by the Gift-tax Officer under sub-section (2) of section 13 or under section 16 in respect of any gift-tax chargeable under any other provisions of this Act may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) of section 13 or section 16, as the case may be, require the furnishing of the return by such individual within such period, not being less than seven days, as the Gift-tax Officer may think proper.".

Insertion of new section 21A.

16. In Chapter V of the principal Act, after section 21, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Assessment of donee when donor cannot be found.

"21A. (1) Where a Gift-tax Officer after using all due and reasonable diligence cannot find the donor who has made any taxable gifts, for the purpose of service of notice under sub-section (2) of section 13 or under section 16, the Gift-tax Officer may make an assessment of the value of all such taxable gifts made by him and determine the gift-tax payable by him and for this purpose may, by the issue of the appropriate notice which would have had to be served upon the donor, require from the donee or donees any accounts, documents or other evidence which might, under the provisions of section 15, have been required from the donor.

(2) Where any assessment in respect of the taxable gifts made by the donor has been made under sub-section (1), every donee shall be liable for the gift-tax so assessed:

Provided that where the donees are more than one, they shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of the gift-tax so assessed:

Provided further that the amount of the gift-tax which may be recovered from each donee shall not exceed the value of the gift made to him as on the date of the gift.

(3) The provisions of sections 13, 14 and 16, shall apply to a donee as they apply to any person referred to in those sections.".

(c) after clause (f), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:—

"(g) objecting to an order of the Gift-tax Officer under section 34 having the effect of enhancing the assessment or reducing a refund or an order refusing to allow the claim made by the assessee under that section; or

(h) objecting to any fine imposed by the Gift-tax Officer under sub-section (2) of section 36;";

(ii) after sub-section (5), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(5A) In disposing of an appeal, the Appellate Assistant Commissioner may consider and decide any matter arising out of the proceedings in which the order appealed against was passed, notwithstanding that such matter was not raised before the Appellate Assistant Commissioner by the appellant.

(5B) The order of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner disposing of the appeal shall be in writing and shall state the points for determination, the decision thereon and the reasons for the decision.".

Amendment of section 23.

18. In section 23 of the principal Act,—

(i) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) An assessee, objecting to an order passed by the Appellate Assistant Commissioner under section 17 or section 22 or sub-section (2) of section 36 or to an order passed by the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner under sub-section (3) of section 17, may appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within sixty days of the date on which the order is communicated to him.";

(ii) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2A) The Gift-tax Officer or the assessee, as the case may be, on receipt of notice that an appeal against the order of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner has been preferreed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) by the other party, may, notwithstanding that he may not have appealed against such order or any part thereof, within thirty days of the receipt of the notice, file a memorandum of cross objections, verified in the prescribed manner, against any part of the order of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner and such memorandum shall be disposed of by the Appellate Tribunal as if it were an appeal presented within the time specified in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2).";

(iii) for sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(3) The Appellate Tribunal may admit an appeal or permit the filing of a memorandum of cross objections after the expiry of the relevant period referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (2A) if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period.";

(iv) in sub-section (11), for the words, brackets, figures and letter "sub-sections (5), (7) and (8) of section 5A of the Income-tax Act", the words, brackets and figures "sub-sections (1), (4) and (5) of section 255 of the Income-tax Act" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 24.

19. In section 24 of the principal Act, to sub-section (3), the following Explanation shall be added, namely:—

"Explanation.—In computing the period of limitation for purposes of this sub-section, the time taken in giving an opportunity to the assessee to be reheard under the proviso to section 38 and any period during which any proceeding under this section is stayed by an order or injunction of any court shall be excluded.".

Amendment of section 25.

20. In section 25 of the principal Act, for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:-

Amendment of section 26.

21. In section 26 of the principal Act,—

(i) for sub-sections (1) and (2), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) The assessee or the Commissioner may, within sixty days of the date upon which he is served with notice of an order under section 23 or section 25, by application in the prescribed form, accompanied, where the application is made by the assessee, by a fee of rupees one hundred require the Appellate Tribunal to refer to the High Court any question of law arising out of such order and, subject to the other provisions contained in this section, the Appellate Tribunal shall, within one hundred and twenty days of the receipt of such application, draw up a statement of the case and refer it to the High Court.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal may, if it is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the application within the period specified in sub-section (1), allow it to be presented within a further period not exceeding thirty days.";

(ii) after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(3A) If, on an application made under this section, the Appellate Tribunal is of the opinion that on account of a conflict in the decisions of High Courts in respect of any particular question of law, it is expedient that a reference should be made direct to the Supreme Court, the Appellate Tribunal may draw up a statement of the case and refer it through its President direct to the Supreme Court.";

(iii) in sub-sections (4), (5) and (6), after the words "High Court", the words "or the Supreme Court" shall be inserted;

(iv) for sub-sections (7), (8) and (9), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:-

"(7) The cost of any reference to the High Court or the Supreme Court which shall not include the fee for making the reference shall be in the discretion of the Court.".

Insertion of new sections 28A and 28B.

22. In Chapter VI of the principal Act, after section 28, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:-

Tax to be paid notwithstanding reference, etc.

'28A. Notwithstanding that a reference has been made to the High Court or the Supreme Court or an appeal has been preferred to the Supreme Court, tax shall be payable in accordance with the assessment made in the case.

Definition of High Court.

28B. In this Chapter, "High Court" means

(i) in relation to any State, the High Court of that State;

(ii) in relation to the Union territories of Delhi and Himachal Pradesh, the High Court of Punjab;

(iii) in relation to the Union territories of Manipur and Tripura, the High Court of Assam;

(iv) in relation to the Union territory of Andaman and Nicobar Islands, the High Court at Calcutta;

(v) in relation to the Union territory of Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands, the High Court of Kerala.'.

Substitution of new section for section 29.

23. For section 29 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Gift-tax by whom payable.

"29. Subject to the provisions of this Act, gift-tax shall be payable by the donor but when in the opinion of the Gift-tax Officer the tax cannot be recovered from the donor, it may be recovered from the donee:

Provided that where the donees are more than one, they shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of tax determined to be payable by the donor:

Provided further that the amount of tax which may be recovered from each donee shall not exceed the value of the gift made to him as on the date of the gift.".

Substitution of new sections for sections 31, 32 and 33.

24. For sections 31, 32 and 33 of the principal Act, following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

Notice of demand.

"31. When any tax, interest, penalty, fine or any other sum is payable in consequence of any order passed under this Act, the Gift-tax Officer shall serve upon the assessee a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying the sum so payable.

Recovery of tax and penalties.

32. (1) Any amount specified as payable in a notice of demand under section 31 shall be paid within thirty-five days of the service of the notice at the place and to the person mentioned in the notice:

Provided that, where the Gift-tax Officer has any reason to belive that it will be detrimental to revenue if the full period of thirty-five days aforesaid is allowed, he may, with the previous approval of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner, direct that the sum specified in the notice of demand shall be paid within such period being a period less than the period of thirty-five days aforesaid, as may be specified by him in the notice of demand.

(2) If the amount specified in any notice of demand under section 31 is not paid within the period limited under sub-section (1), the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at four per cent. per annum from the day commencing after the end of the period mentioned in sub-section (1).

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (2), on an application made by the assessee before the expiry of the due date under sub-section (1), the Gift-tax Officer may extend the time for payment or allow payment by instalments subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose in the circumstances of the case.

(4) If the amount is not paid within the time limited under sub-section (1) or extended under sub-section (3), as the case may be, at the place and to the person mentioned in the said notice, the assessee shall be deemed to be in default.

(5) If, in a case where payment by instalment is allowed under sub-section (3), the assessee commits default in paying any one of the instalments within the time fixed under that sub-section, the assessee shall be deemed to be in default as to the whole of the amount then outstanding, and the other instalment or instalments shall be deemed to have been due on the same date as the instalment actually in default.

(6) Where the assessee has presented an appeal under section 22, the Gift-tax Officer may in his discretion and subject to such conditions, as he may think fit to impose in the circumstances of the case, treat the assessee as not being in default in respect of the amount in dispute in the appeal, even though the time for payment has expired as long as such appeal remains undisposed of.

Mode of recovery.

33. The provisions contained in sections 221 to 227, 229, 231 and 232 of the Income-tax Act and the Second and Third Schedules to that Act and any rules made thereunder shall, so far as may be, apply as if the said provisions were provisions of this Act and referred to gift-tax and sums imposed by way of penalty, fine and interest under this Act instead of to income-tax and sums imposed by way of penalty, fine and interest under that Act and to Gift-tax Officer and Commissioner of Gift-tax instead of to Income-tax Officer and Commissioner of Income-tax.

Explanation I.—Any reference to sub-section (2) or sub-section (6) of section 220 of the Income-tax Act in the said provisions of that Act or the rules made thereunder shall be construed as references to sub-sections (2) and (6), respectively, of section 32 of this Act.

Explanation II.—The Tax Recovery Officer and the Tax Recovery Commissioner referred to in the Income-tax Act or the rules made thereunder shall be deemed to be the Tax Recovery Officer and the Tax Recovery Commissioner for the purposes of recovery of gift-tax and sums imposed by way of penalty, fine and interest under this Act.".

Insertion of new Chapter VIIA.

25. After Chapter VII of the principal Act, the following Chapter shall be inserted, namely:—

"CHAPTER VIIA

Refunds.

33A. (1) Where, as a result of any order passed in appeal or other proceedings under this Act, refund of any amount becomes due to the assessee the Gift-tax Officer shall, except as otherwise provided in this Act, refund the amount to the assessee without his having to make any claim in that behalf.

(2) Where on order giving rise to a refund is the subject-matter of an appeal or further proceeding or where any other proceeding under this Act is pending, and the Gift-tax Officer is of the opinion that the grant of refund is likely to adversely affect the revenue, the Gift-tax Officer may, with the previous approval of the Commissioner withhold the refund till such time as the Commissioner may determine.

(3) Where a refund is due to the assessee in pursuance of an order referred to in sub-section (1) and the Gift-tax Officer does not grant the refund within a period of six months from the date of such order, the Central Government shall pay to the assessee simple interest at four per cent. per annum on the amount of refund due from the date immediately following the expiry of the period of six months aforesaid to the date on which the refund is granted.

(4) Where a refund is withheld under the provisions of sub-section (2), the Central Government shall pay interest at the aforesaid rate on the amount of refund ultimately determined to be due as a result of the appeal or further proceedings for a period commencing after the expiry of six months from the date of the order referred to in that sub-section to the date the refund is granted.

(5) Where under any of the provisions of this Act, a refund is found to be due to any person, the Gift-tax Officer, Appellate Assistant Commissioner or Commissioner, as the case may be, may, in lieu of payment of the refund, set off the amount to be refunded or any part of that amount, against the sum, if any, remaining payable under this Act by the person to whom the refund is due, after giving an information in writing to such person of the action proposed to be taken under this section.".

Substitution of new section for section 34.

26. For section 34 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Rectification of mistakes.

"34. (1) With a view to rectify any mistake apparent from the record—

(a) the Gift-tax Officer may amend any order of assessment or of refund or any other order passed by him;

(b) the Appellate Assistant Commissioner may amend any order passed by him under sub-section (1) of section 17 or under section 22;

(c) the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner may amend any order passed by him under sub-section (3) of section 17;

(d) the Commissioner may amend any order passed by him under sub-section (1) of section 17 or under section 24;

(e) the Appellate Tribunal may amend any order passed by it under sub-section (1) of section 17 or section 23 or section 25.

(2) Subject to other provisions of this section, the authority concerned—

(a) may make an amendment under sub-section (1) of its own motion; and

(b) shall make such amendment for rectifying any such mistake which has been brought to its notice by the assessee, and where the authority concerned is the Appellate Assistant Commissioner or the Appellate Tribunal by the Gift-tax Officer also.

(3) An amendment, which has the effect of enhancing an assessment or reducing a refund or otherwise increasing the liability of the assessee, shall not be made under this section unless the authority concerned has given notice to the assessee of its intention so to do and has allowed the assessee a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(4) Where an amendment is made under this section, an order shall be passed in writing by the Gift-tax authority concerned.

(5) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 33, where any such amendment has the effect of reducing the assessment, the Gift-tax Officer shall make any refund which may be due to such assessee.

(6) Where any such amendment has the effect of enhancing the assessment or reducing a refund already made, the Gift-tax Officer shall serve on the assessee a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying the sum payable, and such notice of demand shall be deemed to be issued under section 31 and the provision of this Act shall apply accordingly.

(7) No amendment under this section shall be made after the expiry of four years from the date of the order sought to be amended.".

Amendment of section 35.

27. In section 35 of the principal Act,—

(i) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2A) If a person abets or induces in any manner another person to make and deliver an account, statement or declaration relating to any gifts chargeable to tax which is false and which he either knows to be false or does not believe to be true, he shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.";

(ii) for the Explanation, the following Explanation shall be substituted, namely:—

"Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, 'Magistrate' means a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class.".

Substitution of new section for section 36.

28. For section 36 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Power regarding discovery, production of evidence, etc.

"36. (1) The Gift-tax Officer, the Appellate Assistant Commissioner, the Commissioner and the Appellate Tribunal shall, for the purposes of this Act, have the same powers as are vested in a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, when trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely:—

5 of 1908.

(a) discovery and inspection;

(b) enforcing the attendance of any person, including any officer of a banking company and examining him on oath;

(c) compelling the production of books of account and other documents; and

(d) issuing commissions.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of any other law for the time being in force, where a person to whom a summons is issued either to attend to give evidence or produce books of account or other documents at a certain place and time, intentionally omits to attend or produce the books of account or document at the place or time, the authority empowered to issue such summons may impose upon him such fine not exceeding five hundred rupees as it thinks fit, and fine so levied may be recovered in the manner provided in Chapter VII.".

Amendment of section 38.

29. To section 38 of the principal Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that the assessee concerned may demand that before the proceeding is so continued the previous proceeding or any part thereof be reopened or that before any order of assessment is passed against him, he be reheard.".

Substitution of new section for section 39.

30. For section 39 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Computation of period of limitation.

"39. In computing the period of limitation prescribed for an appeal or an application under this Act, the day on which the order complained of was served and if the assessee was not furnished with a copy of the order when the notice of the order was served upon him, the time requisite for obtaining a copy of such order, shall be excluded.".

Amendment of section 40.

31. In section 40 of the principal Act, after sub-section (2), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:

"(3) After a finding of total partition has been recorded by the Gift-tax Officer under section 20 in respect of any Hindu family, notices under this Act, in respect of the gifts made by the family shall be served on the person who was the last manager of the Hindu family, or if such person is dead, then on all surviving adults who were members of the Hindu family immediately before the partition.

(4) Where a firm or other association of persons is dissolved, notices under this Act, in respect of the gifts made by the firm or association may be served on any person who was a partner (not being a minor) or member of the association, as the case may be, immediately before its dissolution.".

Substitution of new section for section 41.

32. For section 41 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Prohibition of disclosure of information.

"41. The provisions of sections 137 and 280 of the Income-tax Act shall apply to the disclosure of particulars contained in all accounts or in relation to statements, documents, evidence or affidavits given, produced or obtained in connection with or in the course of any proceedings under this Act, as they apply to or in relation to similar particulars under that Act, subject to the modification that the reference to any income-tax authority in clause (iv) of sub-section (3) of section 137 of that Act shall be construed as a reference to any Gift-tax authority.".

Amendment of section 41A.

33. In section 41A of the principal Act, in sub-section (3), after clause (i), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(ia) in the case of an assessee mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1) or in clause (b) of sub-section (2), who presented an appeal under sub-section (1) of section 23 against the order of penalty passed by the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner under sub-section (3) of section 17, until the appeal is disposed of by the Appellate Tribunal;".

34. For section 43 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:— Substitution of new section for section 43.

"43. An assessee who is entitled to or required to attend any Gift-tax authority or the Appellate Tribunal in connection with any proceeding under this Act, except where he is required under this Act to attend in person, may attend by a person who would be entitled to represent him before any Income-tax authority or the Appellate Tribunal under section 288 of the Income-tax Act.". Appearance before Gift-tax authorities by authorised representatives.

35. In section 45 of the principal Act, in clause (e), for the words, brackets and figures "clause (i) of sub-section (3) of section 4", the word and figure "section 11" shall be substituted. Amendment of section 45.

36. In section 46 of the principal Act, for sub-section (4), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:— Amendment of section 46.

"(4) The Central Government shall cause every rule made under this Act to be laid as soon as may be after it is made before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and, if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modifications in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.".

THE ATOMIC ENERGY ACT, 1962.

[15th September, 1962.]

An Act to provide for the development, control and use of atomic energy for the welfare of the people of India and for other peaceful purposes and for matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Atomic Energy Act, 1962.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Definitions and interpretation.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "atomic energy" means energy released from atomic nuclei as a result of any process, including the fission and fusion processes;

(b) "fissile material" means uranium 233, uranium 235, plutonium or any material containing these substances or any other material that may be declared as such by notification by the Central Government;

(c) "minerals" include all substances obtained or obtainable from the soil (including alluvium or rocks) by underground or surface working;

(d) "notification" means notification published in the Official Gazette;

(e) "plant" includes machinery, equipment or appliance, whether affixed to land or not;

(f) "prescribed equipment" means any property which the Central Government may, by notification, prescribe, being a property which in its opinion is specially designed or adapted or which is used or intended to be used for the production or utilisation of any prescribed substance, or for the production or utilisation of atomic energy, radioactive substances, or radiation, but does not include mining, milling, laboratory and other equipment not so specially designed or adapted and not incorporated in equipment used or intended to be used for any of the purposes aforesaid;

(g) "prescribed substance" means any substance including any mineral which the Central Government may, by notification, prescribe, being a substance which in its opinion is or may be used for the production or use of atomic energy or research into matters connected therewith and includes uranium, plutonium, thorium, beryllium, deuterium or any of their respective derivatives or compounds or any other materials containing any of the aforesaid substances;

(h) "radiation" means gamma rays, X-rays, and rays consisting of alpha particles, beta particles, neutrons, protons and other nuclear and sub-atomic particles; but not sound or radio waves, or visible, infraed or ultraviolet light;

(i) "radioactive substance" or "radioactive material" means any substance or material which spontaneously emits radiation in excess of the levels prescribed by notification by the Central Government.

(2) Any reference in this Act to the working of minerals shall be construed as including a reference to the mining, getting, carrying away, transporting, sorting, extracting or otherwise treating of minerals.

(3) Any reference in this Act to the production or use of atomic energy shall be construed as including a reference to the carrying out of any process, preparatory or ancillary to such production or use.

General powers of the Central Government.

3. Subject to the povisions of this Act, the Central Government shall have power—

(a) to produce, develop, use and dispose of atomic energy and carry out research into any matters connected therewith;

(b) to manufacture or otherwise produce, buy or otherwise acquire, store and transport any prescribed or radioactive substance and any articles which in its opinion are, or are likely to be, required for or in connection with the production, development or use of atomic energy or such research as aforesaid and to dispose of any articles manufactured or otherwise produced, bought or otherwise acquired by it;

(c) to declare as "restricted information" any information not so far published or otherwise made public relating to—

(i) the location, quality and quantity of prescribed substances and transactions for their acquisition, whether by purchase or otherwise, or disposal, whether by sale or otherwise;

(ii) the processing of prescribed substances and the extraction or production of fissile materials from them;

(iii) the theory, design, construction and operation of plants for the treatment and production of any of the prescribed substances and for the separation of isotopes;

(iv) the theory, design, construction and operation of nuclear reactors;

(v) research and technological work on materials and processes involved in or derived from items (i) to (iv);

(d) to declare as "prohibited area" any area or premises where work including research, design or development is carried on in respect of the production, treatment, use, application or disposal of atomic enery or of any prescribed substance;

(e) to provide for control over radioactive substances or radiation generating plant in order to—

(i) prevent radiation hazards;

(ii) secure public safety and safety of persons handling radioactive substances or radiation generating plant; and

(iii) ensure safe disposal of radioactive wastes;

(f) to provide for the production and supply of electricity from atomic energy and for taking measures conducive to such production and supply and for all matters incidental thereto; and

(g) to do all such things (including the erection of buildings and execution of works and the working of minerals) as the Central Government considers necessary or expedient for the exercise of the foregoing powers.

Notification of discovery of uranium or thorium.

4. (1) Every person who, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, has discovered or discovers that uranium or thorium occurs at any place in India shall, within three months after the date of commencement of this Act or after the discovery, whichever is later, report the discovery in writing to the Central Government or to any person or authority authorised by the Central Government in this behalf.

(2) Every person who has reason to believe that uranium or thorium occurs at any place in India shall, without delay, send intimation of such belief and the reasons therefor to the Central Government or to any such person or authority as aforesaid.

Control over mining or concentration of substances containing uranium.

5. (1) If the Central Government is satisfied that any person is mining or is about to mine any substance from which, in the opinion of the Central Government, uranium can be or may reasonably be expected to be, isolated or extracted, or is engaged or is about to be engaged in treating or concentrating by any physical, chemical or metallurgical process any substance from which, in the opinion of the Central Government, uranium can be or may reasonably be expected to be, isolated or extracted, the Central Government may by notice in writing given to that person either--

(a) require him in conducting the mining operations or in treating or concentrating the substance aforesaid to comply with such terms and conditions and adopt such processes as the Central Government may in the notice, or from time to time thereafter, think fit to specify, or

(b) totally prohibit him from conducting the mining operations or treating or concentrating the substance aforesaid.

(2) Where any terms and conditions are imposed on any person conducting any mining operations or treating or concentrating any substance under clause (a) of sub-section (1), the Central Government may, having regard to the nature of the terms and conditions, decide as to whether or not to pay any compensation to that person and the decision of the Central Government shall be final:

Provided that where the Central Government decides not to pay any compensation, it shall record in writing a brief statement giving the reasons for such decision.

(3) Where the Central Government decides to pay any compensation under sub-section (2), the amount thereof shall be determined in accordance with section 21 but in calculating the compensation payable, no account shall be taken of the value of any uranium contained in the substance referred to in sub-section (1).

(4) Where any mining operation or any process of treatment or concentration of any substance is prohibited under clause (b) of sub-section (1), the Central Government shall pay compensation to the person conducting the mining operations or using the process of treatment or concentration and the amount of such compensation shall be determined in accordance with section 21 but in calculating the compensation payable, no account shall be taken of the value of any uranium contained in the substances.

Disposal of uranium.

6. (1) No minerals, concentrates and other materials which contain uranium in its natural state in excess of such proportion as may be prescribed by notification by the Central Government shall be disposed of except with the previous permission in writing of the Central Government and in accordance with such terms and conditions as it may impose.

(2) The Central Government may serve notice on any person who has produced any mineral, concentrate or other material referred to in sub-section (1) that the Central Government proposes to acquire it and upon the service of the notice and the payment of compensation in accordance with section 21, the mineral, concentrate or other material shall become the property of the Central Government and shall be delivered to the Central Government or as it may direct:

Provided that in determining the compensation regard shall be had to the cost of production of such mineral, concentrate or other material and such other factors as may be relevant, but no account shall be taken of the value of uranium in its natural state contained therein.

Power to obtain information regarding materials, plant or processes.

7. The Central Government may, by notice in writing served on any person, require him to make such periodical and other returns, or statements at such times and containing such particulars and accompanied by such plans, drawings and other documents as may be specified in the notice relating to—

(a) any prescribed substance, specified in the notice, in his possession or under his control or present in or on any land or mine owned or occupied by him which in the opinion of the Central Government is or can be a source of any of the prescribed substances, including returns in respect of any such land or mine;

(b) any plant in his possession or under his control designed for mining or processing of minerals so specified, or adapted for the production or use of atomic energy or research into matters connected therewith;

(c) any contract entered into by him or any licence granted by or to him relating to prospecting or mining of minerals so specified or the production or use of atomic energy or research into matters connected therewith;

(d) any other information in his possession relating to any work carried out by him or on his behalf or under his directions, in connection with prospecting or mining of materials so specified or the production or use of atomic energy or research into matters connected therewith.

Power of entry and inspection.

8. (1) Any person authorised by the Central Government may, on producing, if so required, a duly authenticated document showing his authority, enter any mine, premises or land—

(a) where he has reason to believe that work is being carried out for the purpose of or in connection with production and processing of any prescribed substances or substances from which a prescribed substance can be obtained or production, development or use of atomic energy or research into matters connected therewith, or

(b) where any such plant as is mentioned in clause (b) of section 7 is situate.

and may inspect the mine, premises or land and any articles contained therein.

(2) The person carrying out the inspection may make copies of or extracts from any drawing, plan or other document found in the mine, premises or land and for the purpose of making such copies or extracts, may remove any such drawing, plan or other document after giving a duly signed receipt for the same and retain possession thereof for a period not exceeding seven days.

Power to do work for discovering minerals.

9. (1) The Central Government may, subject to the provisions of this section, do on, over or below the surface of any land such work as it considers necessary for the purpose of discovering whether there is present in or on the land, either in a natural state or in a deposit of waste material obtained from any underground or surface working, any substance from which in its opinion any of the prescribed substances can be obtained, and the extent to which such substance is so present.

(2) Before any powers are exercised under sub-section (1) in relation to any land, the Central Government shall serve on every owner, lessee and occupier of the land a notice in writing specifying the nature of the work proposed to be done and the extent of the land affected, and the time, not being less than twenty-eight days, within which and the manner in which objections can be made thereto, and no such powers shall be exercised otherwise than in pursuance of the notice or before the expiration of the time specified therein for making objections.

(3) The Central Government may, after giving the person making the objection an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Central Government for the purpose, and after considering any such objection and the report of the person so appointed, make such orders as it may deem proper but not so as to increase the extent of the land affected.

(4) Compensation shall be determined and paid in accordance with section 21 in respect of any diminution in the value of any land or property situate thereon resulting from the exercise of powers under this section.

Compulsory acquisition of rights to work minerals.

10. (1) Where it appears to the Central Government that any minerals from which in its opinion any of the prescribed substances can be obtained are present in or on any land, either in a natural state or in a deposit of waste material obtained from any underground or surface working, it may by order provide for compulsorily vesting in the Central Government the exclusive right, so long as the order remains in force, to work those minerals and any other minerals which it appears to the Central Government to be necessary to work with those minerals, and may also provide, by that order or a subsequent order, for compulsorily vesting in the Central Government any other ancillary rights which appear to the Central Government to be necessary for the purpose of working the minerals aforesaid including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions)—

(a) rights to withdraw support;

(b) rights necessary for the purpose of access to or conveyance of the minerals aforesaid or the ventilation or drainage, of the working;

(c) rights to use and occupy the surface of any land for the purpose of erecting any necessary buildings and installing any necessary plant in connection with the working of the minerals aforesaid;

(d) rights to use and occupy for the purpose of working the minerals aforesaid any land forming part of or used in connection with an existing mine or quarry, and to use or acquire any plant used in connection with any such mine or quarry; and

(e) rights to obtain a supply of water for any of the purposes connected with the working of the minerals aforesaid, or to dispose of water or other liquid matter obtained in consequence of working such minerals.

(2) Notice of any order proposed to be made under this section shall be served by the Central Government—

(a) on all persons who, but for the order, would be entitled to work the minerals affected; and

(b) on every owner, lessee and occupier (except tenants for a month or for less than a month) of any land in respect of which rights are proposed to be acquired under the order.

(3) Compensation in respect of any right acquired under this section shall be paid in accordance with section 21, but in calculating the compensation payable no account shall be taken of the value of any minerals present in or on land affected by the order, being minerals specified in the order as those from which in the opinion of the Central Government uranium or any concentrate or derivative of uranium can be obtained.

Compulsory acquisition of prescribed substances, minerals and plants.

11. (1) Save as otherwise provided in any other provision of this Act, the Central Government may compulsorily acquire in accordance with the provisions of this section—

(a) any prescribed substance;

(b) any minerals from which in the opinion of the Central Government any of the prescribed substances can be obtained;

(c) any prescribed equipment;

(d) any plant which is designed or adapted for the mining or processing of any minerals referred to in clause (b) or substances obtained therefrom or for the production or use of any prescribed substance or a radioactive substance or for the production, use or disposal of such articles as are or are likely to be required for or in connection with the production, us or disposal of atomic energy or for research into matters connected therewith.

(2) Where the Central Government acquires any plant referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (1), it shall also have the right to acquire any buildings, railway sidings, tramway lines, or aerial ropeways serving such plant.

(3) Where the Central Government proposes to acquire any property under sub-section (1), it shall serve upon the person appearing to be the owner thereof, a notice in writing specifying the property to be acquired and requiring that person to make to the Central Government within the time specified in the notice a written declaration containing such particulars as may be so specified regarding the ownership of such property and any agreement or charge by virtue of which any other person has an interest in such property.

(4) Upon the service of a notice under sub-section (3) no property to which the notice relates shall be disposed of without the previous permission in writing of the Central Government.

(5) If it appears to the Central Government in consequence of any written declaration made to it in pursuance of sub-section (3) that any person other than the person on whom the notice under sub-section (3) was served is the owner of, or has any interest in, the property to which the notice relates, the Central Government shall serve a copy of the notice on that other person.

(6) A notice served under sub-section (3) shall contain a statement to the effect that an objection may be made thereto within such time and in such manner as may be specified and if any such objection is duly made and not withdrawn, the Central Government shall afford an opportunity to the person making the objection of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Central Government for the purpose.

(7) After considering any such objection, and the report of the person appointed by it under sub-section (6), the Central Government may serve on the persons upon whom the notice under sub-section (3) or a copy thereof was served a further notice in writing either withdrawing the notice of acquisition or confirming the said notice as respects the property to which it relates or such part of the property as may be specified.

(8) Any property with respect to which a notice of acquisition is served under this section shall—

(a) if no objection is duly made to the notice, vest in the Central Government at the expiration of the time for making such objection;

(b) if such an objection is duly made and the notice is confirmed as respects the whole or any part of that property by a notice served under sub-section (7), vest accordingly in the Central Government on the service of the last mentioned notice; and shall in either case vest free from all encumbrances.

(9) Compensation in respect of acquisition under this section shall be paid in accordance with section 21.

Compensation in case of compulsory acquisition of a mine.

12. Where the Central Government acquires, in accordance with any law, any mine or part of a mine from which in the opinion of the Central Government any of the prescribed substances can be obtained, compensation in respect of such acquisition shall be paid in accordance with section 21:

Provided that in determining the amount of such compensation, no account shall be taken of the value of uranium which may be obtained from such mine or part of a mine.

Novation of certain contracts.

13. (1) The Central Government may serve on the parties to a contract relating to prospecting or mining of any substance from which any of the prescribed substances can be obtained or to production or use of atomic energy or to research into matters connected therewith, not being a contract for the rendering of personal services, a notice in writing stating that on such date as may be specified in the notice the rights and liabilities of any of the parties to the contract specified in the notice (hereinafter referred to as the specified party) will be transferred to the Central Government, and thereupon subject to any withdrawal of the notice under the following provisions of this section, the contract shall, as regards any rights exercisable, or liabilities incurred, on or after the said date, have effect as if the Central Government were a party to the contract instead of the specified party and as if for any reference in the contract to the specified party there were substituted a reference to the Central Government.

(2) A notice served under sub-section (1) shall contain a statement to the effect that an objection may be made thereto within such time and in such manner as may be specified, and if any such objection is duly made and not withdrawn, the Central Government shall afford an opportunity to the person making the objection of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Central Government for the purpose.

(3) After considering any such objection and the report of the person appointed by it under sub-section (2), the Central Government may make such order as it may deem proper.

(4) Where the rights and liabilities of a party to a contract are transferred to the Central Government under this section, there shall be paid to that party such compensation in respect of any loss suffered by that party as may be agreed between him and the Central Government, and in default of such agreement, as may be determined by arbitration, Control over production and use of atomic energy.

14. (1) The Central Government may, subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, by order prohibit except under a licence granted by it—

(i) the working of any mine or minerals specified in the order, being a mine or minerals from which in the opinion of the Central Government any of the prescribed substances can be obtained:

(ii) the acquisition, production, possession, use disposal, export or import—

(a) of any of the prescribed substances; or

(b) of any minerals or other substances specified in the rules, from which in the opinion of the Central Government any of the prescribed substances can be obtained; or

(c) of any plant designed or adapted or manufactured for the production, development and use of atomic energy or for research into matters connected therewith; or

(d) of any prescribed equipment.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the authority of the Central Government to refuse a licence for the purpose of this section or to include in a licence such conditions as the Central Government thinks fit or to revoke a licence and the Central Government may take any action as aforesaid.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, the rules referred to in this section may provide for—

(a) the extend to which information in the possession of, or which has been made available to, the person granted a licence for purposes of this section, should be regarded as restricted information:

(b) the extent to which the area of premises under the control of the person to whom a licence has been granted for purposes of this section, should be regarded as a prohibited area;

(c) the conditions and criteria for location of any installation or operation of any plant in respect of which a licence has been granted or is intended to be granted for the purposes of this section including those necessary for protection against radiation and safe disposal of harmful by-products or wastes;

(d) the extent of the licensee's liability in respect of any hurt to any person or any damage to property caused by ionising radiations or any radioactive contamination either at the plant under licence or in the surrounding area;

(e) provision by licensee either by insurance or by such other means as the Central Government may approve, of sufficient funds to be available at all times to ensures settlement of any claims in connection with the use of the site or the plant under licence which have been or may be duly established against the licensee in respect of any hurt to any person or any damage to any property caused by ionising radiations emitted at the plant under licence or radioactive contamination either at the plant under licensee or in surrounding areas;

(f) obligatory qualifications, security clearances, hours of employment, minimum leave and periodical medical examination of the persons employed and any other requirement or restrictin or prohibition on the employer, employed persons and other persons; and

(g) such other incidental and supplementary provisions including provisions for inspection and also for the sealing of premises and seizure, retention and disposal of any article in respect of which there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a contravention of the rules has been committed, as the Central Government considers necessary.

(4) The Central Government may also prescribe the fees payable for issue of licences under sub-section (1).

Requisitioning of any substance for extracting uranium or plutonium.

15. (1) The Central Government shall have the right to require that any substance which, in the opinion of the Central Government, contains uranium, plutonium or any of their isotopes, shall be delivered to it and the Central Government may extract from that substance the uranium, plutonium or any of their isotopes contained therein and return the substance to the person concerned on payment of compensation which shall be determined in accordance with section 21:

Provided that such compensation shall not, in any case, exceed the cost incurred by the person in the production, mining or irradiation of the substance and in determining the same no account shall be taken of the value of the uraninum, plutonium or any of their isotopes extracted from the substance.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Central Government from permitting, subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose, the use of small quantities of natural uranium for the purpose of examination, test or analysis.

Control over radioactive substances.

16. The Central Government may prohibit the manufacture, possession, use, transfer by sale or otherwise export and import and in an emergency, transport and disposal, of any radioactive substances without its written consent.

Special provisions as to safety.

17. (1) The Central Government may, as regards any class or description of premises or places, being premises or places, in which radioactive substances are manufactured, produced, mined, treated, stored or used or any radiation generating plant, equipment or appliance is used, make such provision by rules as appear to the Central Government to be necessary—

(a) to prevent injury being caused to the health of persons employed at such premises or places or other persons either by radiations, or by the ingestion of any radioactive substance;

(b) to secure that any radioactive waste products resulting from such manufacture, production, mining, treatment, storage, or use as aforesaid are disposed of safely;

(c) to prescribe qualifications of the persons for employment at such premises or places and the regulation of their hours of employment, minimum leave and periodical medical examination; and the rules may, in particular and without prejudice to the generality of this sub-section, provide for imposing requirements as to the erection or structural alterations of buildings or the carrying out of works.

(2) The Central Government may, as respects the transport of any radioactive substance or any prescribed substance specified by an order issued under this Act as being dangerous to health, make such rules as appear to be necessary to prevent injury being caused by such transport to the health of persons engaged therein and other persons.

(3) Rules made under this section may provide for imposing requirements, prohibitions and restrictions on employers, employed persons and other persons.

(4) Any person authorised by the Central Government under this section, may, on producing, if so required, a duly authenticated document showing his authority, enter at all reasonable hours any premises, or any vehicle, vessel or aircraft for the purpose of ascertaining whether there has been committed, or is being committed in or in connection with the premises, vehicle, vessel or aircraft, any contravention of the rules made under this section.

(5) In the event of any contravention of the rules made under this section, the Central Government shall have the right to take such measures as it may deem necessary to prevent further injury to persons or damage to property arising from radiation or contamination by radioactive substances including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, and to the right to take further action for the enforcement of penalties under section 24, the sealing of premises, vehicle, vessel, or aircraft, and the seizure of radioactive substances and contaminated equipment.

Restriction disclosure of information.

18. (1) The Central Government may by order restrict the disclosure of information, whether contained in a document, drawing, photograph, plan, model, or in any other form whatsoever, which relates to, represents or illustrates—

(a) an existing or proposed plant used or proposed to be used for the purpose of producing, developing or using atomic energy, or

(b) the purpose or method of operation of any such existing or proposed plant, or

(c) any process operated or proposed to be operated in any such existing or proposed plant.

(2) No person shall—

(a) disclose, or obtain or attempt to obtain any information restricted under sub-section (1), or

(b) disclose, without the authority of the Central Government, any information obtained in the discharge of any functions under this Act or in the performance of his official duties.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply—

(i) to the disclosure of information with respect to any plant of a type in use for purposes other than the production, development or use of atomic energy, unless the information discloses that plant of that type is used or proposed to be used for the production, development or use of atomic energy or research into any matters connected therewith; or

(ii) where any information has been made available to the general public otherwise than in contravention of this section, to any subsequent disclosure of that information.

Prevention of entry into prohibited areas.

19. The Central Government may by order prohibit—

(a) entry of any person, without obtaining permission, into a prohibited area, and

(b) taking by any persons, without permission, of any photograph, sketch, pictures, drawing, map or other document from a prohibited area and any permission, if given to do these things, may be subject to stipulations which the Central Government may consider necessary.

Special provisions as to inventions.

20. (1) As from the commencement of this Act, no patents shall be granted for inventions which in the opinion of the Central Government are useful for or relate to the production, control, use or disposal of atomic energy or the prospecting, mining extraction, production, physical and chemical treatment, fabricaton, enrichment, canning or use of any prescribed substance or radioactive substance or the ensuring of safety in atomic energy operations.

(2) The prohibition under sub-section (1) shall also apply to any invention of the nature specified in that sub-section in respect of which an application for the grant of a patent has been made to the Controller of Patents and Designs appointed under the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911, before the commencement of this Act and is pending with him at such commencement.

(3) The Central Government shall have the power to inspect at any time any pending patent application and specification before its acceptance and if it considers that the invention relates to atomic energy, to issue directions to the Controller of Patents and Designs to refuse the application on that ground.

(4) Any person, who has made an invention which he has reason to believe relates to atomic energy, shall communicate to the Central Government the nature and description of the invention.

(5) Any person desiring to apply for a patent abroad for an invention relating to or which he has reason to believe relates to atomic energy shall obtain prior permission from the Central Government before making the application abroad or communicating the invention to any person abroad, unless three months have elapsed since his request for permission was made to the Central Government and no reply was received by him.

(6) The Controller of Patents and Designs shall have the power to refer any application to the Central Government for direction as to whether the invention is one relating to atomic energy and the direction given by the Central Government shall be final.

(7) Any invention in the field of atomic energy conceived whether in establishments controlled by the Central Government or under any contract, sub-contract, arrangement or other relationship with the Central Government shall be deemed to have been made or conceived by the Central Government, irrespective of whether such contract, sub-contract, arrangement or other relationship involves financial participation of or assistance from the Central Government.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911, the decision of the Central Government on points connected with or arising out of this section shall be final. 2 of 1911.

Principles relating to payment of compensation.

21. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, where by reason of exercise of any powers under this Act, any compensation is payable, the amount of such compensation shall be determined in the manner and in accordance with the principles hereinafter set out, that is to say—

(a) where the amount of compensation is fixed by agreement, it shall be paid in accordance with such agreement;

(b) where no such agreement is reached, the Central Government shall appoint as arbitrator a person having expert knowledge as to the nature of the right affected who shall determine the amount of compensation payable.

(2) In making his award, the arbitrator appointed under sub-section (1) shall have regard—

(a) in the case of any compensation payable under section 9—

(i) to the nature of the work done;

(ii) the manner, extent and duration of the exercise of any powers under that section;

(iii) the diminution in the rent of the land and of the property situated thereon, which might reasonably be expected over any period or diminution in the market value of the land and property on the date when the exercise of powers comes to an end; and

(iv) the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 23 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, in so far as such provisions can be made applicable to the exercise of powers under section 9; and 1 of 1894.

(b) in the case of any compensation payable under section 11 or under section 12, to the price which the owner might reasonably have been expected to obtain on a sale of the property effected by him immediately before the date of the acquisition.

(3) An appeal shall lie to the High Court against an award of the arbitrator except in cases where the amount claimed thereof does not exceed an amount prescribed in this behalf by the Central Government.

(4) The Central Government may make rules prescribing the procedure to be followed in arbitrations under this Act and the principles to be followed in the apportionment of the cost of proceeding before the arbitrator and on appeal.

(5) Save as provided in this Act, nothing in any law for the time being in force relating to arbitration shall apply to arbitrations under this Act.

Special provision as to electricity.

22. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the 1948. Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, the Central Government shall have authority—

(a) to develop a sound and adequate national policy in regard to atomic power, to co-ordinate such policy with the Central Electricity Authority and the State Electricity Boards constituted under sections 3 and 5 respectively of that Act and other similar statutory corporations concerned with the control and utilisation of other power resources, to implement schemes for the generation of electricity in pursuance of such policy and to operate atomic power stations in the manner determined by it in consultation with the Boards or Corporations concerned, with whom it shall enter into agreement regarding the supply of electricity so produced;

(b) to fix rates for and regulate the supply of electricity from atomic power stations with the concurrence of the Central Electricity Authority;

(c) to enter into arrangements with the Electricity Board of the State in which an atomic power station is situated, for the transmission of electricity to any other State:

Provided that in case there is difference of opinion between the Central Government and any State Electricity Board in regard to the construction of necessary transmission lines, the matter shall be referred to the Central Electricity Authority whose decision shall be binding on the parties concerned.

910. (2) No provision of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, or any rule made thereunder or of any instrument having effect by virtue of such law or rule shall have any effect so far as it is inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act.

(3) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of this Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, 910. the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, and the Electricity 1948. (Supply) Act, 1948.

Administration of Factories Act, 1948.

23. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Factories 1948. Act, 1948, the authority to administer the said Act and to do all things for the enforcement of its provisions, including the appointment of inspecting staff and the making of rules thereunder, shall vest in the Central Government in relation to any factory owned by the Central Government and engaged in carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Offences and penalties.

24. (1) Whoever—

(a) contravenes any order made under section 14 or any condition subject to which a licence is granted under that section; or

(b) contravenes any rule made under section 17 or any requirement, prohibition or restriction imposed under any such rule; or

(c) obstructs any person authorised by the Central Government under sub-section (4) of section 17 in the exercise of powers under that sub-section; or shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years, or with fine, or with both.

(d) contravenes sub-section (2) of section 18;

(2) Whoever—

(a) fails to comply with any notice served on him under section 5 or with any terms and conditions that may be imposed on him under that section; or

(b) fails to comply with any notice served on him under section 7 or knowingly makes any untrue statement in any return or statement made in pursuance of any such notice; or

(c) obstructs any person or authority in the exercise of powers under section 8 or 9; or

(d) contravenes any other provision of this Act or any order made thereunder; shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

Offences by companies.

25. (1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to, any neglet on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm and other association of individuals; and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

Cognizance of offences.

26. (1) All offences under this Act shall be cognizable under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, but no action shall be taken in respect of any person for any offence under this Act except on the basis of a written complaint made— 5 of 1898.

(a) in respect of contravention of section 8, 14, or 17 or any rule or order made thereunder, by the person authorised to exercise powers of entry and inspection;

(b) in respect of any other contravention, by a person duly authorised to make such complaints by the Central Government..

(2) Proceedings in respect of contravention of section 18 shall not be instituted except with the consent of the Attorney-General of India.

27. The Central Government may, by order, direct that any power conferred or any duty imposed on it by this Act shall, in such circumstances and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the direction, be exercised or discharged also by— Delegation of powers.

(a) such officer or authority subordinate to the Central Government, or (b) such State Government or such officer or authority subordinate to a State Government as may be specified in the direction.

28. The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any enactment other than this Act or any other instrument having effect by virtue of any enactment other than this Act. Effect of other laws.

29. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government or any person or authority in respect of anything done by it or him in good faith in pursuance of this Act or of any rule or order made thereunder. Protection of action taken in good faith.

30. (1) The Central Government may, by notification, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act. Power to make rules

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, such rules may provide for—

(a) declaring any information not so far published or otherwise made public as restricted information and prescribing the measures to be taken to guard against unauthorised dissemination or use thereof;

(b) declaring any area or premises as prohibited area and prescribing the measures to be taken to provide against unauthorised entry into or departure from such prohibited area;

(c) reporting of information relating to the discovery of uranium, thorium and other prescribed substances and for payment of rewards for such discoveries;

(d) control over mining or concentration of substances containing uranium;

(e) regulating by licensing and encouraging by award of concessions including rewards, floor prices and guarantees, mining of and prospecting for other prescribed substances;

(f) compulsory acquisition of prescribed substances, minerals and plants;

(g) regulating the production, import, export, transfer, refining, possession, ownership, sale, use of disposal of the prescribed substances and any other articles that in the opinion of the Central Government may be used for, or may result as a consequence of, the production, use or application of atomic energy;

(h) regulating the use of prescribed equipment;

(i) regulating the manufacture, custody, transport, transfer, sale, export, import, use or disposal of any radioactive substance;

(j) regulating the transport of such prescribed substances as are declared dangerous to health under sub-section (2) of section 17;

(k) developing, controlling, supervising and licensing the production, application and use of atomic energy;

(l) fees for issue of licenses under this Act;

(m) the manner of serving notices under this Act;

(n) generally promoting co-operation among persons, institutions and countries in the production, use, application of atomic energy and in research and investigations in that field.

(3) Rules made under this Act may provide that a contravention of the rules shall, save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(4) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Act binding on Government.

31. The provisions of this Act shall be binding on Government.

Repeal of Act 29 of 1948.

32. The Atomic Energy Act, 1948, is hereby repealed.

3. There shall be the following classes of officers of customs, namely:—

(a) Collectors of Customs;

(b) Appellate Collectors of Customs;

(c) Deputy Collectors of Customs;

(d) Assistant Collectors of Customs; and

(e) such other class of officers of customs as may be appointed for the purposes of this Act.

Appointment of officers of customs.

4. (1) The Central Government may appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be officers of customs.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Central Government may authorise the Board, a Collector of Customs or a Deputy or Assistant Collector of Customs to appoint officers of customs below the rank of Assistant Collector of Customs.

Powers of officers of customs.

5. (1) Subject to such conditions and limitations as the Board may impose, an officer of customs may exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred or imposed on him under this Act.

(2) An officer of customs may exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred or imposed under this Act on any other officer of customs who is subordinate to him.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, an Appellate Collector of Customs shall not exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred or imposed on an officer of customs other than those specified in Chapter XV and section 108.

Entrustment of functions of Board and customs officers on certain other officers.

6. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, entrust either conditionally or unconditionally to any officer of the Central or the State Government or a local authority any functions of the Board or any officer of customs under this Act.

CHAPTER III

APPOINTMENT OF CUSTOMS PORTS, AIRPORTS, WAREHOUSING STATIONS, ETC.

Appointment of customs ports, airports, etc.

7. The Central Government, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint—

(a) the ports and airports which alone shall be customs ports or customs airports for the unloading of imported goods and the loading of export goods or any class of such goods;

(b) the places which alone shall be land customs stations for the clearance of goods imported or to be exported by land or inland water or any class of such goods;

(c) the routes by which alone goods or any class of goods specified in the notification may pass by land or inland water into or out of India, or to or from any land customs station from or to any land frontier;

(d) the ports which alone shall be coastal ports for the carrying on of trade in coastal goods or any class of such goods with all or any specified ports in India.

Power to approve landing places and specify limits of customs area.

8. The Collector of Customs may—

(a) approve proper places in any customs port or customs airport or coastal port for the unloading and loading of goods or for any class of goods;

(b) specify the limits of any customs area.

Power to declare places to be warehousing stations.

9. The Board may, by notification, in the Official Gazette, declare places to be warehousing stations at which alone public warehouses may be appointed and private warehouses may be licensed.

Appointment of boarding stations.

10. The Collector of Customs may, by notification, in the Official Gazette, appoint, in or near any customs port, a boarding station for the purpose of boarding of, or disembarkation from, vessels by officers of customs.

CHAPTER IV

PROHIBITIONS ON IMPORTATION AND EXPORTATION OF GOODS

Power to prohibit importation or exportation of goods.

11. (1) If the Central Government is satisfied that it is necessary so to do for any of the purposes specified in sub-section (2), it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, prohibit either absolutely or subject to such conditions (to be fulfilled before or after clearance) as may be specified in the notification, the import or export of goods of any specified description.

(2) The purposes referred to in sub-section (1) are the following:—

(a) the maintenance of the security of India;

(b) the maintenance of public order and standards of decency or morality;

(c) the prevention of smuggling;

(d) the prevention of shortage of goods of any description;

(e) the conservation of foreign exchange and the safeguarding of balance of payments;

(f) the prevention of injury to the economy of the country by the uncontrolled import or export of gold or silver;

(g) the prevention of surplus of any agricultural product or the product of fisheries;

(h) the maintenance of standards for the classification, grading or marketing of goods in international trade;

(i) the establishment of any industry;

(j) the prevention of serious injury to domestic production of goods of any description;

(k) the protection of human, animal or plant life or health;

(l) the protection of national treasures of artistic, historic or archaeological value;

(m) the conservation of exhaustible natural resources;

(n) the protection of patents, trade marks and copyrights;

(o) the prevention of deceptive practices;

(p) the carrying on of foreign trade in any goods by the State, or by a Corporation owned or controlled by the State to the exclusion, complete or partial, of citizens of India;

(q) the fulfilment of obligations under the Charter of the United Notions for the maintenance of international peace and security;

(r) the implementation of any treaty, agreement or convention with any country;

(s) the compliance of imported goods with any laws which are applicable to similar goods produced or manufactured in India;

(t) the prevention of dissemination of documents containing any matter which is likely to prejudicially affect friendly relations with any foreign State or is derogatory to national prestige;

(u) the prevention of the contravention of any law for the time being in force; and

(v) any other purpose conducive to the interests of the general public.

CHAPTER V

LEVY OF, AND EXEMPTION FROM, CUSTOMS DUTIES

Dutiable goods.

12. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, or any other law for the time being in force, duties of customs shall be levied at such rates as may be specified under the Indian Tariff Act, 1934, or any other law for the time being in force, on goods imported into, or exported from, India.

32 of 1934.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply in respect of—

(a) all goods belonging to the Central Government; and

(b) all goods belonging to the Government of a State and used for the purposes of a trade or business of any kind carried on by, or on behalf of, that Government, or of any operations connected with such trade or business; as they apply in respect of goods not belonging to any Government.

Duty on pilferred goods.

13. If any imported goods are pilferred after the unloading thereof and before the proper officer has made an order for clearance for home consumption or deposit in a warehouse, the importer shall not be liable to pay the duty leviable on such goods except where such goods are restored to the importer after pilferage.

Valuation of goods for purposes of assessment.

14. (1) For the purposes of the Indian Tariff Act, 1934, or any other law for the time being in force whereunder a duty of customs is chargeable on any goods by reference to their value, the value of such goods shall be deemed to be— 32 of 1934.

(a) the price at which such or like goods are ordinarily sold, or offered for sale, for delivery at the time and place of importation or exportation, as the case may be, in the course of international trade, where the seller and the buyer have no interest in the business of each other and the price is the sole consideration for the sale or offer for sale;

(b) where such price is not ascertainable, the nearest ascertainable equivalent thereof determined in accordance with the rules made in this behalf.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), if the Central Government is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient so to do it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix tariff values for any class of imported goods or export goods, having regard to the trend of value of such or like goods, and where any such tariff values are fixed, the duty shall be chargeable with reference to such tariff value.

Date for determination of rate of duty and tariff valuation of imported goods.

15. (1) The rate of duty and tariff valuation, if any, applicable to any imported goods, shall be the rate and valuation in force,—

(a) in the case of goods entered for home consumption under section 46, on the date on which a bill of entry in respect of such goods is presented under that section;

(b) in the case of goods cleared from a warehouse under section 68, on the date on which the goods are actually removed from the warehouse;

(c) in the case of any other goods, on the date of payment of duty:

Provided that if a bill of entry has been presented before the date of entry inwards of the vessel by which the goods are imported, the bill of entry shall be deemed to have been presented on the date of such entry inwards.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to baggage and goods imported by post.

Date for determination of rate of duty and tariff valuation of export goods.

16. (1) The rate of duty and tariff valuation, if any, applicable to any export goods, shall be the rate and valuation in force,—

(a) in the case of goods entered for export under section 50, on the date on which a shipping bill or a bill of export in respect of such goods is presented under that section;

(b) in the case of any other goods, on the date of payment of duty:

Provided that if the shipping bill has been presented before the date of entry outwards of the vessel by which the goods are to be exported, the shipping bill shall be deemed to have been presented on the date of such entry outwards.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to baggage and goods exported by post.

Assessment of duty.

17. (1) After an importer has entered any imported goods under section 46 or an exporter has entered any export goods under section 50 the imported goods or the export goods, as the case may be, or such part thereof as may be necessary may, without undue delay, be examined and tested by the proper officer.

(2) After such examination and testing, the duty, if any, leviable on such goods shall, save as otherwise provided in section 85, be assessed.

(3) For the purpose of assessing duty under sub-section (2), the proper officer may require the importer, exporter or any other person to produce any contract, broker's note, policy of insurance, catalogue or other document whereby the duty leviable on the imported goods or export goods, as the case may be, can be ascertained, and to furnish any information required for such ascertainment which it is in his power to produce or furnish, and thereupon the importer, exporter or such other person shall produce such document and furnish such information.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, imported goods or export goods may, prior to the examination or testing thereof, be permitted by the proper officer to be assessed to duty on the basis of the statements made in the entry relating thereto and the documents produced and the information furnished under sub-section (3); but if it is found subsequently on examination or testing of the goods or otherwise that any statement in such entry or document or any information so furnished is not true in respect of any matter relevant to the assessment, the goods may, without prejudice to any other action which may be taken under this Act, be re-assessed to duty.

Provisional assessment of duty.

18. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act but without prejudice to the provisions contained in section 46 —

(a) where the proper officer is satisfied that an importer or exporter is unable to produce any document or furnish any information necessary for the assessment of duty on the imported goods or the export goods, as the case may be; or

(b) where the proper officer deems it necessary to subject any imported goods or export goods to any chemical or other test for the purpose of assessment of duty thereon; or

(c) where the importer or the exporter has produced all the necessary documents and furnished full information for the assessment of duty but the proper officer deems it necessary to make further enquiry for assessing the duty;

the proper officer may direct that the duty leviable on such goods may, pending the production of such documents or furnishing of such information or completion of such test or enquiry, be assessed provisionally if the importer or the exporter, as the case may be, furnishes such security as the proper officer deems fit for the payment of the deficiency, if any, between the duty finally assessed and the duty provisionally assessed.

(2) When the duty leviable on such goods is assessed finally in accordance with the provisions of this Act, then—

(a) in the case of goods cleared for home consumption or exportation, the amount paid shall be adjusted against the duty finally assessed and if the amount so paid falls short of, or is in excess of, the finally assessed, the importer or the exporter of the goods shall pay the deficiency or be entitled to a refund, as the case may be;

(b) in the case of warehoused goods, the proper officer may, where the duty finally assessed is in excess of the duty provisionally assessed, require the importer to execute a bond, binding himself in a sum equal to twice the amount of the excess duty.

Determination of duty where goods consist of articles liable to different rates of duty.

19. Except as otherwise provided in any law for the time being in force, where goods consist of a set of articles, duty shall be calculated as follows:—

(a) articles liable to duty with reference to quantity shall be chargeable to that duty;

(b) articles liable to duty with reference to value shall, if they are liable to duty at the same rate, be chargeable to duty at that rate, and if they are liable to duty at different rates, be chargeable to duty at the highest of such rates;

(c) articles not liable to duty shall be chargeable to duty at the rate at which articles liable to duty with reference to value are liable under clause (b):

Provided that,—

(a) accessories of, and spare parts or maintenance and repairing implements for, any article which satisfy the conditions specified in the rules made in this behalf shall be chargeable at the same rate of duty as that article;

(b) if the importer produces evidence to the satisfaction of the proper officer regarding the value of any of the articles liable to different rates of duty, such article shall be chargeable to duty separately at the rate applicable to it.

Re-importation of goods produced or manufactured in India.

20. (1) If goods produced or manufactured in India be imported into India after exportation therefrom, such goods shall be liable to duty and be subject to all the conditions and restrictions, if any, to which goods of the like kind and value not so produced or manufactured are liable or subject, on the importation thereof:

Provided that if such importation takes place within three years after the exportation of such goods and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Assistant Collector of Customs that the goods are the same which were exported, the goods may be admitted—

(a) in any case where at the time of exportation of the goods drawback of any customs or excise duty levied by the Union or both was allowed, on payment of customs duty equal to the amount of such drawback;

(b) in any case where at the time of exportation of the goods, drawback of any excise duty levied by a State was allowed, on payment of customs duty equal to such excise duty leviable at the time and place of importation of the goods;

(c) in any case where the goods were exported in bond, without payment of—

(i) the customs duty leviable on the imported materials if any, used in the manufacture of the goods, or

(ii) the excise duty leviable on the indigenous materials, if any, used in the manufacture of the goods, or

(iii) the excise duty, if any, leviable on the goods, on payment of customs duty equal to the aggregate amount of all such duties calculated at the rates prevailing the time and place of importation of the goods;

(d) in any other case, without payment of duty.

(2) For the purposes of this section goods shall be deemed to have been produced or manufactured in India, if at least twenty-five per cent. of the total cost of production or manufacture of the goods has been incurred in India.

Goods derelict, wreck, etc.

21. All goods, derelict, jetsam, floatsam and wreck brought or coming into India, shall be dealt with as if they were imported into India, unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the proper officer that they are entitled to be admitted duty-free under this Act.

Abatement of duty on damaged or deteriorated goods.

22. (1) Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Assistant Collector of Customs—

(a) that any imported goods had been damaged or had deteriorated at any time before or during the unloading of the goods in India; or

(b) that any imported goods, other than warehoused goods, had been damaged at any time after the unloading thereof in India but before their examination under section 17, on account of any accident not due to any wilful act, negligence or default of the importer, his employee or agent; or

(c) that any warehoused goods had been damaged at any time before clearance for home consumption on account of any accident not due to any wilful act, negligence or default of the owner, his employee or agent, such goods shall be chargeable to duty in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2).

(2) The duty to be charged on the goods referred to in sub-section (1) shall bear the same proportion to the duty chargeable on the goods before the damage or deterioration which the value of the damaged or deteriorated goods bears to the value of the goods before the damage or deterioration.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the value of damaged or deteriorated goods may be ascertained by either of the following methods at the option of the owner:-

(a) the value of such goods may be ascertained by the proper officer, or

(b) such goods may be sold by the proper officer by public auction or by tender, or with the consent of the owner in any other manner, and the gross sale-proceeds shall be deemed to be the value of such goods.

Remission of duty on lost, destroyed or abandoned goods.

23. (1) Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Assistant Collector of Customs that any imported goods have been lost or destroyed, at any time before clearance for home consumption, the Assistant Collector of Customs shall remit the duty on such goods.

(2) The owner of any imported goods may at any time before an order for clearance of the goods for home consumption has been made, relinquish his title to the goods and thereupon he shall not be liable to pay the duty thereon.

Power to make rule for denaturing or mutilation of goods.

24. The Central Government may make rules for permitting at the request of the owner the denaturing or mutilation of imported goods which are ordinarily used for more than one purpose so as to render them unfit for one or more of such purposes; and where any goods are so denatured or mutilated they shall be chargeable to duty at such rate as would be applicable if the goods had been imported in the denatured or mutilated form.

Power to grant exemption from duty.

25. (1) If the Central Government is satisfied that it is necessary in the public interest so to do, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt generally either absolutely or subject to such conditions (to be fulfilled before or after clearance) as may be specified in the notification goods of any specified description from the whole or any part of duty of customs leviable thereon.

(2) If the Central Government is satisfied that it is necessary in the public interest so to do, it may, by special order in each case, exempt from the payment of duty, under circumstances of an exceptional nature to be stated in such order, any goods on which duty is leviable.

Refund of export duty in certain cases.

26. Where on the exportation of any goods any duty has been paid, such duty shall be refunded to the person by whom or on whose behalf it was paid, if—

(a) the goods are returned to such person otherwise than by way of re-sale;

(b) the goods are re-imported within one year from the date of exportation; and

(c) an application for refund of such duty is made before the expiry of six months from the date on which the proper officer makes an order for the clearance of the goods.

Claim for refund of duty.

27. (1) Any person claiming refund of any duty paid by him in pursuance of an order of assessment made by an officer of customs lower in rank than an Assistant Collector of Customs may make an application for refund of such duty to the Assistant Collector of Customs before the expiry of six months from the date of payment of duty:

Provided that the limitation of six months shall not apply where any duty has been paid under protest.

Explanation.—Where any duty is paid provisionally under section 18, the period of six months shall be computed from the date of adjustment of duty after the final assessment thereof.

(2) If on receipt of any such application the Assistant Collector of Customs is satisfied that the whole or any part of the duty paid by the applicant should be refunded to him, he may make an order accordingly.

(3) Where, as a result of any order passed in appeal or revision under this Act, refund of any duty becomes due to any person, the proper officer may refund the amount to such person without his having to make any claim in that behalf.

(4) Save as provided in section 26, no claim for refund of any duty shall be entertained except in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Notice for payment of duties not levied short-levied or erroneously refunded.

28. (1) When any duty has not been levied or has been short-levied or erroneously refunded, the proper officer may, within six months from the relevant date, serve notice on the person chargeable with the duty which has not been levied or which has been so short-levied or to whom the refund has erroneously been made, requiring him to show cause why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice:

Provided that where any duty has not been levied or has been short-levied or has been erroneously refunded by reason of collusion or any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts by the importer or the exporter or the agent or employee of the importer or exporter, the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect as if for the words "six months" the words "five years" were substituted.

(2) The Assistant Collector of Customs, after considering the representation, if any, made by the person on whom notice is served under sub-section (1) shall determine the amount of duty due from such person (not being in excess of the amount specified in the notice) and thereupon such person shall pay the amount so determined.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the expression "relevant date" means—

(a) in a case where duty is not levied, the date on which the proper officer makes an order for the clearance of the goods;

(b) in a case where duty is provisionally assessed under section 18, the date of adjustment of duty after the final assessment thereof;

(c) in a case where duty has been erroneously refunded, the date of refund;

(d) in any other case, the date of payment of duty.

CHAPTER VI

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CONVEYANCES CARRYING IMPORTED OR EXPORTED GOODS

Arrival of vessels and aircrafts in India.

29. (1) The person-in-charge of a vessel or an aircraft entering Indian from any place outside India shall not cause or permit the vessel or aircraft to call or land—

(a) for the first time after arrival in India; or

(b) at any time while it is carrying passengers or cargo brought in that vessel or aircraft;

at any place other than a customs port or a customs airport, as the case may be.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply in relation to any vessel or aircraft which is compelled by accident, stress of weather or other unavoidable cause to call or land at a place other than a customs port or customs airport but the person-in-charge of any such vessel or aircraft—

(a) shall immediately report the arrival of the vessel or the landing of the aircraft to the nearest customs officer or the officer-in-charge of a police-station and shall on demand produce to him the log book belonging to the vessel or the aircraft;

(b) shall not without the consent of any such officer permit any goods carried in the vessel or the aircraft to be unloaded from, or any of the crew or passengers to depart from the vicinity of, the vessel or the aircraft; and

(c) shall comply with any directions given by any such officer with respect to any such goods, and no passenger or member of the crew shall, without the consent of any such officer, leave the immediate vicinity of the vessel or the aircraft:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prohibit the departure of any crew or passengers from the vicinity of, or the removal of goods from, the vessel or aircraft where the departure or removal is necessary for reasons of health, safety or the preservation of life or property.

Delivery of import manifest or import report.

30. (1) The person-in-charge of a conveyance carrying imported goods shall, within twenty-four hours after arrival thereof at a customs station, deliver to the proper officer, in the case of a vessel or aircraft, an import manifest, and in the case of a vehicle, an import report in the prescribed form:

Provided that,—

(a) in the case of a vessel any such manifest may be delivered to the proper officer before the arrival of the vessel;

(b) if the proper officer is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not delivering the import manifest or import report or any part thereof within twenty-four hours after the arrival of the conveyance, he may accept it at any time thereafter.

(2) The person delivering the import manifest or import report shall at the foot thereof make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of its contents.

(3) If the proper officer is satisfied that the import manifest or import report is in any way incorrect or incomplete, and that there was no fraudulent intention, he may permit it to be amended or supplemented.

Imported goods not to be unloaded from vessel until entry inwards granted.

31. (1) The master of a vessel shall not permit the unloading of any imported goods until an order has been given by the proper officer granting entry inwards to such vessel.

(2) No order under sub-section (1) shall be given until an import manifest has been delivered or the proper officer is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not delivering it.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to the unloading of baggage accompanying a passenger or a member of the crew, mail bags, animals, perishable goods and hazardous goods.

Imported goods not to be unloaded unless mentioned in import manifest or import report.

32. No imported goods required to be mentioned under the regulations in an import manifest or import report shall, except with the permission of the proper officer, be unloaded at any customs station unless they are specified in such manifest or report for being unloaded at that customs station.

Unloading and loading of goods at approved places only.

33. Except with the permission of the proper officer, no imported goods shall be unloaded, and no export goods shall be loaded, at any place other than a place approved under clause (a) of section 8 for the unloading or loading of such goods.

Goods not to be unloaded or loaded except under supervision of customs officer.

34. Imported goods shall not be unloaded from, and export goods shall not be loaded on, any conveyance except under the supervision of the proper officer:

Provided that the Board may, by notification in the Official Gazette, give general permission and the proper officer may in any particular case give special permission, for any goods or class of goods to be unloaded or loaded without the supervision of the proper officer.

Restrictions on goods being water-borne.

35. No imported goods shall be water-borne for being landed from any vessel, and no export goods which are not accompanied by a shipping bill, shall be water-borne for being shipped, unless the goods are accompanied by a boat-note in the prescribed form:

Provided that the Board may, by notification in the Official Gazette, give general permission, and the proper officer may in any particular case give special permission, for any goods or any class of goods to be water-borne without being accompanied by a boat-note.

Restrictions on unloading and loading of goods on holidays, etc.

36. No imported goods shall be unloaded from, and no export goods shall be loaded on, any conveyance on any Sunday or on any holiday observed by the Customs Department or on any other day after the working hours, except after giving the prescribed notice and on payment of the prescribed fees, if any: ;;

Provided that no fees shall be levied for the unloading and loading of baggage accompanying a passenger or a member of the crew, and mail bags.

Power to board conveyances.

37. The proper officer may, at any time, board any conveyance carrying imported goods or export goods and may remain on such conveyance for such period as he considers necessary.

Power to require production of documents and ask questions.

38. For the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, the proper officer may require the person-in-charge of any conveyance or animal carrying imported goods or export goods to produce any document and to answer any questions and thereupon such person shall produce such documents and answer such questions.

Export goods not to be loaded on vessel until entry-outwards granted.

39. The master of a vessel shall not permit the loading of any export goods, other than baggage and mail bags, until an order has been given by the proper officer granting entry-outwards to such vessel.

Export goods not to be loaded unless duly passed by proper officer.

40. The person-in-charge of a conveyance shall not permit the loading at a customs station—

(a) of export goods, other than baggage and mail bags, unless a shipping bill or bill of export or a bill of transhipment, as the case may be, duly passed by the proper officer, has been handed over to him by the exporter;

(b) of baggage and mail bags, unless their export has been duly permitted by the proper officer.

Delivery of export manifest or export report.

41. (1) The person-in-charge of a conveyance carrying export goods, shall, before departure of the conveyance from a customs station, deliver to the proper officer in the case of a vessel or aircraft, an export manifest, and in the case of a vehicle, an export report, in the prescribed form:

Provided that if the agent of the person-in-charge of the conveyance furnishes such security as the proper officer deems sufficient for duly delivering within seven days from the date of departure of the conveyance the export manifest or the export report, as the case may be, the proper officer may (subject to such rules as the Central Government may make in this behalf) accept such manifest or report within the aforesaid period.

(2) The person delivering the export manifest or export report shall at the foot thereof make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of its contents.

(3) If the proper officer is satisfied that the export manifest or export report is in any way incorrect or incomplete and that there was no fraudulent intention, he may permit such manifest or report to be amended or supplemented.

No conveyance to leave without written order.

42. (1) The person-in-charge of a conveyance which has brought any imported goods or has loaded any export goods at a customs station shall not cause or permit the conveyance to depart from that customs station until a written order to that effect has been given by the proper officer.

(2) No such order shall be given until—

(a) the person-in-charge of the conveyance has answered the questions put to him under section 38;

(b) the provisions of section 41 have been complied with;

(c) the shipping bills or bills of export, the bills of transhipment, if any, and such other documents as the proper officer may require have been delivered to him;

(d) all duties leviable on any stores consumed in such conveyance, and all charges and penalties due in respect of such conveyance or from the person-in-charge thereof have been paid or the payment secured by such guarantee or deposit of such amount as the proper officer may direct;

(e) the person-in-charge of the conveyance has satisfied the proper officer that no penalty is leviable on him under section 116 or the payment of any penalty that may be levied upon him under that section has been secured by such guarantee or deposit of such amount as the proper officer may direct;

(f) in any case where any export goods have been loaded without payment of export duty or in contravention of any provision of this Act or any other law for the time being in force relating to export of goods,—

(i) such goods have been unloaded, or

(ii) where the Assistant Collector of Customs is satisfied that it is not practicable to unload such goods, the person-in-charge of the conveyance has given an undertaking, secured by such guarantee or deposit of such amount as the proper officer may direct, for bringing back the goods to India.

Exemption of certain classes of conveyances from certain provisions of this Chapter.

43. (1) The provisions of sections 30, 41 and 42 shall not apply to a vehicle which carries no goods other than the luggage of its occupants.

(2) The Central Government, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt the following classes of conveyances from all or any of the provisions of this Chapter—

(a) conveyances belonging to the Government or any foreign Government;

(b) vessels and aircrafts which temporarily enter India by reason of any emergency.

CHAPTER VII

CLEARANCE OF IMPORTED GOODS AND EXPORT GOODS

Chapter not to apply to baggage and postal articles.

44. The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to (a) baggage, and (b) goods imported or to be exported by post.

Clearance of imported goods

Restrictions on custody and removal of imported goods.

45. (1) Save as otherwise provided in any law for the time being in force, all imported goods unloaded in a customs area shall remain in the custody of such person as may be approved by the Collector of Customs until they are cleared for home consumption or are warehoused or are transhipped in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VIII.

(2) The person having custody of any imported goods in a customs area, whether under the provisions of sub-section (1) or under any law for the time being in force,—

(a) shall keep a record of such goods and send a copy thereof to the proper officer;

(b) shall not permit such goods to be removed from the customs area or otherwise dealt with, except under and in accordance with the permission in writing of the proper officer.

Entry of goods on Importation.

46. (1) The importer of any goods, other than goods intended for transit or transhipment, shall make entry thereof by presenting to the proper officer a bill of entry for home consumption or warehousing in the prescribed form:

Provided that if the importer makes and subscribes to a declaration before the proper officer, to the effect that he is unable for want of full information to furnish all the particulars of the goods required under this sub-section, the proper officer may, pending the production of such information permit him, previous to the entry thereof (a) to examine the goods in the presence of an officer of customs, or (b) to deposit the goods in a public warehouse appointed under section 57 without warehousing the same.

(2) Save as otherwise permitted by the proper officer, a bill of entry shall include all the goods mentioned in the bill of lading or other receipt given by the carrier to the consignor.

(3) A bill of entry under sub-section (1) may be presented at any time after the delivery of the import manifest or import report as the case may be:

Provided that the Collector of Customs may in any special circumstances permit a bill of entry to be presented before the delivery of such manifest or report.

(4) The importer while presenting a bill of entry shall at the foot thereof make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of the contents of such bill of entry and shall, in support of such declaration, produce to the proper officer the invoice, if any, relating to the imported goods.

(5) If the proper officer is satisfied that the interests of revenue are not prejudicially affected and that there was no fraudulent intention, he may permit substitution of a bill of entry for home consumption for a bill of entry for warehousing or vice-versa.

Clearance of goods for home consumption.

47. Where the proper officer is satisfied that any goods entered for home consumption are not prohibited goods and the importer has paid the import duty, if any, assessed thereon and any charges payable under this Act in respect of the same, the proper officer may make an order permitting clearance of the goods for home consumption.

Procedure in case of goods not cleared, warehoused or transhipped within two months after unloading.

48. If any goods brought into India from a place outside India are not cleared for home consumption or warehoused or transhipped within two months from the date of the unloading thereof at a customs station or within such further time as the proper officer may allow or if the title to any imported goods is relinquished, such goods may, after notice to the importer and with the permission of the proper officer be sold by the person having the custody thereof:

Provided that—

(a) animals, perishable goods and hazardous goods, may, with the permission of the proper officer, be sold at any time:

(b) arms and ammunition may be sold at such time and place and in such manner as the Central Government may direct.

Explanation: In this section, "arms" and "ammunition" have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Arms Act, 1959. 54 of 1959.

Storage of imported goods in warehouse pending clearance.

49. Where in the case of any imported goods, whether dutiable or not, entered for home consumption, the Assistant Collector of Customs is satisfied on the application of the importer that the goods cannot be cleared within a reasonable time, the goods may, pending clearance, be permitted to be stored in a public warehouse, or in a private warehouse if facilities for deposit in a public warehouse are not available; but such goods shall not be deemed to be warehoused goods for the purpose of this Act, and accordingly the provisions of Chapter IX shall not apply to such goods.

Clearance of export goods

Entry of goods for exportation.

50. (1) The exporter of any goods shall make entry thereof by presenting to the proper officer in the case of goods to be exported in a vessel or aircraft, a shipping bill, and in the case of goods to be exported by land, a bill of export in the prescribed form.

(2) The exporter of any goods, while presenting a shipping bill or bill of export, shall at the foot thereof make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of its contents.

Clearance of goods for exportation.

51. Where the proper officer is satisfied that any goods entered for export are not prohibited goods and the exporter has paid the duty, if any, assessed thereon and any charges payable under this Act in respect of the same, the proper officer may make an order permitting clearance and loading of the goods for exportation.

CHAPTER VIII

GOODS IN TRANSIT

Chapter not to apply to baggage, postal articles and stores.

52. The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to (a) baggage, (b) goods imported by post, and (c) stores.

Transit of goods in same vessel or aircraft.

53. Subject to the provisions of section 11, any goods imported in a vessel or aircraft and mentioned in the import manifest as for transit in the same vessel or aircraft to any port or airport outside India or any customs port or customs airport may be allowed to be so transited without payment of duty.

Transhipment of goods without payment of duty.

54. (1) Where any goods imported into a customs port or customs airport are intended for transhipment, a bill of transhipment shall be presented to the proper officer in the prescribed form.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 11—

(a) where any goods imported into a customs port are mentioned in the import manifest as for transhipment to any port outside India, or

(b) where any goods imported into a customs airport are mentioned in the import manifest as for transhipment to any airport outside India, such goods may be allowed to be so transhipped without payment of duty.

(3) Where any goods imported into a customs port or a customs airport are mentioned in the import manifest as for transhipment—

15 of 1908.

(a) to any major port as defined in the Indian Ports Act, 1908, or the customs airport at Bombay, Calcutta, Delhi or Madras, or any other customs port or customs airport which the Board may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, or

(b) to any other customs port or customs airport, and the proper officer is satisfied that the goods are bona fide intended for transhipment to such customs port or airport, the proper officer may allow the goods to be transhipped, without payment of duty, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed for the due arrival of such goods at the customs port or customs airport to which transhipment is allowed.

Entry, etc, of transitted or transhipped goods on arrival at customs port or customs airport.

55. Where any goods are allowed to be transitted under section 53 or transhipped under sub-section (3) of section 54 to any customs port or customs airport, they shall, on their arrival at such port or airport, be liable to duty and shall be entered in like manner as goods are entered on the first importation thereof and the provisions of this Act and any rules and regulations shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to such goods.

Transport of certain classes of goods subject to prescribed conditions.

56. Imported goods may be transported without payment of duty from one land customs station to another, and any goods may be transported from one part of India to another part through any foreign territory, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed for the due arrival of such goods at the place of destination.

CHAPTER IX

WAREHOUSING

Appointing of public warehouses.

57. At any warehousing station, the Assistant Collector of Customs may appoint public warehouses wherein dutiable goods may be deposited without payment of duty.

Licensing of private warehouses.

58. (1) At any warehousing station, the Assistant Collector of Customs may license private warehouses wherein dutiable goods imported by or on behalf of the licensee, or any other imported goods in respect of which facilities for deposit in a public warehouse are not available, may be deposited without payment of duty.

(2) The Assistant Collector of Customs may cancel a licence granted under sub-section (1)—

(a) by giving one month's notice in writing to the licensee; or

(b) if the licensee has contravened any provisions of this Act or the rules or regulations or committed breach of any of the conditions of the licence:

Provided that before any licence is cancelled under clause (b), the licensee shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Pending an enquiry whether a licence granted under sub-section (1) should be cancelled under clause (b) of sub-section (2), the Assistant Collector of Customs may suspend the licence.

Ware-housing bond.

59. (1) The importer of any dutiable goods which have been entered for warehousing and assessed to duty under section 17 or section 18 shall execute a bond binding himself in a sum equal to twice the amount of the duty assessed on such goods,—

(a) to ovserve all the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations in respect of such goods;

(b) to pay on or before a date specified in a notice of demand all duties, rent and charges claimable on account of such goods under this Act, together with interest on the same from the date so specified at the rate of six per cent. per annum or such other rate as is for the time being fixed by the Board; and

(c) to discharge all penalties incurred for violation of the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations in respect of such goods.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the Assistant Collector of Customs may permit an importer to enter into a general bond in such amount as the Assistant Collector of Customs may approve in respect of the warehousing of goods to be imported by him within a specified period.

(3) A bond executed under this section by an importer in respect of any goods shall continue in force notwithstanding the transfer of the goods to any other person or the removal of the goods to another warehouse:

Provided that where the whole of the goods or any part thereof are transferred to another person, the proper officer may accept a fresh bond from the transferee in a sum equal to twice the amount of duty assessed on the goods transferred and thereupon the bond executed by the transferor shall be enforceable only for a sum mentioned therein less the amount for which a fresh bond is accepted from the transferee.

Permission for deposit of goods in a warehouse.

60. When the provisions of section 59 has been complied with in respect of any goods, the proper officer may make an order permitting the deposit of the goods in a warehouse without payment of duty.

Period for which goods may remain ware-housed.

61. Any warehoused goods may be left in the warehouse in which they are deposited or in any warehouse to which they may be removed, till the expiry of three years after the date on which the proper officer made an order under section 60 permitting the deposit of the goods in a warehouse:

Provided that—

(i) in the case of any goods which are likely to deteriorate, the aforesaid period of three years may be reduced by the Collector of Customs to such shorter period as he may deem fit;

(ii) in the case of any goods which are not likely to deteriorate, the aforesaid period of three years may, on sufficient cause being shown, be extended by the Collector of Customs for a period not exceeding one year and by the Board for such further period as it may deem fit:

Provided further that when the licence for any private warehouse is cancelled, the owner of any goods warehoused therein shall, within seven days from the date on which notice of such cancellation is given or within such extended period as the proper officer may allow, remove the goods from such warehouse to another warehouse or clear them for home consumption or exportation.

Control over warehoused goods.

62. (1) All warehoused goods shall be subject to the control of the proper officer.

(2) No person shall enter a warehouse or remove any goods therefrom without the permission of the proper officer.

(3) The proper officer may cause any warehouse to be locked with the lock of the Customs Department and no person shall remove or break such lock.

(4) The proper officer shall have access to every part of a warehouse and power to examine the goods therein.

Payment of rent and warehouse charges.

63. (1) The owner of any warehoused goods shall pay to the warehouse-keeper rent and warehouse charges at the rates fixed under any law for the time being in force or where no rates are so fixed, at such rates as may be fixed by the Collector of Customs.

(2) If any rent or warehouse charges are not paid within ten days from the date when they became due, the warehouse-keeper may, after notice to the owner of the warehoused goods and with the permission of the proper officer, cause to be sold (any transfer of the warehoused goods notwithstanding) such sufficient portion of the goods as the warehouse-keeper may select.

Owner's right to deal with warehoused goods.

64. With the sanction of the proper officer and on payment of the prescribed fees, the owner of any goods may either before or after warehousing the same—

(a) inspect the goods;

(b) separate damaged or deteriorated goods from the rest;

(c) sort the goods or change their containers for the purpose of preservation, sale, export or disposal of the goods;

(d) deal with goods and their containers in such manner as may be necessary to prevent loss or deterioration or damage to the goods;

(e) show the goods for sale; or

(f) take samples of goods without entry for home consumption, and if the proper officer so permits, without payment of duty on such samples.

Manufacture and other operations in relation to goods in a warehouse.

65. (1) With the sanction of the Assistant Collector of Customs and subject to such conditions and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed, the owner of any warehoused goods may carry on any manufacturing process or other operations in the warehouse in relation to such goods.

(2) Where in the course of any operations permissible in relation to any warehoused goods under sub-section (1), there is any waste or refuse, the following provisions shall apply:—

(a) if the whole or any part of the goods resulting from such operations are exported, import duty shall be remitted on the quantity of the warehoused goods contained in so much of the waste or refuse as has arisen from the operations carried on in relation to the goods exported:

Provided that such waste or refuse is either destroyed or duty is paid on such waste or refuse as if it had been imported into India in that form;

(b) if the whole or any part of the goods resulting from such operations are cleared from the warehouse for home consumption, import duty shall be charged on the quantity of the warehoused goods contained in so much of the waste or refuse as has arisen from the operations carried on in relation to the goods cleared for home consumption.

Power to exempt imported materials used in the manufacture of goods in warehouse.

66. If any imported materials are used in accordance with the provisions of section 65 for the manufacture of any goods and the rate of duty leviable on the imported materials exceeds the rate of duty leviable on such goods, the Central Government, if satisfied that in the interests of the establishment or development of any domestic industry it is necessary so to do, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt the imported materials from the whole or part of the excess rate of duty.

Removal of goods from one warehouse to another.

67. The owner of any warehoused goods may, with the permission of the proper officer, remove them from one warehouse to another, without payment of duty, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed for the due arrival of the warehoused goods at the warehouse to which removal is permitted.

Clearance of warehoused goods for home consumption.

68. The importer of any warehoused goods may clear them for home consumption if—

(a) a bill of entry for home consumption in respect of such goods has been presented in the prescribed form;

(b) the import duty leviable on such goods and all penalties, rent, interest and other charges payable in respect of such goods have been paid; and

(c) an order for clearance of such goods for home consumption has been made by the proper officer.

Clearance of warehoused goods for exportation.

69. (1) Any warehoused goods may be exported to a place outside India without payment of import duty if—

(a) a shipping bill or a bill of export has been presented in respect of such goods in the prescribed form;

(b) the export duty, penalties, rent, interest and other charges payable in respect of such goods have been paid; and

(c) an order for clearance of such goods for exportation has been made by the proper officer.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), if the Central Government is of opinion that warehoused goods of any specified description are likely to be smuggled back into India, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that such goods shall not be exported to any place outside India without payment of duty or may be allowed to be so exported subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified in the notification.

Allowance in case of volatile goods.

70. (1) When any warehoused goods to which this section applies are at the time of delivery from a warehouse found to be deficient in quantity on account of natural loss, the Assistant Collector of Customs may remit the duty on such deficiency.

(2) This section applies to such warehoused goods as the Central Government, having regard to the volatility of the goods and the manner of their storage, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

Goods not to be taken out of warehouse except as provided by this Act.

71. No warehoused goods shall be taken out of a warehouse except on clearance for home consumption or re-exportation, or for removal to another warehouse, or as otherwise provided by this Act.

Goods improperly removed from warehouse, etc.

72. (1) In any of the following cases, that is to say,—

(a) where any warehoused goods are removed from a warehouse in contravention of section 71;

(b) where any warehoused goods have not been removed from a warehouse at the expiration of the period during which such goods are permitted under section 61 to remain in a warehouse;

(c) where any warehoused goods have been taken under section 64 as samples without payment of duty;

(d) where any goods in respect of which a bond has been executed under section 59 and which have not been cleared for home consumption or exportation are not duly accounted for to the satisfaction of the proper officer;

the proper officer may demand, and the owner of such goods shall forthwith pay, the full amount of duty chargeable on account of such goods together with all penalties, rent, interest and other charges payable in respect of such goods.

(2) If any owner fails to pay any amount demanded under sub-section (1), the proper officer may, without prejudice to any other remedy, cause to be detained and sold, after notice to the owner (any transfer of the goods notwithstanding) such sufficient portion of his goods, if any, in the warehouse, as the said officer may select.

Cancellation and return of warehousing bond.

73. When the whole of the goods covered by any bond executed under section 59 have been cleared for home consumption or exported or are otherwise duly accounted for, and when all amounts due on account of such goods have been paid, the proper officer shall cancel the bond as discharged in full, and shall on demand deliver it, so cancelled, to the person who has executed or is entitled to receive it.

CHAPTER X

DRAWBACK

Drawback allowable on re-export duty-paid goods.

74. (1) When any goods capable of being easily identified which have been imported into India and upon which any duty has been paid on importation, are exported to any place outside India, ninety-eight per cent. of such duty shall, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, be repaid as drawback, if—

(a) the goods are identified to the satisfaction of the Assistant Collector of Customs as the goods which were imported; and

(b) the goods are entered for export within two years from the date of payment of duty on the importation thereof:

Provided that in any particular case the aforesaid period of two years may, on sufficient cause being shown, be extended by the Board by such further period as it may deem fit.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the rate of drawback in the case of goods which have been used after the importation thereof shall be such as the Central Government, having regard to the duration of use, depreciation in value and other relevant circumstances, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix.

(3) The Board may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section and, in particular, such regulations may—

(a) provide for the manner in which the identity of goods imported in different consignments which are ordinarily stored together in bulk, may be established;

(b) specify the goods which shall be deemed to be not capable of being easily identified.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

(a) goods shall be deemed to have been entered for export on the date with reference to which the rate of duty is calculated under section 16;

(b) in the case of goods assessed to duty provisionally under section 18, the date of payment of the provisional duty shall be deemed to be the date of payment of duty.

Drawback on imported materials used in the manufacture of goods which are exported.

75. (1) Where it appears to the Central Government that in respect of goods of any class or description manufactured in India and exported to any place outside India, a drawback should be allowed of duties of customs chargeable under this Act on any imported materials of a class or description used in the manufacture of such goods, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that drawback shall be allowed in respect of such goods in accordance with, and subject to, the rules made under sub-section (2).

(2) The Central Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of sub-section (1) and, in particular, such rules may provide—

(a) for the payment of the drawback equal to the amount of duty actually paid on the imported materials used in the manufacture of the goods or as is specified in the rules as the average amount of duty paid on the materials of that class or description used in the manufacture of goods of that class or description either by manufacturers generally or by any particular manufacturer;

(b) for the production of such certificates, documents and other evidence in support of each claim of drawback as may be necessary;

(c) for requiring the manufacturer to give access to every part of his manufactory to any officer of customs specially authorised in this behalf by the Assistant Collector of Customs to enable such authorised officer to inspect the processes of manufacture and to verify by actual check or otherwise the statements made in support of the claim for drawback.

Prohibition and regulation of drawback in certain cases.

76. (1) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no drawback shall be allowed—

(a) in respect of any goods which are required under the regulations to be included in the export manifest or export report and are not so included;

(b) in respect of any goods the market-price of which is less than the amount of drawback due thereon;

(c) where the drawback due in respect of any goods is less than five rupees.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), if the Central Government is of opinion that goods of any specified description in respect of which drawback may be claimed under this Chapter are likely to be smuggled back into India, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that drawback shall not be allowed in respect of such goods or may be allowed, subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified in the notification.

CHAPTER XI

SPECIAL PROVISIONS REGARDING BAGGAGE, GOODS IMPORTED OR EXPORTED BY POST, AND STORES

Baggage

Declaration by owner of baggage.

77. The owner of any baggage shall, for the purpose of clearing it, make a declaration of its contents to the proper officer.

78. The rate of duty and tariff valuation, if any, applicable to baggage shall be the rate and valuation in force on the date on which a declaration is made in respect of such baggage under section 77. Determination of rate of duty and tariff valuation in respect of baggage.

79. (1) The proper officer may, subject to any rules made under sub-section (2), pass free of duty— Bona fide baggage exempted from duty.

(a) any article in the baggage of a passenger or a member of the crew in respect of which the said officer is satisfied that it has been in his use for such minimum period as may be specified in the rules;

(b) any article in the baggage of a passenger in respect of which the said officer is satisfied that it is for the use of the passenger or his family or is a bona fide gift or souvenir; provided that the value of each such article and the total value of all such articles does not exceed such limits as may be specified in the rules.

(2) The Central Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section, and in particular, such rules may specify—

(a) the minimum period for which any article has been used by a passenger or a member of the crew for the purpose of clause (a) of sub-section (1);

(b) the maximum value of any individual article and the maximum total value of all the articles which may be passed free of duty under clause (b) of sub-section (1);

(c) the conditions (to be fulfilled before or after clearance) subject to which any baggage may be passed free of duty.

(3) Different rules may be made under sub-section (2) for different classes of persons.

80. Where the baggage of a passenger contains any article which is dutiable or the import of which is prohibited and in respect of which a true declaration has been made under section 77, the proper officer may, at the request of the passenger, detain such article for the purpose of being returned to him on his leaving India. Temporary detention of baggage.

81. The Board may make regulations,— Regulations in respect of baggage.

(a) providing for the manner of declaring the contents of any baggage;

(b) providing for the custody, examination, assessment to duty and clearance of baggage;

(c) providing for the transit or transhipment of baggage from one customs station to another or to a place outside India.

Goods imported or exported by post

82. In the case of goods imported or exported by post, any label or declaration accompanying the goods, which contains the description, quantity and value thereof, shall be deemed to be an entry for import or export, as the case may be, for the purposes of this Act. Label or declaration accompanying goods to be treated as entry.

83. (1) The rate of duty and tariff-value, if any, applicable to any goods imported by post shall be the rate and valuation in force on the date on which the postal authorities present to the proper officer a list containing the particulars of such goods for the purpose of assessing the duty thereon: Rate of duty and tariff valuation in respect of goods imported or exported by post.

Provided that if such goods are imported by a vessel and the list of the goods containing the particulars was presented before the date of the arrival of the vessel, it shall be deemed to have been presented on the date of such arrival.

(2) The rate of duty and tariff-value, if any, applicable to any goods exported by post shall be the rate and valuation in force on the date on which the exporter delivers such goods to the postal authorities for exportation.

Regulations regarding goods imported or to be exported by post.

84. The Board may make regulations providing for—

(a) the form and manner in which an entry may be made in respect of any specified class of goods imported or to be exported by post, other than goods which are accompanied by a label or declaration containing the description, quantity and value thereof;

(b) the examination, assessment to duty, and clearance of goods imported or to be exported by post;

(c) the transit or transhipment of goods imported by post, from one customs station to another or to a place outside India.

Stores

Stores may be allowed to be warehoused without assessment to duty.

85. Where any imported goods are entered for warehousing and the importer makes and subscribes to a declaration that the goods are to be supplied as stores to vessels or aircrafts without payment of import duty under this Chapter, the proper officer may permit the goods to be warehoused without the goods being assessed to duty.

Transit and transhipment of stores.

86. (1) Any stores imported in a vessel or aircraft may, without payment of duty, remain on board such vessel or aircraft while it is in India.

(2) Any stores imported in a vessel or aircraft may, with the permission of the proper officer, be transferred to any vessel or aircraft as stores for consumption therein as provided in section 87 or section 90.

Imported stores may be consumed on board a foreign-going vessel or aircraft.

87. Any imported stores on board a vessel or aircraft (other than stores to which section 90 applies) may, without payment of duty, be consumed thereon as stores during the period such vessel or aircraft is a foreign-going vessel or aircraft.

Application of section 69 and Chapter X to stores.

88. The provisions of section 69 and Chapter X shall apply to stores (other than those to which section 90 applies) as they apply to other goods, subject to the modifications that—

(a) for the words "exported to any place outside India" or the word "exported", wherever they occur, the words "taken on board any foreign-going vessel or aircraft as stores" shall be substituted;

(b) in the case of drawback on fuel and lubricating oil taken on board any foreign-going aircraft as stores, sub-section (1) of section 74 shall have effect as if for the words "ninety-eight per cent.", the words "the whole" were substituted.

Stores to be free of export duty.

89. Goods produced or manufactured in India and required as stores on any foreign-going vessel or aircraft may be exported free of duty in such quantities as the proper officer may determine, having regard to the size of the vessel or aircraft, the number of passengers and crew and the length of the voyage or journey on which the vessel or aircraft is about to depart.

Conces-sions in respect of imported stores for the Navy.

90. (1) Imported stores specified in sub-section (3) may without payment of duty be consumed on board a ship of the Indian Navy.

(2) The provisions of section 69 and Chapter X shall apply to stores specified in sub-section (3) as they apply to other goods, subject to the modifications that—

(a) for the words "exported to any place outside India" or the word "exported" wherever they occur, the words "taken on board a ship of the Indian Navy" shall be substituted;

(b) for the words "ninety-eight per cent." in sub-section (1) of section 74, the words "the whole" shall be substituted.

(3) The stores referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) are he following:—

(a) stores for the use of a ship of the Indian Navy;

(b) stores supplied free by the Government for the use of the crew of a ship of the Indian Navy in accordance with their conditions of service.

CHAPTER XII

PROVISIONS RELATING TO COASTAL GOODS AND VESSELS CARRYING COASTAL GOODS

Chapter not to apply to baggage and stores.

91. The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to baggage and stores.

Entry of coastal goods.

92. (1) The consignor of any coastal goods shall make an entry thereof by presenting to the proper officer a bill of coastal goods in the prescribed form.

(2) Every such consignor while presenting a bill of costal goods shall, at the foot thereof, make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of the contents of such bill.

Coastal goods not to be loaded untill bill relating thereto is passed, etc.

93. The master of a vessel shall not permit the loading of any coastal goods on the vessel until a bill relating to such goods presented under section 92 has been passed by the proper officer and has been delivered to the master by the consignor.

Clearance of coastal goods at destination.

94. (1) The master of a vessel carrying any coastal goods shall carry on board the vessel all bills relating to such goods delivered to him under section 93 and shall, immediately on arrival of the vessel at any customs or coastal port, deliver to the proper officer of that port all bills relating to the goods which are to be unloaded at that port.

(2) Where any coastal goods are unloaded at any port, the proper officer shall permit clearance thereof if he is satisfied that they are entered in a bill of coastal goods delivered to him under sub-section (1).

Master of a coasting vessel to carry an advice book.

95. (1) The master of every vessel carrying coastal goods shall be supplied by the Customs authorities with a book to be called the "advice book".

(2) The proper officer at each port of call by such vessel shall make such entries in the advice book as he deems fit, relating to the goods loaded on the vessel at that port.

(3) The master of every such vessel shall carry the advice book on board the vessel and shall on arrival at each port of call deliver it to the proper officer at that port for his inspection.

Loading and unloading of coastal goods at customs port or coastal port only.

96. No coastal goods shall be loaded on, or unloaded from, any vessel at any port other than a customs port or a coastal port appointed under section 7 for the loading or unloading of such goods.

No coasting vessel to leave without written order.

97. (1) The master of a vessel which has brought or loaded any coastal goods at a customs or coastal port shall not cause or permit the vessel to depart from such port until a written order to that effect has been given by the the proper officer.

(2) No such order shall be given until—

(a) the master of the vessel has answered the questions put to him under section 38;

(b) all charges and penalties due in respect of that vessel or from the master thereof have been paid or the payment secured by such guarantee or deposit of such amount as the proper officer may direct;

(c) the master of the vessel has satisfied the proper officer that no penalty is leviable on him under section 116 or the payment of any penalty that may be levied upon him under that section has been secured by such guarantee or deposit of such amount as the proper officer may direct;

(d) the provisions of this Chapter and any rules and regulations relating to coastal goods and vessels carrying coastal goods have been complied with.

Application of certain provisions of this Act to coastal goods, etc.

98. (1) Sections 33, 34 and 36 shall, so far as may be, apply to costal goods as they apply to imported goods or export goods.

(2) Sections 37 and 38 shall, so far as may be, apply to vessels carrying coastal goods as they apply to vessels carrying imported goods or export goods.

(3) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that all or any of the other provisions of Chapter VI and the provisions of section 45 shall apply to coastal goods or vessels carrying coastal goods subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be specified in the notification.

Power to make rules in respect of coastal goods and coasting vessels.

99. The Central Government may make rules for—

(a) preventing the taking out of India of any coastal goods the export of which is dutiable or prohibited under this Act or any other law for the time being in force;

(b) preventing, in the case of a vessel carrying coastal goods as well as imported or export goods, the substitution of imported or export goods by coastal goods.

CHAPTER XIII

SEARCHES, SEIZURE AND ARREST

Power to search suspected persons entering or leaving India, etc.

100. (1) If the proper officer has reason to believe that any person to whom this section applies has secreted about his person, any goods liable to confiscation or any documents relating thereto, he may search that person.

(2) This section applies to the following persons, namely:—

(a) any person who has landed from or is about to board or is on board any vessel within the Indian customs waters;

(b) any person who has landed from or is about to board, or is on board a foreign-going aircraft;

(c) any person who has got out of, or is about to get into, or is in, a vehicle, which has arrived from, or is to proceed to any place outside India;

(d) any person not included in clause (a), (b) or (c) who has entered or is about to leave India;

(e) any person in a customs area.

Power to search suspected persons in certain other cases.

101. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 100, if an officer of customs empowered in this behalf by general or special order of the Collector of Customs, has reason to believe that any person has secreted about his person any goods of the description specified in sub-section (2) which are liable to confiscation, or documents relating thereto, he may search that person.

(2) The goods referred to in sub-section (1) are the following:—

(a) gold;

(b) diamonds;

(c) manufactures of gold or diamonds;

(d) watches;

(e) any other class of goods which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

Persons to be searched may require to be taken before gazetted officer of customs or magistrate.

102. (1) When any officer of customs is about to search any person under the provisions of section 100 or section 101, the officer of customs shall, if such person so requires, take him without unnecessary delay to the nearest gazetted officer of customs or magistrate.

(2) If such requisition is made, the officer of customs may detain the person making it until he can bring him before the gazetted officer of customs or the magistrate.

(3) The gazetted officer of customs or the magistrate before whom any such person is brought shall, if he sees no reasonable ground for search, forthwith discharge the person but otherwise shall direct that search be made.

(4) Before making a search under the provisions of section 100 or section 101, the officer of customs shall call upon two or more persons to attend and witness the search and may issue an order in writing to them or any of them so to do; and the search shall be made in the presence of such persons and a list of all things seized in the course of such search shall be prepared by such officer or other person and signed by such witnesses.

(5) No female shall be searched by any one excepting a female.

Power to screen or X-ray bodies of suspected persons for detecting secreted goods.

103. (1) Where the proper officer has reason to believe that any person referred to in sub-section (2) of section 100 has any goods liable to confiscation secreted inside his body, he may detain such person and produce him without unnecessary delay before the nearest magistrate.

(2) A magistrate before whom any person is brought under sub-section (1) shall, if he sees no reasonable ground for believing that such person has any such goods secreted inside his body, forthwith discharge such person.

(3) Where any such magistrate has reasonable ground for believing that such person has any such goods secreted inside his body and the magistrate is satisfied that for the purpose of discovering such goods it is necessary to have the body of such person screened or X-rayed, he may make an order to that effect.

(4) Where a magistrate has made any order under sub-section (3), in relation to any person, the proper officer shall, as soon as practicable, take such person before a radiologist possessing qualifications recognized by the Central Government for the purpose of this section, and such person shall allow the radiologist to screen or X-ray his body.

(5) A radiologist before whom any person is brought under sub-section (4) shall, after screening or X-raying the body of such person, forward his report, together with any X-ray pictures taken by him, to the magistrate without unnecessary delay.

(6) Where on receipt of a report from a radiologist under sub-section (5) or otherwise, the magistrate is satisfied that any person has any goods liable to confiscation secreted inside his body, he may direct that suitable action for bringing out such goods be taken on the advice and under the supervision of a registered medical practitioner and such person shall be bound to comply with such direction:

Provided that in the case of a female no such action shall be taken except on the advice and under the supervision of a female registered medical practitioner.

(7) Where any person is brought before a magistrate under this section, such magistrate may for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this section order such person to be kept in such custody and for such period as he may direct.

(8) Nothing in this section shall apply to any person referred to in sub-section (1), who admits that goods liable to confiscation are secreted inside his body, and who voluntarily submits himself for suitable action being taken for bringing out such goods.

Explanation: For the purposes of this section, the expression "registered medical practitioner" means any person who holds a qualification granted by an authority specified in the Schedule to the Indian Medical Degrees Act, 1916, or notified under section 3 of that Act, or by an authority specified in any of the Schedules to the Indian Medical Council Act, 1956. 7 of 1916. 102 of 1956.

Power to arrest.

104. (1) If an officer of customs empowered in this behalf by general or special order of the Collector of Customs has reason to believe that any person in India or within the Indian Customs waters has been guilty of an offence punishable under section 135, he may arrest such person and shall, as soon as may be, inform him of the grounds for such arrest.

(2) Every person arrested under sub-section (1) shall, without unnecessary delay, be taken to a magistrate.

(3) Where an officer of customs has arrested any person under sub-section (1), he shall, for the purpose of releasing such person on bail or otherwise, have the same powers and be subject to the same provisions as the officer-in-charge of a police-station has and is subject to under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. 5 of 1898.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, an offence under this Act shall not be cognizable.

Power to search premises.

105. (1) If the Assistant Collector of Customs, or in any area adjoining the land frontier or the coast of India an officer of customs specially empowered by name in this behalf by the Board, has reason to believe that any goods liable to confiscation, or any documents or things which in his opinion will be useful for or relevant to any proceeding under this Act, are secreted in any place, he may authorise any officer of customs to search or may himself search for such goods, documents or things.

5 of 1898. (2) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to searches shall, so far as may be, apply to searches under this section subject to the modification that sub-section (5) of section 165 of the said Code shall have effect as if for the word "Magistrate", wherever it occurs, the words "Collector of Customs" were substituted.

Power to stop and search conveyances.

106. (1) Where the proper officer has reason to believe that any aircraft, vehicle or animal in India or any vessel in India or within the Indian customs waters has been, is being, or is about to be, used in the smuggling of any goods or in the carriage of any goods which have been smuggled, he may at any time stop any such vehicle, animal or vessel or, in the case of an aircraft, compel it to land, and—

(a) rummage and search any part of the aircraft, vehicle or vessel;

(b) examine and search any goods in the aircraft, vehicle or vessel or on the animal;

(c) break open the lock of any door or package for exercising the powers conferred by clauses (a) and (b), if the keys are withheld.

(2) Where for the purposes of sub-section (1)—

(a) it becomes necessary to stop any vessel or compel any aircraft to land, it shall be lawful for any vessel or aircraft in the service of the Government while flying her proper flag and any authority authorised in this behalf by the Central Government to summon such vessel to stop or the aircraft to land, by means of an international signal, code or other recognised means, and thereupon such vessel shall forthwith stop or such aircraft shall forthwith land; and if it fails to do so, chase may be given thereto by any vessel or aircraft as aforesaid and if after a gun is fired as a signal the vessel fails to stop or the aircraft fails to land, it may be fired upon;

(b) it becomes necessary to stop any vehicle or animal, the proper officer may use all lawful means for stopping it, and where such means fail, the vehicle or animal may be fired upon.

Power to examine persons.

107. Any officer of customs empowered in this behalf by general or special order of the Collector of Customs may, during the course of any enquiry in connection with the smuggling of any goods,—

(a) require any person to produce or deliver any document or thing relevant to the enquiry;

(b) examine any person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case.

Power to summon persons to give evidence and produce documents.

108. (1) Any gazetted officer of customs shall have power to summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary either to give evidence or to produce a document or any other thing in any inquiry which such officer is making in connection with the smuggling of any goods.

(2) A summons to produce documents or other things may be for the production of certain specified documents or things or for the production of all documents or things of a certain description in the possession or under the control of the person summoned.

(3) All persons so summoned shall be bound to attend either in person or by an authorised agent, as such officer may direct; and all persons so summoned shall be bound to state the truth upon any subject respecting which they are examined or make statements and produce such documents and other things as may be required:

Provided that the exemption under section 132 of the Code
5 of 1908 of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall be applicable to any requisition for attendance under this section.

(4) Every such inquiry as aforesaid shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of section 193 and section 228 of the Indian Penal Code. 45 of 1860.

Power to require production of order permitting clearance of goods imported by land.

109. Any officer of customs appointed for any area adjoining the land frontier of India and empowered in this behalf by general or special order of the Board, may require any person in possession of any goods which such officer has reason to believe to have been imported into India by land, to produce the order made under section 47 permitting clearance of the goods:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any imported goods passing from a land frontier to a land customs station by a route appointed under clause (c) of section 7.

Seizure of goods, documents and things.

110. (1) If the proper officer has reason to believe that any goods are liable to confiscation under this Act, he may seize such goods:

Provided that where it is not practicable to seize any such goods, the proper officer may serve on the owner of the goods an order that he shall not remove, part with, or otherwise deal with the goods except with the previous permission of such officer.

(2) Where any goods are seized under sub-section (1) and no notice in respect thereof is given under clause (a) of section 124 within six months of the seizure of the goods, the goods shall be returned to the person from whose possession they were seized:

Provided that the aforesaid period of six months may on sufficient cause being shown, be extended by the Collector of Customs for a period not exceeding six months.

(3) The proper officer may seize any documents or things which, in his opinion, will be useful for, or relevant to, any proceeding under this Act.

(4) The person from whose custody any documents are seized under sub-section (3) shall be entitled to make copies thereof or take extracts therefrom in the presence of an officer of customs.

CHAPTER XIV

CONFISCATION OF GOODS AND CONVEYANCES AND IMPOSITION OF PENALTIES

Confiscation of improperly imported goods, etc.

111. The following goods brought from a place outside India shall be liable to confiscation:

(a) any goods imported by sea or air which are unloaded or attempted to be unloaded at any place other than a customs port or customs airport appointed under clause (a) of section 7 for the unloading of such goods;

(b) any goods imported by land or inland water through any route other than a route specified in a notification issued under clause (c) of section 7 for the import of such goods;

(c) any dutiable or prohibited goods brought into any bay, gulf, creek or tidal river for the purpose of being landed at a place other than a customs port;

(d) any goods which are imported or attempted to be imported or are brought within the Indian customs waters for the purpose of being imported, contrary to any prohibition imposed by or under this Act or any other law for the time being in force.

(e) any dutiable or prohibited goods found concealed in any manner in any conveyance;

(f) any dutiable or prohibited goods required to be mentioned under the regulations in an import manifest or import report which are not so mentioned;

(g) any dutiable or prohibited goods which are unloaded from a conveyance in contravention of the provisions of section 32, other than goods inadvertently unloaded but included in the record kept under sub-section (2) of section 45;

(h) any dutiable or prohibited goods unloaded or attempted to be unloaded in contravention of the provisions of section 33 or section 34;

(i) any dutiable or prohibited goods found concealed in any manner in any package either before or after the unloading thereof;

(j) any dutiable or prohibited goods removed or attempted to be removed from a customs area or a warehouse without the permission of the proper officer or contrary to the terms of such permission;

(k) any dutiable or prohibited goods imported by land in respect of which the order permitting clearance of the goods required to be produced under section 109 is not produced or which do not correspond in any material particular with the specification contained therein;

(l) any dutiable or prohibited goods which are not included or are in excess of those included in the entry made under this Act, or in the case of baggage in the declaration made under section 77;

(m) any dutiable or prohibited goods which do not correspond in any material particular with the entry made under this Act, or in the case of baggage with the declaration made under section 77 in respect thereof;

(n) any dutiable or prohibited goods transitted with or without transhipment or attempted to be so transitted in contravention of the provisions of Chapter VIII;

(o) any goods exempted, subject to any condition, from duty or any prohibition in respect of the import thereof under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, in respect of which the condition is not observed unless the non-observance of the condition was sanctioned by the proper officer.

Penalty for improper importation of goods, etc.

112. Any person,—

(a) who, in relation to any goods, does or omits to do any act which act or omission would render such goods liable to confiscation under section 111, or abets the doing or omission of such an act, or

(b) who acquires possession of or is in any way concerned in carrying, removing, depositing, harbouring, keeping, concealing, selling or purchasing, or in any other manner dealing with any goods which he knows or has reason to believe are liable to confiscation under section 111, shall be liable,—

(i) in the case of goods in respect of which any prohibition is in force under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, to a penalty not exceeding five times the value of the goods or one thousand rupees, whichever is the greater;

(ii) in the case of dutiable goods, other than prohibited goods, to a penalty not exceeding five times the duty sought to be evaded on such goods or one thousand rupees, whichever is the greater.

Confiscation of goods attempted to be improperly exported, etc.

113. The following export goods shall be liable to confiscation:—

(a) any goods attempted to be exported by sea or air from any place other than a customs port or a customs airport appointed for the loading of such goods;

(b) any goods attempted to be exported by land or inland water through any route other than a route specified in a notification issued under clause (c) of section 7 for the export of such goods;

(c) any dutiable or prohibited goods brought near the land frontier or the coast of India or near any bay, gulf, creek or tidal river for the purpose of being exported from a place other than a land-customs station or a customs port appointed for the loading of such goods;

(d) any goods attempted to be exported or brought within the limits of any customs area for the purpose of being exported, contrary to any prohibition imposed by or under this Act or any other law for the time being in force;

(e) any dutiable or prohibited goods found concealed in a package which is brought within the limits of a customs area for the purpose of exportation;

(f) any dutiable or prohibited goods which are loaded or attempted to be loaded in contravention of the provisions of section 33 or section 34;

(g) any dutiable or prohibited goods loaded or attempted to be loaded on any conveyance, or water-borne, or attempted to be water-borne for being loaded on any vessel, the eventual destination of which is a place outside India, without the permission of the proper officer;

(h) any dutiable or prohibited goods which are not included or are in excess of those included in the entry made under this Act, or in the case of baggage in the declaration made under section 77;

(i) any dutiable or prohibited goods which do not correspond in any material particular with the entry made under this Act or in the case of baggage with the declaration made under section 77 in respect thereof;

(j) any goods on which import duty has not been paid and which are entered for exportation under a claim for drawback under section 74;

(k) any goods cleared for exportation under a claim for drawback which are not loaded for exportation on account of any wilful act, negligence or default of the exporter, his agent or employee, or which after having been loaded for exportation are unloaded without the permission of the proper officer.

Penalty for attempt to export goods improperly, etc.

114. Any person who, in relation to any goods, does or omits to do any act which act or omission would render such goods liable to confiscation under section 113, or abets the doing or omission of such an act, shall be liable,—

(i) in the case of goods in respect of which any prohibition is in force under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, to a penalty not exceeding five times the value of the goods or one thousand rupees, whichever is the greater;

(ii) in the case of dutiable goods, other than prohibited goods, to a penalty not exceeding five times the duty sought to be evaded on such goods or one thousand rupees, whichever is the greater;

(iii) in the case of goods under claim for drawback, to a penalty not exceeding five times the amount of drawback claimed or one thousand rupees, whichever is the greater.

Confiscation of conveyances.

115. (1) The following conveyances shall be liable to confiscation:—

(a) any vessel which is or has been within the Indian customs waters, any aircraft which is or has been in India, or any vehicle which is or has been in a customs area, while constructed, adapted, altered or fitted in any manner for the purpose of concealing goods;

(b) any conveyance from which the whole or any part of the goods is thrown overboard, staved or destroyed so as to prevent seizure by an officer of customs;

(c) any conveyance which having been required to stop or land under section 106 fails to do so, except for good and sufficient cause;

(d) any conveyance from which any warehoused goods cleared for exportation, or any other goods cleared for exportation under a claim for drawback, are unloaded, without the permission of the proper officer;

(e) any conveyance carrying imported goods which has entered India and is afterwards found with the whole or substantial portion of such goods missing, unless the master of the vessel or aircraft is able to account for the loss of, or deficiency in, the goods.

(2) Any conveyance or animal used as a means of transport in the smuggling of any goods or in the carriage of any smuggled goods shall be liable to confiscation, unless the owner of the conveyance or animal proves that it was so used without the knowledge or connivance of the owner himself, his agent, if any, and the person-in-charge of the conveyance or animal and that each of them had taken all such precautions against such use as are for the time being specified in the rules.

Provided that where any such conveyance is used for the carriage of goods or passengers for hire, the owner of any conveyance shall be given an option to pay in lieu of the confiscation of the conveyance a fine not exceeding the market-price of the goods which are sought to be smuggled or the smuggled goods, as the case may be.

Explanation: In this section, "market-price" means market-price at the date when the goods are seized.

Penalty for not accounting for goods.

116. If any goods loaded in a conveyance for importation into India, or any goods transhipped under the provisions of this Act or coastal goods carried in a conveyance, are not unloaded at their place of destination in India, or if the quantity unloaded is short of the quantity to be unloaded at that destination, and if the failure to unload or the deficiency is not accounted for to the satisfaction of the Assistant Collector of Customs, the person-in-charge of the conveyance shall be liable,—

(a) in the case of goods loaded in a conveyance for importation into India or goods transhipped under the provisions of this Act, to a penalty not exceeding twice the amount of duty that would have been chargeable on the goods not unloaded or the deficient goods, as the case may be, had such goods been imported;

(b) in the case of coastal goods, to a penalty not exceeding twice the amount of export duty that would have been chargeable on the goods not unloaded or the deficient goods, as the case may be, had such goods been exported.

Penalties for contravention, etc., not expressly mentioned.

117. Any person who contravenes any provision of this Act or abets any such contravention or who fails to comply with any provision of this Act with which it was his duty to comply, where no express penalty is elsewhere provided for such contravention or failure, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Confiscation of packages and their contents.

118. (a) Where any goods imported in a package are liable to confiscation, the package and any other goods imported in that package shall also be liable to confiscation.

(b) Where any goods are brought in a package within the limits of a customs area for the purpose of exportation and are liable to confiscation, the package and any other goods contained therein shall also be liable to confiscation.

Confiscation of goods used for concealing smuggled goods.

119. Any goods used for concealing smuggled goods shall also be liable to confiscation.

Explanation: In this section, "goods" does not include a conveyance used as a means of transport.

Confiscation of smuggled good notwithstanding any change in from, etc.

120. (1) Smuggled goods may be confiscated notwithstanding any change in their form.

(2) Where smuggled goods are mixed with other goods in such manner that the smuggled goods cannot be separated from such other goods, the whole of the goods shall be liable to confiscation.

Provided that where the owner of such goods proves that he had no knowledge or reason to believe that they included any smuggled goods, only such part of the goods the value of which is equal to the value of the smuggled goods shall be liable to confiscation.

Confiscation of sale proceeds of smuggled goods.

121. Where any smuggled goods are sold by a person having knowledge or reason to believe that the goods are smuggled goods, the sale-proceeds thereof shall be liable to confiscation.

Adjudication of confiscations and penalties.

122. In every case under this Chapter in which anything is liable to confiscation or any person is liable to a penalty, such confiscation or penalty may be adjudged,—

(a) without limit, by a Collector of Customs or a Deputy Collector of Customs;

(b) where the value of the goods liable to confiscation does not exceed ten thousand rupees and where the penalty proposed to be imposed does not exceed two thousand rupees, by an Assistant Collector of Customs;

(c) where the value of the goods liable to confiscation does not exceed one thousand rupees and where the penalty proposed to be imposed does not exceed two hundred rupees, by a gazetted officer of customs lower in rank than an Assistant Collector of Customs.

Burden of proof in certain cases.

123. (1) Where any goods to which this section applies are seized under this Act in the reasonable belief that they are smuggled goods, the burden of proving that they are not smuggled goods shall be on the person from whose possession the goods were seized.

(2) This section shall apply to gold, diamonds, manufactures of gold or diamonds, watches, and any other class of goods which the Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette specify.

Issue of show-cause notice before confiscation of goods, etc.

124. No order confiscating any goods or imposing any penalty on any person shall be made under this Chapter unless the owner of the goods or such person—

(a) is given a notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which it is proposed to confiscate the goods or to impose a penalty;

(b) is given an opportunity of making a representation in writing within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice against the grounds of confiscation or imposition of penalty mentioned therein; and

(c) is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter:

Provided that the notice referred to in clause (a) and the representation referred to in clause (b) may, at the request of the person concerned be oral.

Option to pay fine in lieu of confiscation.

125. (1) Whenever confiscation of any goods is authorised by this Act, the officer adjudging it may, in the case of any goods, the importation or exportation whereof is prohibited under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, and shall, in the case of any other goods, give to the owner of the goods an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as the said officer thinks fit:

Provided that, without prejudice to the provisions of the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 115, such fine shall not exceed the market-price of the goods confiscated, less in the case of imported goods the duty chargeable thereon.

(2) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that any fine in lieu of confiscation of goods imposed under sub-section (1) shall be in addition to any duty and charges payable in respect of such goods.

On confiscation, property to vest in Central Government.

126. (1) When any goods are confiscated under this Act, such goods shall thereupon vest in the Central Government.

(2) The officer adjudging confiscation shall take and hold possession of the confiscated goods.

Award of confiscation or penalty by customs officers not to interfere with other punishments.

127. The award of any confiscation or penalty under this Act by an officer of customs shall not prevent the infliction of any punishment to which the person affected thereby is liable under the provisions of Chapter XVI of this Act or under any other law.

CHAPTER XV

APPEALS AND REVISION

Appeals.

128. (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act may, within three months from the date of the communication to him of such decision or order-

(a) where the decision or order has been passed by a Collector of Customs, appeal to the Board;

(b) where the decision or order has been passed by an officer of customs lower in rank than a Collector of Customs, appeal to the Appellate Collector of Customs:

Provided that the Appellate Authority may, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months, allow it to be presented within a further period of three months.

(2) The Appellate Authority may, after giving an opportunity to the appellant to be heard, if he so desires, and making such further inquiry as may be necessary, pass such order as it thinks fit, confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against:

Provided that an order enhancing any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or confiscating goods of greater value shall not be passed—

(a) by an Appellate Collector of Customs;

(b) by the Board unless the appellant has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed order:

Provided further that where the Appellate Authority is of opinion that any duty of customs has been short-levied, no order enhancing the duty shall be passed unless the appellant is given notice within the time-limit specified in section 28 to show cause against the proposed order.

Deposit, pending appeal, of duty demanded or penalty levied.

129. (1) Where the decision or order appealed against relates to any duty demanded in respect of goods which are not under the control of customs authorities or any penalty levied under this Act, any person desirous of appealing against such decision or order shall, pending the appeal, deposit with the proper officer the duty demanded or the penalty levied:

Provided that where in any particular case the appellate authority is of opinion that the deposit of duty demanded or penalty levied will cause hardship to the appellant, it may in its discretion dispense with such deposit, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as it may deem fit.

(2) If upon any such appeal it is decided that the whole or any portion of such duty or penalty was not leviable, the proper officer shall return to the appellant such amount of duty or penalty as was not leviable.

Powers of revision of Board.

130. (1) The Board may of its own motion or on the application of any aggrieved person call for and examine the record of any proceeding in which an officer of customs has passed any decision or order under this Act (not being an order passed in appeal under section 128) for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any such decision or order and may pass such order thereon as it thinks fit:

Provided that no order enhancing any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or confiscating goods of greater value shall be passed under this section unless the person affected by the proposed order has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against it:

Provided further that where the Board is of opinion that any duty of customs has not been levied or has been short-levied, no order levying or enhancing the duty shall be made unless the person affected by the proposed order is given notice to show cause against it within the time-limit specified in section 28.

(2) No decision or order passed by an officer of customs shall be revised under this section by the Board of its own motion and no application for the revision of any such decision or order shall be entertained, after the expiry of two years from the date of such decision or order.

Revision by Central Government.

131. (1) The Central Government may, on the application of any person aggrieved by—

(a) any order passed under section 128, or

(b) any order passed under section 130 otherwise than on the application of any aggrieved person, or

(c) any order passed on the application of any aggrieved person under section 130 where the order is of the nature referred to in either of the provisos to sub-section (1) of that section, annul or modify such order.

(2) An application under sub-section (1) shall be made within six months from the date of the communication to the applicant of the order against which the application is being made:

Provided that the Central Government may, if it is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the application within the aforesaid period of six months, allow it to be presented within a further period of six months.

(3) The Central Government may of its own motion annul or modify any order passed under section 128 or section 130.

(4) No order enhancing any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or confiscating goods of greater value shall be passed under this section –

(a) in any case in which an order passed under section 128 or section 130 has enhanced any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or has confiscated goods of greater value; and

(b) in any other case, unless the person affected by the proposed order has been given notice to show cause against it, within one year from the date of the order sought to be annulled or modified.

(5) Where the Central Government is of opinion that any duty of customs has not been levied or has been short-levied, no order levying or enhancing the duty shall be made under this section, unless the person affected by the proposed order is given notice to show cause against it within the time-limit specified in section 28.

CHAPTER XVI

OFFENCES AND PROSECUTIONS

False declaration, false documents, etc.

132. Whoever makes, signs or uses, or causes to be made, signed or used, any declaration, statement or document in the transaction of any business relating to the customs, knowing or having reason to believe that such declaraton, statement or document is false in any material particular, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

Obstruction of officer of customs.

133. If any person intentionally obstructs any officer of customs in the exercise of any powers conferred under this Act, such person shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

Refusal to be X-rayed.

134. If any person—

(a) resists or refuses to allow a radiologist to screen or to take X-ray picture of his body in accordance with an order made by a magistrate under section 103, or

(b) resists or refuses to allow suitable action being taken on the advice and under the supervision of a registered medical practitioner for bringing out goods liable to confiscation secreted inside his body, as provided in section 103;

he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

Evasion of duty or prohibitions.

135. Without prejudice to any action that may be taken under this Act, if any person—

(a) is in relation to any goods in any way knowingly concerned in any fradulent evasion or attempt at evasion of any duty chargeable thereon or of any prohibition for the time being imposed under this Act or any other law for the time being in force with respect to such goods, or

(b) acquires possession of or is in any way concerned in carrying, removing, depositing, harbouring, keeping, concealing, selling or purchasing or in any other manner dealing with any goods which he knows or has reason to believe are liable to confiscation under section 111, he shall be punishable,—

(i) in the case of an offence relating to any of the goods to which section 123 applies and the market-price whereof exceeds one lakh of rupees, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years and with fine:

Provided that in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be recorded in the judgment of the court, such imprisonment shall not be for less than six months;

(ii) in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

Offences by officers of customs.

136. (1) If any officer of customs enters into or acquiesces in any agreement to do, abstains from doing, permits, conceals or connives at any act or thing whereby any duty of customs leviable on any goods, or any prohibition for the time being in force under this Act or any other law for the time being in force with respect to any goods is or may be evaded, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

(2) If any officer of customs,—

(a) requires any person to be searched for goods liable to confiscation or any document relating thereto, without having reason to believe that he has such goods or document secreted about his person; or

(b) arrests any person without having reason to believe that he has been guilty of an offence punishable under section 135; or

(c) searches or authorises any other officer of customs to search any place without having reason to believe that any goods, documents or things of the nature referred to in section 105 are secreted in that place;

he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(3) If any officer of customs, except in the discharge in good faith of his duty as such officer or in compliance with any requisition made under any law for the time being in force, discloses any particulars learnt by him in his official capacity in respect of any goods, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Cognizance of offences.

137. (1) No court shall take cognizance of any offence under section 132, section 133, section 134 or section 135, except with the previous sanction of the Collector of Customs.

(2) No court shall take cognizance of any offence under section 136,—

(a) where the offence is alleged to have been committed by an officer of customs not lower in rank than Assistant Collector of Customs, except with the previous sanction of the Central Government;

(b) where the offence is alleged to have been committed by an officer of customs lower in rank than Assistant Collector of Customs, except with the previous sanction of the Collector of Customs.

Offences to be tried summarily.

138. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, an offence under this Chapter other than an offence punishable under clause (i) of section 135 may be tried summarily by a magistrate.

5 of 1898.

Presumption as to documents in certain cases.

139. Where any document is produced by any person under this Act or has been seized under this Act from the custody or control of any person, and such document is tendered by the prosecution in evidence against him, the court shall,—

(a) unless the contrary is proved by any such person, presume—

(i) the truth of the contents of such document;

(ii) that the signature and every other part of such documents which purports to be in the handwriting of any particular person or which the court may reasonably assume to have been signed by, or to be in the handwriting of, any particular person, is in that person's handwriting, and in the case of a document executed or attested that it was executed or attested by the person by whom it purports to have been so executed or attested;

(b) admit the document in evidence, notwithstanding that it is not duly stamped, if such document is otherwise admissible in evidence.

Offences by companies.

140. (1) If the person committing an offence under this Chapter is a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to such punishment provided in this Chapter if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Chapter has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any negligence on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation: For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means a body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals: and

(b) "director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

CHAPTER XVII

MISCELLANEOUS

Conveyances and goods in a customs area subject to control of officers of customs.

141. All conveyances and goods in a customs area shall, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act, be subject to the control of officers of customs.

Recovery of sums due to Government.

142. (1) Where any duty demanded from any person or any penalty payable by any person under this Act is not paid,—

(a) the proper officer may deduct or may require any other officer of customs to deduct the amount so payable from any money owing to such person which may be under the control of the proper officer or such other officer of customs; or

(b) the Assistant Collector of Customs may recover or may require any other officer of customs to recover the amount so payable by detaining and selling any goods belonging to such person which are under the control of the Assistant Collector of Customs or such other officer of customs; or

(c) if the amount cannot be recovered from such person in the manner provided in clause (a) or clause (b), the Assistant Collector of Customs may prepare a certificate signed by him specifying the amount due from such person and send it to the Collector of the district in which such person owns any property or resides or carries on his business and the said Collector on receipt of such certificate shall proceed to recover from the said person the amount specified thereunder as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(2) Where the terms of any bond or other instrument executed under this Act or any rules or regulations made thereunder provide that any amount due under such instrument may be recovered in the manner laid down in sub-section (1), the amount may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recovered in accordance with the provisions of that sub-section.

Power to allow import or export on execution of bonds in certain cases.

143. (1) Where this Act or any other law requires anything to be done before a person can import or export any goods or clear any goods from the control of officers of customs and the Assistant Collector of Customs is satisfied that having regard to the circumstances of the case, such thing cannot be done before such import, export or clearance without detriment to that person, the Assistant Collector of Customs may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or such other law, grant leave for such import, export or clearance on the person executing a bond in such amount, with such surety or security and subject to such conditions as the Assistant Collector of Customs approves, for the doing of that thing within such time after the import, export or clearance as may be specified in the bond.

(2) If the thing is done within the time specified in the bond, the Assistant Collector of Customs shall cancel the bond as discharged in full and shall, on demand, deliver it, so cancelled, to the person who has executed or who is entitled to receive it; and in such a case that person shall not be liable to any penalty provided in this Act or, as the case may be, in such other law for the contravention of the provisions thereof relating to the doing of that thing.

(3) If the thing is not done within the time specified in the bond, the Assistant Collector of Customs shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken under this Act, or any other law for the time being in force, be entitled to proceed upon the bond in accordance with law.

Power to take samples.

144. (1) The proper officer may, on the entry or clearance of any goods or at any time while such goods are being passed through the customs area, take samples of such goods in the presence of the owner thereof, for examination or testing, or for ascertaining the value thereof, or for any other purposes of this Act.

(2) After the purpose for which a sample was taken is carried out, such sample shall, if practicable, be restored to the owner, but if the owner fails to take delivery of the sample within three months of the date on which the sample was taken, it may be disposed of in such manner as the Collector of Customs may direct.

(3) No duty shall be chargeable on any sample of goods taken under this section which is consumed or destroyed during the course of any test or examination thereof, if such duty amounts to five rupees or more.

Owner, etc. to perform operations incidental to compliance with customs law.

145. All operations necessary for making any goods available for examination by the proper officer or for facilitating such examination shall be performed by, or at the expense of, the owner, importer or exporter of the goods, as the case may be.

Customs house agents to be licensed.

146. (1) No person shall carry on business as an agent relating to the entry or departure of a conveyance or the import or export of goods at any customs-station unless such person holds a licence granted in this behalf in accordance with the regulations.

(2) The Board may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section and, in particular, such regulations may provide for—

(a) the authority by which a licence may be granted under this section and the period of validity of any such licence;

(b) the form of the licence and the fees payable therefor:

(c) the qualifications of persons who may apply for a licence and the qualifications of persons to be employed by a licensee to assist him in his work as an agent;

(d) the restrictions and conditions (including the furnishing of security by the licensee) subject to which a licence may be granted;

(e) the circumstances in which a licence may be suspended or revoked; and

(f) the appeals, if any, against an order of suspension or revocation of a licence, and the period within which such appeals shall be filed.

Liability of principal and agents.

147. (1) Where this Act requires anything to be done by the owner, importer or exporter of any goods, it may be done on his behalf by his agent.

(2) Any such thing done by an agent of the owner, importer or exporter of any goods shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been done with the knowledge and consent of such owner, importer or exporter, so that in any proceedings under this Act, the owner, importer or exporter of the goods shall also be liable as if the thing had been done by himself.

(3) When any person is expressly or impliedly authorised by the owner, importer or exporter of any goods to be his agent in respect of such goods for all or any of the purposes of this Act, such person shall, without prejudice to the liability of the owner, importer or exporter, be deemed to be the owner, importer or exporter of such goods for such purposes:

Provided that where any duty is not levied or is short-levied or erroneously refunded on account of any reason other than any wilful act, negligence or default of the agent, such duty shall not be recovered from the agent unless in the opinion of Assistant Collector of Customs the same cannot be recovered from the owner, importer or exporter.

Liability of agent appointed by the person in charge of a conveyance.

148. (1) Where this Act requires anything to be done by the person in charge of a conveyance, it may be done on his behalf by his agent.

(2) An agent appointed by the person in charge of a conveyance and any person who represents himself to any officer of customs as an agent of any such person in charge, and is accepted as such by that officer, shall be liable for the fulfilment in respect of the matter in question of all obligations imposed on such person in charge by or under this Act or any law for the time being in force, and to penalties and confiscations which may be incurred in respect of that matter.

Amendmend of documents.

149. Save as otherwise provided in sections 30 and 41, the proper officer may, in his discretion, authorise any document, after it has been presented in the customs house to be amended:

Provided that no amendment of a bill of entry or a shipping bill or bill of export shall be so authorised to be amended after the imported goods have been cleared for home consumption or deposited in a warehouse, or the export goods have been exported, except on the basis of documentary evidence which was in existence at the time the goods were cleared, deposited or exported, as the case may be.

Procedure for sale of goods and application of sale proceeds.

150. (1) Where any goods not being confiscated goods are to be sold under any provisions of this Act, they shall, after notice to the owner thereof, be sold by public auction or by tender or with the consent of the owner in any other manner.

(2) The proceeds of any such sale shall be applied—

(a) firstly to the payment of the expenses of the sale,

(b) next to the payment of the freight and other charges, if any, payable in respect of the goods sold, to the carrier, if notice of such charges has been given to the person having custody of the goods,

(c) next to the payment of the duty, if any, on the goods sold,

(d) next to the payment of the charges in respect of the goods sold due to the person having the custody of the goods,

(e) next to the payment of any amount due from the owner of the goods to the Central Government under the provisions of this Act or any other law relating to customs, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the goods.

Certain officers required to assist officers of customs.

151. The following officers are hereby empowered and required to assist officers of customs in the execution of this Act, namely:—

(a) officers of the Central Excise Department;

(b) officers of the Navy;

(c) officers of Police;

(d) officers of the Central or State Governments employed at any port or airport;

(e) such other officers of the Central or State Governments or a local authority as are specified by the Central Government in this behalf by notification in the Official Gazette.

Delegation of powers.

152. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the notification—

(a) any power exercisable by the Board under this Act shall be exercisable also by a Collector of Customs empowered in this behalf by the Central Government;

(b) any power exercisable by a Collector of Customs under this Act may be exercisable also by a Deputy Collector of Customs or an Assistant Collector of Customs empowered in this behalf by the Central Government;

(c) any power exercisable by a Deputy Collector of Customs under this Act may be exercisable also by an Assistant Collector of Customs empowered in this behalf by the Central Government;

(d) any power exercisable by an Assistant Collector of Customs under this Act may be exercisable also by a gazetted officer of customs empowered in this behalf by the Board.

Service of order, decision, etc.

153. Any order or decision passed or any summons or notice issued under this Act, shall be served—

(a) by tendering the order, decision, summons or notice or sending it by registered post to the person for whom it is intended or to his agent; or

(b) if the order, decision, summons or notice cannot be served in the manner provided in clause (a), by affixing it on the notice board of the customs house.

Correction of clerical errors, etc.

154. Clerical or arithmetical mistakes in any decision or order passed by the Central Government, the Board or any officer of customs under this Act, or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission may, at any time, be corrected by the Central Government, the Board or such officer of customs or the successor in office of such officer, as the case may be.

Protection of action taken under the Act.

155. (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or any officer of the Government or a local authority for anything which is done, or intended to be done in good faith, in pursuance of this Act or the rules or regulations.

(2) No proceeding other than a suit shall be commenced against the Central Government or any officer of the Government or a local authority for anything purporting to be done in pursuance of this Act without giving the Central Government or such officer a month's previous notice in writing of the intended proceeding and of the cause thereof, or after the expiration of three months from the accrual of such cause.

General power to make rules.

156. (1) Without prejudice to any power to make rules contained elsewhere in this Act, the Central Government may make rules consistent with this Act generally to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the manner of determining the nearest ascertainable equivalent of the normal price of any goods;

(b) the conditions subject to which accessories of, and spare parts and maintenance and repairing implements for, any article shall be chargeable at the same rate of duty as that article;

(c) the precautions that shall be taken by the owner, his agent and the person-in-charge of any conveyance or animal for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 115;

(d) the detention and confiscation of goods the importation of which is prohibited and the conditions, if any, to be fulfilled before such detention and confiscation and the information, notices and security to be given and the evidence requisite for the purposes of such detention or confiscation and the mode of verification of such evidence;

(e) the reimbursement by an informant to any public officer of all expenses and damages incurred in respect of any detention of any goods made on his information and of any proceedings consequent on such detention;

(f) the information required in respect of any goods mentioned in a shipping bill or bill of export which are not exported or which are exported and are afterwards re-landed.

General power to make regulations.

157. (1) Without prejudice to any power to make regulations contained elsewhere in this Act, the Board may make regulations consistent with this Act and the rules, generally to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the form of a bill of entry, shipping bill, bill of export, import manifest, import report, export manifest, export report, bill of transhipment, boat note and bill of coastal goods;

(b) the conditions subject to which the transhipment of all or any goods under sub-section (3) of section 54, the transportation of all or any goods under section 56 and the removal of warehoused goods from one warehouse to another under section 67 may be allowed without payment of duty;

(c) the conditions subject to which any manufacturing process or other operations may be carried on in a warehouse under section 65.

Provisions with respect to rules and regulations.

158. (1) All rules and regulations made under this Act shall be published in the Official Gazette.

(2) Any rule or regulation which the Central Government or the Board is empowered to make under this Act may provide—

(i) for the levy of fees in respect of applications, amendment of documents, furnishing of duplicates of documents, issue of certificates, and supply of statistics, and for rendering of any services by officers of customs under this Act;

(ii) that any person who contravenes any provision of a rule or regulation or abets such contravention or any person who fails to comply with any provision of a rule or regulation with which it was his duty to comply, shall be liable,—

(a) in the case of contravention or failure to comply with a rule, to a penalty which may extend to five hundred rupees;

(b) in the case of contravention or failure to comply with a regulation, to a penalty which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Rules and certain notifications to be laid before Parliament.

159. Every rule made under this Act and every notification issued under sections 11, 14, 25, 43, 66, 69, 70, 74, 75, 76, 98, 101 and 123 shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made or issued before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or notification or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made or the notification should not be issued, the rule or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification.

Repeal and savings.

160. (1) The enactment specified in the Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the fourth column thereof.

32 of 1934. (2) In the Indian Tariff Act, 1934—

(a) for section 2, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"2. The rates at which duties of customs shall be levied under the Customs Act, 1962, are specified in the First and Second Schedules."; Duties specified in the Schedules to be levied.

(b) sections 5 and 6 shall stand repealed.

(3) Notwithstanding the repeal of any enactment by this section,—

(a) any notification, rule, regulation, order or notice issued or any appointment or declaration made or any licence, permission or exemption granted or any assessment made, confiscation adjudged or any duty levied or any penalty or fine imposed or any forfeiture, cancellation or discharge of any bond ordered or any other thing done or any other action taken under any repealed enactment shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provision of this Act;

(b) any document referring to any enactment hereby repealed shall be construed as referring to this Act or to the corresponding provision of this Act.

(4) This Act shall apply to all goods which are subject to the control of customs at the commencement of this Act notwithstanding that the goods were imported before such commencement.

(5) Where the period prescribed for any application, appeal, revision or other proceeding under any repealed enactment had expired on or before the commencement of this Act, nothing in this Act shall be construed as enabling any such application, appeal or revision to be made or a proceeding to be instituted under this Act by reason only of the fact that a longer period therefor is prescribed or provision is made for extension of time in suitable cases by the appropriate authority.

(6) The provisions of section 65 shall apply to goods warehoused before the commencement of this Act if the operations permissible under that section were carried on after such commencement.

(7) Any duty or penalty payable under any repealed enactment may be recovered in a manner provided under this Act but without prejudice to any action already taken for the recovery of such duty or penalty under the repealed enactment.

(8) The mention of particular matters in sub-sections (4), (5), (6) and (7) shall not be held to prejudice or affect the general application of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, with regard to the effect of repeals. 10 of 1897.

(9) Nothing in this Act shall affect any law for the time being in force relating to the constitution and powers of any Port authority in a major port as defined in the Indian Ports Act, 1908. 15 of 1908.

Removal of difficulties.

161. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, particularly in relation to the transition from the enactments repealed by this Act to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by general or special order, do anything not inconsistent with such provisions which appears to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

Ministry of Law

Legislative Department

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 29th December, 1956, and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT NO. XCVI OF 1956

THE SLUM AREAS (IMPROVEMENT AND CLEARANCE) ACT, 1956

[29th December, 1956.]

An Act to provide for the improvement and clearance of slum areas in certain Union territories and for the protection of tenants in such areas from eviction.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Slum Areas (Improvement and Clearance) Act, 1956.

(2) It extends to all Union territories except the Union territories of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands and the Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands.

(3) It shall come into force in a Union territory on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint; and different dates may be appointed for different Union territories.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Administrator" means the Administrartor of a Union territory;

(b) "building" includes any structure or erection or any part of a building as so defined but does not include plant or machinery comprised in a building;

(c) "competent authority" means such officer or authority as the Administrator may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint as the competent authority for the purposes of this Act;

(d) "erection" in relation to a building includes extension, alteration or re-erection;

(e) "work of improvement" includes in relation to any building in a slum area the execution of any one or more of the following works, namely:—

(i) necessary repairs;

(ii) structural alterations;

(iii) provision of light points and water taps;

(iv) construction of drains, open or covered;

(v) provision of latrines;

(vi) provision of additional or improved fixtures or fittings;

(vii) opening up or paving of court yards;

(viii) removal of rubbish; and

(ix) any other work including the demolition of any building or any part thereof which in the opinion of the competent authority is necessary for executing any of the works specified above;

(f) "occupier" includes an owner in occupation of or otherwise using his own land or building;

(g) "owner" includes any person who is receiving or is entitled to receive the rent of any building or land whether on his own account or on behalf of himself and others or as agent or trustee, or who would so receive the rent or be entitled to receive it if the building or land were let to a tenant;

(h) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; and

(i) "slum clearance" means the clearance of any slum area by the demolition and removal of buildings therefrom.

CHAPTER II

Slum Areas

Declaration of slum areas.

3. (1) Where the competent authority upon report from any of its officers or other information in its possession is satisfied as respects any area that the buildings in that area—

(a) are in any respect unfit for human habitation; or

(b) are by reason of dilapidation, overcrowding, faulty arrangement and design of such buildings, narrowness or faulty arrangement of streets, lack of ventilation, light or sanitation facilities, or any combination of these factors, are detrimental to safety, health or morals, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare such area to be a slum area.

(2) In determining whether a building is unfit for human habitation for the purposes of this Act, regard shall be had to its condition in respect of the following matters, that is to say—

(a) repair;

(b) stability;

(c) freedom from damp;

(d) natural light and air;

(e) water supply;

(f) drainage and sanitary conveniences;

(g) facilities for storage, preparation and cooking of food and for the disposal of waste water; and the building shall be deemed to be unfit as aforesaid if and only if it is so far defective in one or more of the said matters that it is not reasonably suitable for occupation in that condition.

CHAPTER III

Slum Improvement

Power of competent authority to require improvement of buildings unfit for human habitation

4. (1) Where the competent authority upon report from any of its officers or other information in its possession is satisfied that any building in a slum area is in any respect unfit for human habitation, it may, unless in its opinion the building is not capable at a reasonable expense of being rendered so fit, serve upon the owner of the building a notice requiring him within such time not being less than thirty days as may be specified in the notice to execute the works of improvement specified therein and stating that in the opinion of the authority those works will render the building fit for human habitation.

(2) In addition to serving a notice under this section on the owner, the competent authority may serve a copy of the notice on any other person having an interest in the building whether as lessee, mortgagee or otherwise.

(3) In determining, for the purposes of this Act, whether a building can be rendered fit for human habitation at a reasonable expense, regard shall be had to the estimated cost of the works necessary to render it so fit and the value which it is estimated that the building will have when the works are completed.

Enforcement of notice requiring execution of works of improvement.

5. (1) If a notice under section 4 requiring the owner of the building to execute works of improvement is not complied with, then, after the expiration of the time specified in the notice the competent authority may itself do the works required to be done by the notice.

(2) All expenses incurred by the competent authority under this section, together with interest, at such rate as the Central Government may by order fix, from the date when a demand for the expenses is made until payment, may be recovered by the competent authority from the owner of the building as arrears of land revenue:

Provided that if the owner proves that he—

(a) is receiving the rent merely as agent or trustee for some other person; and

(b) has not in his hands on behalf of that other person sufficient money to satisfy the whole demand of the authority, his liability shall be limited to the total amount of the money which he has in his hands as aforesaid.

(3) If the owner of the building is different from the person who owns the land on which the building stands and the expenses incurred by the competent authority under this section are recoverable from both these persons, then, such expenses shall be recovered from them in such proportion as may be determined by the competent authority or by an officer empowerd by it in this behalf.

Expenses of maintenance of works of improvement, etc., to be recoverable from the occupiers of buildings.

6. Where works of improvement have been executed in relation to any building in a slum area in pursuance of the provisions of sections 4 and 5, the expenses incurred by the competent authority or, as the case may be, any local authority in connection with the maintenance of such works of improvement or the enjoyment of amenities and conveniences rendered possible by such works shall be recoverable from the occupier or occupiers of the building as arrears of land revenue.

Power of competent authority to order demolition of buildings unfit for human habitation.

7. (1) Where a competent authority upon a report from any of its officers or other information in its possession is satisfied that any building within a slum area is unfit for human habitation and is not capable at a reasonable expense of being rendered so fit, it shall serve upon the owner of the building, and upon any other person having an interest in the building, whether as lessee, mortgagee or otherwise, a notice to show cause within such time as may be specified in the notice as to why an order of demolition of the building should not be made.

(2) If any of the persons upon whom a notice has been served under sub-section (1), appears in pursuance thereof before the competent authority and gives an undertaking to the authority that such person shall within a period specified by the authority execute such works of improvement in relation to the building as will in the opinion of the authority render the building fit for human habitation, or that it shall not be used for human habitation until the authority on being satisfied that it has been rendered fit for that purpose cancels the undertaking, the authority shall not make any order of demolition of the building.

(3) If no such undertaking as is mentioned in sub-section (2) is given, or if in a case where any such undertaking has been given any work of improvement to which the undertaking relates is not carried out within the specified period, or the building is at any time used in contravention of the terms of the undertaking, the competent authority shall forthwith make an order of demolition of the building requiring that the building shall be vacated within a period to be specified in the order not being less than thirty days from the date of the order, and that it shall be demolished within six weeks after the expiration of that period.

Procedure to be followed where demolition order has been made.

8. (1) Where an order for demolition of a building under section 7 has been made the owner of the building or any other person having an interest therein shall demolish that building within the time specified in that behalf by the order; and if the building is not demolished within that time the competent authority shall enter and demolish the building and sell the materials thereof.

(2) Any expenses incurred by the competent authority under sub-section (1), if not satisfied out of the proceeds of sale of materials of the building shall be recoverable from the owner of the building or any other person having an interest therein as arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER IV

SLUM CLEARANCE AND RE-DEVELOPMENT

Power to declare any slum area to be a clearance area.

9. (1) Where the competent authority upon a report from any of its officers or other information in its possession is satisfied as respects any slum area that the most satisfactory method of dealing with the conditions in the area is the demolition of all the buildings in the area, the authority shall by an order notified in the Official Gazette declare the area to be a clearance area, that is to say, an area to be cleared of all buildings in accordance with the provisions of this Act:

Provided that any building in the area which is not unfit for human habitation or dangerous or injurious to health may be excluded from the declaration if the authority considers it necessary.

(2) The competent authority shall forthwith transmit to the Administrator a copy of the declaration under this section together with a statement of the number of persons who on a date specified in the statement were occupying buildings comprised in the clearance area.

Slum clearance order.

10. (1) As soon as may be after the competent authority has declared any slum area to be a clearance area, it shall make a slum clearance order in relation to that area ordering the demolition of each of the buildings specified therein and requiring each such building to be vacated within such time as may be specified in the order and submit the order to the Administrator for confirmation.

(2) The Administrator may either confirm the order in toto or subject to such variations as he considers necessary or reject the order.

(3) If the Administrator confirms the order, the order shall become operative from the date of such confirmation.

(4) When a slum clearance order has become operative, the owners of buildings to which the order applies shall demolish the buildings before the expiration of six weeks from the date on which the buildings are required by the order to be vacated or before the expiration of such longer period as in the circumstances of the case the competent authority may deem reasonable.

(5) If the buildings are not demolished before the expiration of the period mentioned in sub-section (4), the competent authority shall enter and demolish the buildings and sell the materials thereof.

(6) Any expenses incurred by the competent authority in demolishing any building shall, if not satisfied out of the proceeds of sale of materials thereof, be recoverable by the competent authority as arrears of land revenue.

(7) Where a slum clearance order has become operative, no land to which the order applies shall be re-developed except in accordance with plans approved by the competent authority and except subject to such restrictions and conditions, if any, as the competent authority may think fit to impose:

Provided that an owner who is aggrieved by a restriction or condition so imposed on the user of his land or by a subsequent refusal of the competent authority to cancel or modify any such restriction or condition may at any time appeal to the Administrator and the Administrator shall make such order in the matter as he thinks proper and his decision shall be final.

(8) No person shall commence or cause to be commenced any work in contravention of a plan approved or a restriction or condition imposed under sub-secton (7).

Power of competent authority to re-develop clearance area or any part thereof.

11. Where land has been cleared of buildings in accordance with a slum clearance order, the competent authority may, at any time after the expiration of twelve months from the date on which the order became operative, by order determine to re-develop any land which on the date of the making of the order has not been, or is not in the process of being, re-developed by the owner thereof in accordance with plans approved by the authority and any restrictions and conditions imposed under sub-section (7) of section 10.

CHAPTER V

Acquisition of Land

Power of Central Government to acquire land.

12. (1) Where on any representation from the competent authority it appears to the Central Government that, in order to enable the authority to execute any work of improvement in relation to any building in a slum area or to re-develop any clearance area, it is necessary that land within, adjoining or surrounded by any such area should be acquired, the Central Government may acquire the land by publishing in the Official Gazette a notice to the effect that the Central Government has decided to acquire the land in pursuance of this section:

Provided that, before publishing such notice, the Central Government may call upon the owner of, or any other person who, in the opinion of the Central Government, may be interested in, such land to show cause why it should not be acquired, and after considering the cause, if any, shown by the owner or any other person interested in the land, the Central Government may pass such order as it deems fit.

(2) When a notice as aforesaid is published in the Official Gazette, the land shall, on and from the date on which the notice is so published, vest absolutely in the Central Government free from all encumbrances.

Land acquired by Central Government to be made available to the competent authority.

13. Where any land in a slum area or clearance area has been acquired under this Act the Central Covernment shall make the land available to the competent authority for the purpose of executing any work of improvement or carrying out any order of demolition or for the purpose of re-development.

Right to receive compensation.

14. Every person having any interest in any land acquired under this Act shall be entitled to receive from the Central Government compensation as provided hereafter in this Act.

Basis for determination of compensation.

15. (1) The amount payable as compensation in respect of any land acquired under this Act shall be an amount equal to sixty times the net average monthly income actually derived from such land during the period of five consecutive years immediately preceding the date of publication of the notice referred to in section 12.

(2) The net average monthly income referred to in sub-section (1) shall be calculated in the manner and in accordance with the principles set out in the Schedule.

(3) The competent authority shall, after holding an inquiry in the prescribed manner, determine in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) the net average monthly income actually derived from the land and publish a notice in the Official Gazette specifying the amount so determined and calling upon the owner of the land and every person interested therein to intimate to it before a date specified in the notice whether such owner or person agrees to the amount so determined and if he does not so agree, what amount he claims to be the net average monthly income actually derived from the land.

(4) Any person who does not agree to the amount of the net average monthly income determined by the competent authority under sub-section (3) and claims a sum in excess of that amount may prefer an appeal to the Administrator within thirty days from the date specified in the notice referred to in that sub-seciton.

(5) On appeal the Administrator shall, after hearing the appellant, determine the net average monthly income and his determination shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court of law.

(6) Where there is any building on the land in respect of which the net average monthly income has been determined, no separate compensation shall be paid in respect of such building:

Provided that where the owner of the land and the owner of the building on such land are different, the competent authority shall apportion the amount of compensation between the owner of the land and the owner of the building in such proportion as he considers reasonable:

Provided further that the compensation in respect of the building shall not in any case exceed fifty per cent. of the total amount of compensation which has been determined in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Apportionment of compensation.

16. (1) Where several persons claim to be interested in the amount of compensation determined under section 15, the competent authority shall determine the persons who in its opinion are entitled to receive compensation and the amount payable to each of them.

(2) If any dispute arises as to the apportionment of compensation or any part thereof, or as to the persons to whom the same or any part thereof is payable, the competent authority may refer the dispute to the decision of the Administrator; and the Administrator in deciding any such dispute shall follow, as far as may be, the provisions of Part III of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

1 of 1894.

17. (1) After the amount of compensation has been determined, the competent authority shall on behalf of the Central Government tender payment of, and pay the compensation to the persons entitled thereto. Payment of compensation or deposit of the same in court.

(2) If the persons entitled to compensation do not consent to receive it, or if there be any dispute as to the title to receive compensation or as to the apportionment of it, the competent authority shall deposit the amount of the compensation in the court of the District Judge and that court shall deal with the amount so deposited in the manner laid down in sections 32 and 33 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

18. (1) The competent authority may, for the purposes of determining the amount of compensation or apportionment thereof, require, by order, any person to furnish such information in his possession as may be specified in the order. Powers of competent authority in relation to determination of compensation, etc.

(2) The competent authority shall, while holding inquiry under section 15, have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely:—

5 of 1908.

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;

(c) reception of evidence on affidavits;

(d) requisitioning any public record from any court or office;

(e) issuing commissions for examination of witnesses.

CHAPTER VI

Protection of tenants in slum areas from eviction

19. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, no person who has obtained any decree or order for the eviction of a tenant from any building in a slum area shall be entitled to execute such decree or order except with the previous permission in writing of the competent authority. Tenants in slum areas not to be evicted without permission of the competent authority.

(2) Every person desiring to obtain the permission referred to in sub-section (1) shall make an application in writing to the competent authority in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of such application the competent authority, after giving an opportunity to the tenant of being heard and after making such summary inquiry into the circumstances of the case as it thinks fit, shall by order in writing either grant such permission or refuse to grant such permission.

(4) Where the competent authority refuses to grant the permission it shall record a brief statement of the reasons for such refusal and furnish a copy thereof to the applicant.

20. Any person aggrieved by an order of the competent authority refusing to grant the permission referred to in sub-section (1) of section 19 may, within such times as may be prescribed, prefer an appeal to the Administrator and the decision of the Administrator on such appeal shall be final. Appeals.

Chapter not to apply to eviction of tenants from certain buildings.

21. Nothing in this Chapter shall apply to or in relation to the execution of any decree or order under any law for the eviction of a tenant from any building in a slum area belonging to the Government, the Delhi Improvement Trust or any local authority.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Power of entry.

22. It shall be lawful for any person authorised by the competent authority in this behalf to enter into or upon any building or land in a slum area with or without assistants or workmen in order to make any inquiry, inspection, measurement, valuation or survey, or to execute any work which is authorised by or under this Act or which it is necessary to execute for any of the purposes or in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule or order made thereunder.

Powers of inspection.

23. (1) The competent authority may, by general or special order, authorise any person—

(a) to inspect any drain, latrine, urinal, cesspool, pipe, sewer or channel in or on any building or land in a slum area, and in his discretion to cause the ground to be opened for the purpose of presenting or removing any nuisance arising from the drain, latrine, urinal, cesspool, pipe, sewer or channel, as the case may be;

(b) to examine works under construction in the slum area, to take levels or to remove, test, examine, replace or read any meter.

(2) If, on such inspection, the opening of the ground is found to be necessary for the prevention or removal of a nuisance, the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner or occupier of the land or building, but if it is found that no nuisance exists or but for such opening would have arisen, the ground or portion of any building, drain, or other work opened, injured or removed for the purpose of such inspection shall be filled in, reinstated, or made good, as the case may be, by the competent authority.

Power to enter land adjoining land where work is in progress.

24. (1) Any person authorised by the competent authority in this behalf may, with or without assistants or workmen, enter on any land within fifty yards of any work authorised by or under this Act for the purpose of depositing thereon any soil, gravel, stone or other materials, or for obtaining access to such work or for any other purposes connected with the carrying on of the same.

(2) The person so authorised shall, before entering on any land under sub-section (1), state the purpose thereof, and shall, if so required by the occupier, or owner, fence off so much of the land as may be required for such purpose.

(3) The person so authorised shall, in exercising any power conferred by this section, do as little damage, as may be, and compensation shall be payable by the competent authority to the owner or occupier of such land or to both for any such damage whether permanent or temporary.

Breaking into buildings.

25. It shall be lawful for any person authorised by the competent authority in this behalf to make any entry into any place, to open or cause to be opened any door, gate or other barrier—

(a) if he considers the opening thereof necessary for the purpose of such entry; and

(b) if the owner or occupier is absent, or being present refuses to open such door, gate or barrier.

26. No entry authorised by or under this Act shall be made except between the hours of sunrise and sunset. Entry to be made in the day time.

27. No building or land shall be entered without the consent of the occupier, or if there is no occupier, of the owner thereof, and no such entry shall be made without giving the said occupier or owner, as the case may be, not less than twenty-four hours' written notice of the intention to make such entry: Owner's consent ordinarily to be obtained.

Provided that no such notice shall be necessary if the place to be inspected is a shed for cattle or a latrine, urinal or a work under construction.

28. Where the competent authority is satisfied either upon a representation from the owner of a building or upon other information in its possession that the occupants of the building have not vacated it in pursuance of any notice, order or direction issued or given by the authority, the authority shall by order, direct the eviction of the occupants from the building in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the order: Power of eviction to be exercised only by the competent authority.

Provided that before making any order under this section the competent authority shall give a reasonable opportunity to the occupants of the building to show cause why they should not be evicted therefrom.

29. The competent authority may, by order in writing, direct any person carrying on any dangerous or offensive trade in a slum area to remove the trade from that area within such time as may be specified in the order: Power to remove offensive or dangerous trades from slum areas

Provided that no order under this section shall be made unless the person carrying on the trade has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of showing cause as to why the order should not be made.

30. (1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, any person aggrieved by any notice, order or direction issued or given by the competent authority may appeal to the Administrator within a period of thirty days from the date of issue of such notice, order or direction. Appeals.

(2) Every appeal under this Act shall be made by petition in writing accompanied by a copy of the notice, order or direction appealed against.

(3) On the admission of an appeal, all proceedings to enforce the notice, order or direction and all prosecutions for any contravention thereof shall be held in abeyance pending the decision of the appeal, and if the notice, order or direction is set aside on appeal, disobedience thereto shall not be deemed to be an offence.

(4) No appeal shall be decided under this section unless the appellant has been heard or has had a reasonable opportunity of being heard in person or through a legal practitioner.

(5) The decision of the Administrator on appeal shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

31. (1) Every notice, order or direction issued under this Act shall, save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, be served— Service of notices, etc.

(a) by giving or tendering the notice, order or direction, or by sending it by post to the person for whom it is intended; or

(b) if such person cannot be found, by affixing the notice, order or direction on some conspicuous part of his last known place of abode or business, or by giving or tendering the notice, order or direction to some adult male member or servant of his family or by causing it to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land, if any, which it relates.

(2) Where the person on whom a notice, order or direction is to be served is a minor, service upon his guardian or upon any adult male member or servant of his family shall be deemed to be the service upon the minor.

(3) Every notice, order or direction which by or under this Act is to be served as a public notice, order or direction or as a notice, order or direction which is not required to be served to any individual therein specified shall, save as otherwise expressly provided, be deemed to be sufficiently served if a copy thereof is affixed in such conspicuous part of the office of the competent authority or in such other public place during such period, or is published in such local newspaper or in such other manner, as the competent authority may direct.

Penalties.

32. (1) Whoever does any act in contravention of any notice, order or direction issued or given under this Act shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) Whoever commences or causes to be commenced any work in contravention of any restriction or condition imposed under sub-section (7) of section 10 or any plan for the re-development of a clearance area shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(3) Whoever obstructs the entry of any person authorised under this Act to enter into or upon any building or land or molests such person after such entry shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

(4) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, every person who at the time the offence was committted was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director or manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section—

(a) "company" means a body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

Order of demolition of buildings in certain cases.

33. Where the erection of any building has been commenced, or is being carried out, or has been completed, in contravention of any restriction or condition imposed under sub-section (7) of section 10 or a plan for the re-development of any clearance area or in contravention of any notice, order or direction issued or given under this Act the competent authority may, in addition to any other remedy that may be resorted to under this Act or under any other law, make an order directing that such erection shall be demolished by the owner thereof within such time not exceeding two months as may be specified in the order, and on the failure of the owner to comply with the order, the competent authority may itself cause the erection to be demolished and the expenses of such demolition shall be recoverable from the owner as arrears of land revenue:

Provided that no such order shall be unless the owner has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

34. No court inferior to that of a magistrate of the first class shall try an offence punishable under this Act. Jurisdiction of courts.

35. No prosecution for any offence punishable under this Act shall be instituted except with the previous sanction of the competent authority or an officer authorised by the competent authority in this behalf. Previous sanction of the competent authority or officer authorised by it for prosecution.

36. The competent authority may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any power exercisable by it under this Act may also be exercised, in such cases and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the notification, by such officer or the local authority as may be mentioned therein. Power to delegate.

37. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the competent authority or against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or the rules made thereunder. Protection of action taken in good faith.

38. The competent authority and any person authorised by him under this Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code. Competent authority, etc., to be public servants.

45 of 1860.

39. The provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law. Act to override other laws.

40. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act. Power to make rules.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the manner of authentication of notices, orders and other instruments of the competent authority;

(b) the preparation of plans for the re-development of any slum area, and matters to be included in such plans;

(c) the form and manner in which applications for permission under sub-section (2) of section 19 shall be made and the fees to be levied in respect of such applications;

(d) the procedure to be followed by the competent authority before granting or refusing to grant permission under section 19;

(e) the time within which an appeal may be preferred under section 20;

(f) the officers and local authorities to whom powers may be delegated under section 36; and

(g) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be laid for not less than thirty days before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after they are made, and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

THE SCHEDULE

(See section 15)

PRINCIPLES FOR DETERMINATION OF THE NET AVERAGE MONTHLY INCOME

1. The competent authority shall first determine the gross rent actually derived by the owner of the land acquired including any building on such land during the period of five consecutive years referred to in sub-section (1) of section 15.

2. For such determination the competent authority may hold any local inquiry and obtain, if necessary, certified copies of extracts from the property tax assessment books of the municipal or other local authority concerned showing the rental value of such land.

3. The net average monthly income referred to in sub-section (1) of section 15 shall be sixty per cent. of the average monthly gross rent which shall be one sixtieth of the gross rent during the five consecutive years as determined by the competent authority under paragraph 1

4. Forty per cent. of the gross monthly rental referred to above shall not be taken into consideration in determining the net average monthly income but shall be deducted in lieu of the expenditure which the owner of the land would normally incur for payment of any property tax to the municipal or other local authority, for collection charges, income-tax or bad debts as well as for works of repair and maintenance of the buildings, if any, on the land.

5. Where the land or any portion thereof has been unoccupied or the owner has not been in receipt of any rent for the occupation of the land during the whole or any part of the said period of five years, the gross rent shall be taken to be the income which the owner would in fact have derived if the land had been leased out for rent during the said period, and for this purpose the rent actually derived from the land during a period prior or subsequent to the period during which it remained vacant or from similar land in the vicinity shall be taken into account.

K. V. K. SUNDARAM, Secy.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

Ministry of Law

Legislative Department

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 30th December, 1956, and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. C. I, of 1956

THE ELECTRICITY (SUPPLY) AMENDMENT Act, 1956

[30th December, 1956.]

An Act further to amend the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Electricity (Supply) Amendment Act, 1956.

(2) The provisions of this Act except the provisions of sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of section 27 and clauses (c) to (l) of that section shall come into force at once; the provisions of sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of section 27 and clauses (c) to (l) of that section shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 1.

54 of 1948.

2. In section 1 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), for sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(3) This section and sections 2, 3, 4, 57, 57A, 57B, 58, 76, 77, 77A, 77B, 77C, 82 and 83 and the provisions of the Sixth and the Seventh Schedules shall come into force at once.".

Amendment of section 2.

3. In section 2 of the principal Act, for clause (8), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(8) 'maximum demand' in relation to any period shall, unless otherwise provided in any general or special order of the State Government, mean twice the largest number of kilowatt-hours or kilo-volt-ampere-hours supplied and taken during any consecutive thirty minutes in that period.".

Amendment of section 5.

4. In section 5 of the principal Act, for sub-section (4), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(4) Of the members—

(a) one shall be a person who has experience of, and has shown capacity in, commercial matters and administration;

(b) one shall be an electrical engineer with wide experience; and

(c) one shall be a person who has experience of accounting and financial matters in a public utility undertaking, preferably an electricity supply undertaking.".

Amendment of section 10.

5. Section 10 of the principal Act shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) thereof, and—

(a) in sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, for clause (e), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(e) in the opinion of the State Government—

(i) has refused to act; or

(ii) has become incapable of acting; or

(iii) has so abused his position as a member as to render his continuance on the Board detrimental to the interests of the general public; or

(iv) is otherwise unfit to continue as a member; or";

(b) after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2) The State Government may suspend any member pending an inquiry against him.

(3) No order of removal shall be made under this section unless the member concerned has been given an opportunity to submit his explanation to the State Government, and when such order is passed, the seat of the member removed shall become vacant and another member may be appointed under section 5 to fill up the vacancy.

(4) A member who has been removed shall not be eligible for re-appointment as member or in any other capacity to the Board.

(5) If the Board fails to carry out its functions, or refuses or fails to follow the directions issued by the State Government under this Act, the State Government may remove the Chairman and the members of the Board and appoint a Chairman and members in their places."

Insertion of new section 10A.

6. After section 10 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Power of State Government to declare certain transactions void.

"10A. (1) The State Government may declare void any transaction in connection with which a member has been removed under sub-clause (iii) of clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 10 after considering the report on the facts of the case made to it by a District Judge nominated by it in this behalf.

(2) A District Judge nominated under sub-section (1) shall, before making his report under that sub-section to the State Government in relation to any transaction, give all parties interested in the transaction a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Where a transaction is declared void under this section it shall not be enforceable by any party to the transaction but the provisions of section 65 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, shall, so far as may be, apply to such transaction as they apply to an agreement which is discovered to be void or a contract which becomes void. 9 of 1872.

(4) The decision of the State Government declaring any transaction void under this section shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court."

Amendment of section 15.

7. To section 15 of the principal Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that the appointment of the Secretary shall be subject to the approval of the State Government.".

Amendment of section 16.

8. In section 16 of the principal Act,—

(a) for the words 'State Electricity Council' whereever they occur, the words 'State Electricity Consultative Council' shall be substituted;

(2) in sub-section (2), for the words "and labour employed in the electricity supply industry", the words "labour employed in the electricity supply industry and consumers of electricity" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 23.

9. In section 23 of the pricipal Act, in sub-section (2), the words "on terms similar to the terms offered by the Board" shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 26.

10. In section 26 of the pricipal Act,—

(a) in the proviso, for the words and figures "Clauses I to XII", the words and figures "Clauses I to V, Clause VI and Clauses IX to XII" shall be substituted;

(b) after the existing proviso, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

'Provided further that the provisions of Clause VI of the Schedule to that Act shall apply to the Board in respect of that area only where distribution mains have been laid by the Board and the supply of energy through any of them has commenced.".

Amendment of section 28.

11. In section 28 of the principal Act, in the existing proviso, after the word "provided", the word "further" shall be inserted and before the said proviso, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:

(b) in the case of a licence granted after the commencement of this Act, from the date of the commencement of supply, and as from the said date, the licensee shall comply with the provisions of the said Schedules accordingly, and any provisions of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, and the licence granted to him thereunder and of any other law, agreement or instrument applicable to the licensee shall, in relation to the licensee be void and of no effect in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of section 57A and the said Schedules. 9 of 1910.

Rating committees.

57A. (1) Where the provisions of the Sixth Schedule and the Seventh Schedule are under section 57 deemed to be incorporated in the licence of any licensee, the following provisions shall have effect in relation to the said licensee, namely:—

(a) the Board or where no Board is constituted under this Act, the State Government—

(i) may, if satisfied that the licensee has failed to comply with any of the provisions of the Sixth Schedule; and

(ii) shall, when so requested by the licensee in writing, constitute a rating committee to examine the licensee's charges for the supply of electricity and to make recommendations in that behalf to the State Government:

Provided that where it is proposed to constitute a rating committee under this section on account of the failure of the licensee to comply with any provisions of the Sixth Schedule, such committee shall not be constituted unless the licensee has been given a notice in writing of thirty clear days (which period, if the circumstances so warrant may be extended from time to time) to show cause against the action proposed to be taken:

Provided further that no such rating committee shall be constituted if the alleged failure of the licensee to comply with any provisions of the Sixth Schedule raises any dispute or difference as to the interpretation of the said provisions or any matter arising therefrom and such difference or dispute has been referred by the licensee to the arbitration of the Authority under paragraph XVI of that Schedule before the notice referred to in the preceding proviso was given or is so referred within the period of the said notice:

Provided further that no rating committee shall be constituted in respect of a licensee within three years from the date on which such a committee has reported in respect of that lincensee, unless the State Government declares that in its opinion circumstances have arisen rendering the orders passed on the recommendations of the previous rating committee unfair to the licensee or any of his consumers;

(b) a rating committee under clause (a) shall,—

(i) where such committee is to be constituted under sub-clause (i) of that clause, be constituted not later than three months after the expiry of the notice referred to in the first proviso to that clause;

(ii) where such committee is to be constituted at the request of the licensee, be constituted within three months of the date of such request;

(c) a rating committee shall, after giving the licensee a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after taking into consideration the efficiency of operation and management and the potentialities of his undertaking, report to the State Government within three months from the date of its constitution making recommendations with reasons therefor, regarding the charges for electricity which the licensee may make to any class or classes of consumers so, however, that the recommendations are not likely to prevent the licensee from earning clear profit sufficient when taken with the sums available in the Tariffs and Dividends Control Reserve to afford him a reasonable return as defined in the Sixth Schedule during his next succeeding three years of account:

Provided that the State Covernment may, if it so deems necessary, extend the said period of three months by a further period not exceeding three months within which the report of the rating committee may be submitted to it;

(d) within one month after the receipt of the report under clause (c), the State Government shall cause the report to be published in the Official Gazettee, and may at the same time make an order in accordance therewith fixing the lincensee's charges for the supply of electricity with effect from such date, not earlier than two months or later than three months, after the date of publication of the report as may be specified in the order and the licensee shall forthwith give effect to such order;

(e) the charges for the supply of electricity fixed under clause (d) shall be in operation for such period not exceeding three years as the State Government may specify in the order:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall be deemed to prevent a licensee from reducing at any time any charges so fixed.

(3) Where no Board is constituted under this Act, the rating committee shall consist of five members of whom three members shall be nominated by the State Government, one member shall be nominated by the licensee and one member shall be nominated by the association referred to in sub-section (2) or if there is no such association, by such Chamber of Commerce or similar body as the State Government may direct.

(4) Of the three members to be nominated by the State Government under sub-section (3), one shall be a person who is or has been a judicial officer not below the rank of a District Judge, one shall be a registered accountant within the meaning of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949, having at least ten years' experience and one shall be a person with administrative experience. 38 of 1949.

(5) The judicial member of a rating committee shall be its chairman.

(6) A rating committee may act notwithstanding that one of its members is absent.

(7) The expenditure incurred in connection with a rating committee as certified by it shall be payable,—

(a) where the rating committee was constituted at the request of a licensee, or where the rating committee has held that the licensee has failed to comply with any of the provisions of the Sixth Schedule, by the licensee from that part of the clear profit to which the licensee is entitled under that Schedule;

(b) in any other case, by the Board or the State Government, as the case may be.

(8) Where a licensee makes default in paying any amount which he is liable to pay under sub-section (7), such amount may, on application to a civil court having jurisdiction, be recovered from the licensee by the distress and sale of any movable property of the licensee.

Power of rating committee to call for information, etc.

57B. A rating committee constituted under section 57A may, for the purpose of discharging its functions, by notice in writing, require the licensee to give such information, or to furnish such accounts and other documents in his possession or power, as may be specified in the notice.".

THE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION ACT, 1961

[7th December, 1961.]

An Act to provide for the establishment of a corporation for the purpose of insurance of deposits and for other matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twelfth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "banking" means the accepting, for the purpose of lending or investment, of deposits of money from the public, repayable on demand or otherwise, and withdrawable by cheque, draft, order or otherwise;

(b) "banking company" means any company which transacts the business of banking in India and includes the State Bank, a subsidiary bank and any other banking institution notified under section 51 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, but does not include the Madras Industrial Investment Corporation Limited;

10 of 1949.

Explanation.—Any company which is engaged in the manufacture of goods or carries on any trade and which accepts deposits of money from the public merely for the purpose of financing its business as such manufacturer or trader shall not be deemed to transact the business of banking within the meaning of this clause;

(c) "Board" means the Board of directors constituted under section 6;

(d) "company" means any company as defined in section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956, and includes a foreign company within the meaning of section 591 of that Act;

1 of 1956

(e) "Corporation" means the Deposit Insurance Corporation established under section 3;

(f) "defunct banking company" means a banking company—

(i) which has been prohibited from receiving fresh deposits; or

(ii) which has been ordered to be wound up; or

(iii) which has transferred all its deposit liabilities in India to any other institution; or

(iv) which has ceased to be a banking company within the meaning of sub-section (2) of section 36A of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, or has converted itself into a non-banking company; or

10 of 1949.

(v) in respect of which a liquidator has been appointed in pursuance of a resolution for the voluntary winding up of its affairs; or

(vi) in respect of which any scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction has been sanctioned by any competent authority and the said scheme does not permit the acceptance of fresh deposits; or

(vii) which has been granted a moratorium which is in operation; or

(viii) in respect of which an application for the winding up of its affairs is pending in a competent court;

(g) "deposit" means the aggregate of the unpaid balances due to a depositor (other than a foreign Government, the Central Government, a State Government or a banking company) in respect of all his accounts, by whatever name called, with a banking company and includes credit balances in any cash credit account but does not include,—

(i) where a banking company at the commencement of this Act is working under a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction sanctioned any competent authority providing for the acceptance of fresh deposits, any amount due to the depositor in respect of his deposit before the date of the coming into force of the scheme to the extent it is not credited after the said date under the provisions of that scheme; or

(ii) any amount due on account of any deposit received outside India;

(h) "existing banking company" means a banking company carrying on the business of banking at the commencement of this Act which either holds a licence at such commencement under section 22 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 or having applied for such licence has not been informed by notice in writing by the Reserve Bank that a licence cannot be granted to it and includes the State Bank and a subsidiary bank, but does not include a defunct banking company; 10 of 1949.

(i) "insured bank" means a banking company for the time being registered under the provisions of this Act and includes for the purposes of sections 16, 17, 18 and 21 a banking company referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) of section 13 the registration whereof has been cancelled under that section;

(j) "insured deposit" means the deposit or any portion thereof the repayment whereof is insured by the Corporation under the provisions of this Act;

(k) "new banking company" means a banking company which begins to transact the business of banking after the commencement of this Act under a licence granted to it under section 22 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, and includes any banking institution notified under section 51 of the said Act after such commencement; 10 of 1949.

(l) "premium", means the sum payable by an insured bank under section 15 of this Act;

(m) "prescribed" means prescribed by regulations made under this Act;

(n) "Reserve Bank" means the Reserve Bank of India constituted under the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934; 2 of 1934.

(o) "State Bank" means the State Bank of India constituted under the State Bank of India Act, 1955; 23 of 1955.

(p) "subsidiary bank" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 2 of the State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959. 38 of 1959.

CHAPTER II

ESTABLISHMENT AND MANAGEMENT OF THE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Establishment and incorporation of Deposit Insurance Corporation.

3. (1) The Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, establish a Corporation by the name of the Deposit Insurance Corporation which shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal with power, subject to the provisions of this Act to acquire, hold or dispose of property and to contract, and may, by the said name, sue or be sued.

(2) The head office of the Corporation shall be at Bombay, but it may, with the previous sanction of the Reserve Bank, establish branches or agencies in any other place in India.

Capital of Corporation.

4. The authorised capital of the Corporation shall be one crore of rupees, which shall be fully paid-up and shall stand allotted to the Reserve Bank.

Management of Corporation.

5. The general superintendence, direction and the management of the affairs and business of the Corporation shall vest in a Board of directors which may exercise all powers and do all acts and things which may be exercised or done by the Corporation.

Board of directors.

6. (1) The Board of directors of the Corporation shall consist of the following, namely:—

(a) the Governor for the time being of the Reserve Bank, who shall be the Chairman of the Board;

(b) a Deputy Governor of the Reserve Bank nominated by that bank;

(c) an officer of the Central Government nominated by that Government;

(d) two directors nominated by the Central Government in consultation with the Reserve Bank having special knowledge of commercial banking or of commerce, industry or finance, neither of whom shall be an officer of Government or of the Reserve Bank or an officer or other employee of the Corporation or a director, an officer or other employee of a banking company or otherwise actively connected with a banking company.

(2) A director nominated under clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) shall hold office during the pleasure of the authority nominating him and a director nominated under clause (d) of sub-section (1) shall hold office for such period not exceeding four years as may be specified by the Central Government.

(3) A person shall not be capable of being nominated as a director under clause (d) of sub-section (1) if—

(a) he has been removed or dismissed from the service of Government or of a local authority or of a corporation or company in which not less than fifty-one per cent. of the paid-up share capital is held by Government; or

(b) he is or at any time has been adjudicated as insolvent or has suspended payment of his debts or has compounded with his creditors; or

(c) he is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court; or

(d) he has been convicted of any offence which, in the opinion of the Central Government, involves moral turpitude.

(4) If a director nominated under clause (d) of sub-section (1)—

(a) becomes subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in clauses (a) to (d) of sub-section (3); or

(b) is absent without leave of the Board for more than three consecutive meetings thereof; or

(c) becomes a director or an officer or an employee of an insured bank or is, in the opinion of the Central Government, otherwise actively connected with such bank; or

(d) becomes an officer or other employee of Government or of the Reserve Bank or of the Corporation;

his seat shall thereupon become vacant.

Meetings of Board.

7. (1) The Board shall meet at such times and places and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings as may be prescribed.

(2) The Chairman or, if for any reason he is unable to attend, the director nominated under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 6 shall preside at meetings of the Board and, in the event of equality of votes, shall have a second or casting vote.

Committees of Corporation.

8. (1) The Board may constitute an Executive Committee consisting of such number of directors as may be prescribed.

(2) The Executive Committee shall discharge such functions as may be prescribed or may be delegated to it by the Board.

(3) The Board may constitute such other committees, whether consisting wholly of directors or wholly of other persons or partly of directors and partly of other persons as it thinks fit for the purpose of discharging such of its functions as may be prescribed or may be delegated to them by the Board.

(4) A committee constituted under this section shall meet at such times and places and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings as may be prescribed.

(5) The members of a committee (other than directors of the Board) shall be paid by the Corporation such fees and allowances for attending its meetings and for attending to any other work of the Corporation as may be prescribed.

Fees and allowances of directors.

9. The directors of the Board shall be paid by the Corporation such fees and allowances for attending the meetings of the Board or of any of its committees and for attending to any other work of the Corporation as may be prescribed:

Provided that no fees shall be payable to the Chairman or to the director nominated under clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 6.

CHAPTER III

REGISTRATION OF BANKING COMPANIES AS INSURED BANKS AND LIABILITY OF CORPORATION TO DEPOSITORS

Registration of existing banking companies.

10. The Corporation shall register every existing banking company as an insured bank before the expiry of thirty days from the date of commencement of this Act.

Registration of new banking companies.

11. The Corporation shall register every new banking company as an insured bank as soon as may be after it is granted a licence under section 22 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, or, as the case may be, after it is notified under section 51 of the said Act. 10 of 1949.

Registration of defunct banking companies.

12. Every banking company, being a defunct banking company at the commencement of this Act, by reason of sub-clause (vii) or sub-clause (viii) of clause (f) of section 2 shall, unless it becomes a defunct banking company under any other sub-clause of that clause, be registered by the Corporation as an insured bank as soon as may be after the termination of the order of moratorium or, as the case may be, the rejection of the application for its winding up.

Cancellation of registration.

13. The registration of a banking company as an insured bank shall stand cancelled on the occurrence of any of the following events, namely:—

(a) if it has been prohibited from receiving fresh deposits; or

(b) if it has been informed by notice in writing by the Reserve Bank that its licence has been cancelled under section 22 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, or that a licence under that section cannot be granted to it; or

10 of 1949.

(c) if it has been ordered to be wound up; or

(d) if it has transferred all its deposit liabilities in India to any other institution; or

(e) if it has ceased to be a banking company within the meaning of sub-section (2) of section 36A of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, or has converted itself into a non-banking company; or

10 of 1949.

(f) if a liquidator has been appointed in pursuance of a resolution for the voluntary winding up of its affairs; or

(g) if in respect of it any scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction has been sanctioned by any competent authority and the said scheme does not permit the acceptance of fresh deposits; or

(h) if it has been amalgamated with any other banking institution.

Intimation of registration.

14. (1) Where the Corporation has registered any banking company as an insured bank, it shall, within thirty days of its registration, send an intimation in writing to the banking company that it has been registered as an insured bank.

(2) Every such intimation shall indicate the manner in which the premium payable by the bank under section 15 may be calculated.

Premium.

15. (1) Every insured bank shall, so long as it continues to be registered, be liable to pay a premium to the Corporation on its deposits at such rate or rates as may, with the previous approval of the Central Government, be notified by the Corporation in the Official Gazette from time to time:

Provided that the premium payable by any insured bank for any period shall not exceed fifteen naye paise per annum for every hundred rupees of the total amount of the deposits in that bank at the end of that period or, where its registration has been cancelled during that period, on the date of its cancellation:

Provided further that where the registration of any insured bank is cancelled under section 13, such cancellation shall not affect the liability of that bank for payment of premium for the period before such cancellation and of any interest due under the provisions of this section.

(2) The premium shall be payable for such periods at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) If any insured bank makes any default in payment of any amount of premium, it shall, for the period of such default, be liable to pay to the Corporation interest on such amount at such rate not exceeding eight per cent. per annum as may be prescribed.

Liability of Corporation in respect of insured deposits.

16. (1) Where an order for the winding up or liquidation of an insured bank is made, the Corporation shall, subject to the other provisions of this Act, be liable to pay to every depositor of that bank in accordance with the provisions of section 17 an amount equal to the amount due to him in respect of his deposit in that bank at the time when such order is made:

Provided that the liability of the Corporation in respect of an insured bank referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) of section 13 shall be limited to the deposits as on the date of the cancellation of the registration:

Provided further that the total amount payable by the Corporation to any one depositor in respect of his deposit in that bank in the same capacity and in the same right shall not exceed one thousand and five hundred rupees:

Provided further that the Corporation may, from time to time, having regard to its financial position and to the interests of the banking system of the country as a whole, raise, with the previous approval of the Central Government the aforesaid limit of one thousand and five hundred rupees.

(2) Where in respect of an insured bank a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction or amalgamation has been sanctioned by any competent authority and the said scheme provides for each depositor being paid or credited with, on the date on which the scheme comes into force, an amount which is less than the original amount and also the specified amount, the Corporation shall be liable to pay to every such depositor in accordance with the provisions of section 18 an amount equivalent to the difference between the amount so paid or credited and the original amount, or the difference, between the amount so paid or credited and the specified amount, whichever is less:

Provided that where any such scheme also provides that any payment made to a depositor before the coming into force of the scheme shall be reckoned towards the payment due to him under that scheme, then the scheme shall be deemed have provided for that payment being made on the date of its coming into force.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the amount of a deposit shall be determined after deducting therefrom any ascertained sum of money which the insured bank may be legally entitled to claim by way of set off against the depositor in the same capacity and in the same right.

(4) In this section—

(a) "original amount" in relation to a depositor means the total amount due by the insured bank immediately before the date of coming into force of the scheme of compromise or arrangement or, as the case may be, of reconstruction or amalgamation to the depositor in respect of his deposit in the bank in the same capacity and in the same right:

Provided that where under the proviso to sub-section (2), the scheme is deemed to have provided for any payment being made on the date of its coming into force, the amount of such payment shall be included in calculating the original amount;

(b) "special amount" means one thousand and five hundred rupees, or, as the case may be, the amount fixed by the Corporation under the third proviso to sub-section (1).

Manner of payment by Corporation in case of winding up of insured banks.

17. (1) Where an insured bank has been ordered to be wound up or to be taken into liquidation and a liquidator, by whatever name called, has been appointed in respect thereof, the liquidator shall, with the least possible delay and in any case not later than three months from the date of his assuming charge of office, furnish to the Corporation a list in such form and manner as may be specified by the Corporation showing separately the deposits in respect of each depositor and the amounts of set off referred to in sub-section (3) of section 16.

(2) Before the expiry of two months from the receipt of such list from the liquidator, the Corporation shall pay to each depositor of the insured bank in respect of his deposit the amount payable under section 16 either directly or through the liquidator or through any other agency, as the Corporation may determine.

Manner of payment by Corporation in case of scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction or amalgamation in respect of an insured bank.

18. (1) Where a scheme of amalgamation of any insured bank with any other banking institution (hereinafter referred to as the transferee bank) or a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction in respect of such bank has been sanctioned and the Corporation has become liable to pay to depositors of the insured bank under sub-section (2) of section 16, the transferee bank where the scheme is of amalgamation and the insured bank in any other case shall, with the least possible delay and in any case not later than three months from the date on which such scheme takes effect, furnish to the Corporation a list in such form and manner as may be specified by the Corporation and certified to be correct by the chief executive officer of the transferee bank or, as the case may be, of the insured bank showing separately deposits in respect of each depositor and the amounts of set off referred to in sub-section (3) of section 16 and also the amounts paid or credited or deemed to have been paid under the scheme.

(2) Before the expiry of two months from the receipt of such list, the Corporation shall pay the amount payable under section 16 either directly to the depositor or to the transferee bank or the insured bank for being credited in his account.

Discharge of the liability of Corporation.

19. Any amount paid by the Corporation under section 17 or section 18 in respect of a deposit shall, to the extent of the amount paid, discharge the Corporation from its liability in respect of that deposit.

Provision for unpaid amounts.

20. Where any depositor to whom any payment is to be made in accordance with the provisions of section 17 or section 18 cannot be found or is not readily traceable, adequate provision shall be made by the Corporation for such payment and the amount of such provision shall be accounted for separately in its books.

Repayment of the amount to Corporation

21. (1) Where any amount has been paid under section 17 or section 18 or any provision therefor has been made under section 20, the Corporation shall furnish to the liquidator or to the insured bank or to the transferee bank, as the case may be, information as regards the amount so paid or provided for.

(2) On receipt of the information under sub-section (1), notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force,—

(a) the liquidator shall, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, repay to the Corporation out of the amount, if any, payable by him in respect of any deposit such sum or sums as make up the amount paid or provided for by the Corporation in respect of that deposit;

(b) the insured bank or, as the case may be, the transferee bank shall, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, repay to the Corporation out of the amount, if any, to be paid or credited in respect of any deposit after the date of the coming into force of the scheme referred to in section 18, such sum or sums as make up the amount paid or provided for by the Corporation in respect of that deposit.

CHAPTER IV

FUNDS, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

Funds of Corporation.

22. The Corporation shall maintain two funds to be called respectively the Deposit Insurance Fund and the General Fund.

Deposit Insurance Fund.

23. (1) To the Deposit Insurance Fund shall be credited,—

(a) all amounts received by the Corporation as premium;

(b) all amounts received by the Corporation under section 21;

(c) the amount advanced by the Reserve Bank under section 26;

(d) all amounts transferred to that Fund from the General Fund under section 27; and

(e) all income arising from the investments made out of that Fund.

(2) The said Fund shall be applied—

(a) to make payments in respect of insured deposits;

(b) to meet liability in respect of an advance taken under section 26; and

(c) to meet liability in respect of the amounts referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (1).

General Fund.

24. All receipts of the Corporation other than those referred to in sub-section (1) of section 23 shall be credited to the General Fund and all payments by the Corporation other than those referred to in sub-section (2) of that section shall be made out of that Fund.

Investment.

25. All moneys belonging to the Deposit Insurance Fund or the General Fund which may not for the time being be required by the Corporation shall be invested in promissory notes stock or securities of the Central Government and all other moneys shall be deposited with the Reserve Bank.

Advances by Reserve Bank.

26. (1) The Reserve Bank shall, from time to time, advance to the Corporation on a request by it such sum or sums as may be required by the Corporation for the purposes of the Deposit Insurance Fund:

Provided that the total amount outstanding at any one time on account of such advances shall not exceed five crores of rupees.

(2) The terms and conditions of any advance under this section shall be such as may be determined by the Reserve Bank with the approval of the Central Government.

Advance from General Fund to Deposit Insurance Fund.

27. If at any time the amount available in the Deposit Insurance Fund is insufficient to meet the requirements of that Fund, the Corporation may transfer from the General Fund such amount as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the Deposit Insurance Fund on such terms and for such period as may be determined by the Board with the approval of the Reserve Bank.

Preparation of balance-sheet, etc., by Corporation.

28. (1) The balance-sheet and accounts of the Corporation shall be prepared and maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The Board shall cause the books and accounts of the Corporation to be balanced and closed as on the 31st day of December, each year.

Audit.

29. (1) The affairs of the Corporation shall be audited by an auditor duly qualified to act as an auditor under
1 of 1956. sub-section (1) of section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956, who shall be appointed by the Board with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank and shall receive such remuneration from the Corporation as the Reserve Bank may fix.

(2) The auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance-sheet of the Corporation and it shall be his duty to examine it together with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and he shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Corporation and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts and other documents of the Corporation and may, in relation to such accounts, examine any director of the Board or any officer or employee of the Corporation.

(3) The auditor shall make a report to the Corporation upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts and in every such report he shall state whether in his opinion the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of affairs of the Corporation and in case he had called for any explanation or information from the Board, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory.

(4) Without prejudice to anything contained in the preceding sub-sections, the Central Government may at any time appoint the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India to examine and report upon the accounts of the Corporation, and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such examination and report shall be payable by the Corporation to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

Income-tax and super-tax.

30. Notwithstanding anything contained in the 11 of 1922. Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 or any other enactment for the time being in force relating to income-tax or super-tax, the Corporation shall not be liable to pay income-tax or super-tax on any of its income, profits or gains for the accounting year during which the Corporation is established and for four accounting years following that year.

Reserve fund.

31. After making provision for all its liabilities and for all other matters for which provisions is necessary or expedient, including any contribution to the staff and superannuation funds, the Corporation shall transfer the balance, if any, of its income in its General Fund to one or more reserve funds to be utilised in such manner and for such purposes as the Corporation may deem fit.

Annual accounts and reports.

32. (1) The Corporation shall furnish to the Reserve Bank within three months from the date on which its accounts are balanced and closed the balance-sheet and accounts together with the auditor's report and a report of the working of the Corporation during the year and copies of the said balance-sheet and accounts and reports shall be furnished by the Corporation to the Central Government.

(2) The Central Government shall cause every auditor's report and report of the working of the Corporation to be laid for not less than thirty days before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after each such report is received by the Central Government.

CHAPTER V

MISCELLANEOUS

Staff of Corporation.

33. (1) The Corporation may appoint such number of officers and employees as it considers necessary or desirable for the efficient performance of its functions and determine the terms and conditions of their appointment and service.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the Corporation to utilise, and for the Reserve Bank to make available, the services of such staff of the Reserve Bank on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Corporation and the Reserve Bank.

Returns from insured banks.

34. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Banking Companies Act, 1949, or any other law for the time being in force the Corporation may at any time direct an insured bank to furnish to it, within such time as may be specified by the Corporation, such statements and information relating to the deposits in that bank as the Corporation may consider necessary or expedient to obtain for the purposes of this Act. 10 of 1949.

(2) The Corporation may, if it considers it expedient and after consulting the Reserve Bank, publish any information obtained by it under this section in such consolidated form as it may think fit.

Corporation to have access to records.

35. (1) The Corporation shall have free access to all such records of an insured bank perusal whereof may appear to the Corporation to be necessary for the discharge of its functions under this Act.

(2) The Corporation may require any insured bank to furnish to it copies of any of the records referred to in sub-section (1) and the bank shall be bound to comply with the requisition.

Inspection of insured banks by Reserve Bank.

36. (1) The Corporation may for any of the purposes of this Act request the Reserve Bank to cause an inspection of the books and accounts or an investigation of the affairs of an insured bank to be made and on such request the Reserve Bank shall cause such inspection or investigation to be made by one or more of its officers.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) of section 35 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 shall apply to an inspection or investigation under sub-section (1) as they apply to an inspection under that section. 10 of 1949.

(3) When an inspection or investigation has been made under this section, the Reserve Bank shall furnish a copy of its report to the Corporation and neither the bank inspected or investigated nor any other bank shall be entitled to be furnished with a copy of such report.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force no court, tribunal or other authority shall compel the production or disclosure of a report under this section or of information or material gathered during the course of an inspection or investigation under this section.

Corporation to furnish information to Reserve Bank.

37. The Corporation shall, on a request in writing from the Reserve Bank, furnish to it within such time as may be specified by the Reserve Bank, such statements and information relating to the business or affairs of the Corporation or of an insured bank as the Reserve Bank may consider necessary or expedient.

Reserve Bank to furnish information to Corporation.

38. The Reserve Bank shall, on a request in writing from the Corporation, furnish to it any report or information relating to an insured bank made or obtained by it under or in pursuance of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 or the Banking Companies Act, 1949.

2 of 1934.
10 of 1949.

Declaration of fidelity and secrecy.

39. Every director, auditor, officer or other employee of the Corporation or an employee of the Reserve Bank whose services are utilised by the Corporation under sub-section (2) of section 33 shall, before entering upon his duties, make a declaration of fidelity and secrecy in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Act.

Indemnity of directors.

40. (1) Every director of the Board shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all losses and expenses incurred by him in, or in relation to, the discharge of his duties except such as are caused by his own wilful act or default.

(2) A director of the Board shall not be responsible for any other director or for any other officer or other employee of the Corporation, or for any loss or expenses resulting to the Corporation from the insufficiency or deficiency of value of or title to any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Corporation or the insolvency or wrongful act of any debtor or any person under obligation to the Corporation or anything done in good faith in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto.

Defects in appointments not to invalidate acts, etc.

41. (1) No act or proceeding of the Board or of any committee of the Corporation shall be questioned on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy or defect in the constitution of the Board or committee.

(2) No act done by any person acting in good faith as a director of the Board shall be deemed to invalid merely on the ground that he was disqualified to be a director or that there was any other defect in his appointment.

Protection of action taken under this Act.

42. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Corporation or the Reserve Bank or any director of the Board or any officer of the Corporation or the Reserve Bank or any other person authorised by the Corporation to discharge any functions under this Act for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act.

Companies Act, 1956 and Insurance Act, 1938 not to apply.

43. Nothing in the Companies Act, 1956 or the Insurance Act, 1938, shall apply to the Corporation.

1 of 1956.
4 of 1938.

Liquidation of Corporation

44. (1) The Corporation shall not be placed in liquidation save by order of the Central Government and in such manner as that Government may direct.

(2) On the liquidation of the Corporation—

(a) the outstanding assets of the Corporation in so far as they relate to the Deposit Insurance Fund shall be distributed among the insured banks in such manner and in such proportion as may be determined by the Central Government having regard to the amounts of premium paid by them during any prescribed period or the deposits of the said banks as on the date of liquidation of the Corporation or other relevant circumstances;

(b) the remaining outstanding assets of the Corporation shall be transferred to the Reserve Bank.

Power of Central Government to give directions.

45. In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Corporation shall be guided by such directions in matters of policy involving public interest as the Central Government may after consulting the Reserve Bank give to it in writing and if any question arises whether the direction relates to a matter of policy involving public interest, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

Dispute as to amount of premium.

46. Any dispute as to the amount of premium due from any insured bank shall be decided by the Central Government and the decision of that Government shall be final.

Penalties.

47. (1) Whoever in any return, balance-sheet, or other document or in any information required or furnished by or under or for the purposes of any provision of this Act, wilfully makes a statement which is false in any material particular, knowing it to be false, or wilfully omits to make a material statement, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years and shall also be liable to fine.

(2) If any person fails to produce any book, account or other document, or to furnish any statement or information which, under the provisions of this Act, it is his duty to produce or furnish, he shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to two thousand rupees in respect of each offence and in the case of a continuing failure, with an additional fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which the failure continues after conviction for the first such failure.

Offences by Companies.

48. (1) Where an offence has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any gross negligence on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation. For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes, a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

Cognizance of offences.

49. No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this except upon a complaint in writing made by an officer of the Corporation generally or specially authorised in writing in this behalf by the Board and no court inferior to that of a presidency magistrate or a magistrate of the first class shall try any such offence.

Regulations.

50. (1)The Board may, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, make regulations not inconsistent with this Act to provide for all matters for which provision is necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for—

(a) the times and places of the meetings of the Board or of any committee constituted under this Act and the procedure to be followed at such meetings including the quorum necessary for the transaction of business;

(b) the number of directors constituting an Executive Committee, and the functions that such committee shall discharge;

(c) the functions which any other committee may discharge under this Act;

(d) the fees and allowances that may be paid to the members of a committee other than directors of the Board;

(e) the fees and allowances that may be paid to the directors of the Board;

(f) the periods for which, the times at which and the manner in which premium may be paid by an insured bank;

(g) the interest which may be charged from an insured bank where it makes default in payment of premium;

(h) the manner in which and the time within which the amounts referred to in section 21 may be paid;

(i) the form and the manner in which the balance-sheet and the accounts of the Corporation shall be prepared or maintained; and

(j) any other matter which is to be, or may be prescribed.

(3) Any regulation which may be made by the Board under this Act may be made by the Reserve Bank within three months of the establishment of the Corporation; and any regulation so made may be altered or rescinded by the Board in the exercise of its powers under this Act.

Amendment of certain enactments.

51. The enactments specified in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be amended in the manner provided therein.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE

THE FIRST SCHEDULE

THE SECOND SCHEDULE

THE EXTRADITION ACT, 1962.

[15th September, 1962.]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the extradition of fugitive criminals.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirteenth year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

Preliminary

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Extraordinary Act, 1962.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "commonwealth country" means a commonwealth country specified in the First Schedule and such other commonwealth country as may be added to that Schedule by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette and includes every constituent part, colony or dependency of any commonwealth country so specified or added;

(b) "conviction and "convicted" do not include or refer to a conviction which under foreign law is a conviction for contumacy, but the term "person accused" includes a person so convicted for contumacy;

(c) "extradition offence" means—

(i) in relation to a foreign State, being a treaty State, an offence provided for in the extradition treaty with that State;

(ii) in relation to a foreign State other than a treaty State or in relation to a commonwealth country an offence which is specified in, or which may be specified by notification under, the Second Schedule;

(d) "extradition treaty" means a treaty or agreement made by India with a foreign State relating to the extradition of fugitive criminals, and includes any treaty or agreement relating to the extradition of fugitive criminals made before the 15th day of August, 1947, which extends to, and is binding on, India;

(e) "foreign State" means any State outside India other than a commonwealth country, and includes every constituent part, colony or dependency of such State;

(f) "fugitive criminal" means an individual who is accused or convicted of an extradition offence committed within the jurisdiction of a foreign State or a commonwealth country and is, or is suspected to be, in some part of India;

(g) "magistrate" means a magistrate of the first class or a presidency magistrate;

(h) "notified order" means an order notified in the Official Gazette;

(i) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; and (j) "treaty State" means a foreign State with which an extradition treaty is in operation.

Application of Act.

3. (1) The Central Government may, by notified order, direct that the provisions of this Act other than Chapter III shall apply—

(a) to such foreign State or part thereof; or

(b) to such commonwealth country or part thereof to which Chapter III does not apply;

as may be specified in the order.

(2) The Central Government may, by the same notified order as is referred to in sub-section (1) or any subsequent notified order, restrict such application to fugitive criminals found, or suspected to be, in such part of India as may be specified in the order.

(3) Where the notified order relates to a treaty State,—

(a) it shall set out in full the extradition treaty with that State;

(b) it shall not remain in force for any period longer than that treaty; and

(c) the Central Government may, by the same or any subsequent notified order, render the application of this Act subject to such modifications, exceptions, conditions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient for implementing the treaty with that State.

CHAPTER II

Extradition of fugitive criminals to foreign States and to commonwealth countries to which Chapter III does not apply.

Requisition for surrender.

4. A requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal of a foreigner State or a commonwealth country may be made to the Central Government—

(a) by a diplomatic representative of the foriegn State or commonwealth country at Delhi; or

(b) by the Government of that foreign State or commonwealth country communicating with the Central Government through its diplomatic representative in that State or country; and if neither of these modes is convenient, the requisition shall be made in such other mode as is settled by arrangement made by the Government of the foreign State or commonwealth country with the Government of India.

Order for magisterial inquiry.

5. Where such requisition is made, the Central Government may, if it thinks fit, issue an order to any magistrate who would have had jurisdiction to inquire into the offence if it had been an offence committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction, directing him to inquire into the case.

Issue of warrant for arrest.

6. On receipt of an order of the Central Government under section 5, the magistrate shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the fugitive criminal.

Procedure before magistrate.

7. (1) When the fugitive criminal appears or is brought before the magistrate, the magistrate shall inquire into the case in the same manner and shall have the same jurisdiction and powers, as nearly as may be, as if the case were one triable by a court of session or High Court.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, the magistrate shall in particular, take such evidence as may be produced in support of the requisition of the foreign State or commonwealth country and on behalf of the fugitive criminal, including any evidence to show that the offence of which the fugitive criminal is accused or has been convicted is an offence of political character or is not an extradition offence.

(3) If the magistrate is of opinion that a prima facie case is not made out in support of the requisition of the foreign State or commonwealth country, he shall discharge the fugitive criminal.

(4) If the magistrate is of opinion that a prima facie case is made out in support of the requisition of the foreign State or commonwealth country, he may commit the fugitive criminal to prison to await the orders of the Central Government, and shall report the result of his inquiry to the Central Government; and shall forward together with such report, any written statement which the fugitive criminal may desire to submit for the consideration of the Central Government.

Surrender of fugitive criminal.

8. If, upon receipt of the report and statement under sub-section (4) of section 7, the Central Government is of opinion that the fugitive criminal ought to be surrendered to the foreign State or commonwealth country, it may issue a warrant for the custody and removal of the fugitive criminal and for his delivery at a place and to a person to be named in the warrant.

Power of magistrate to issue warrant of arrest in certain cases.

9. (1) Where it appears to any magistrate that a person within the local limits of his jurisdiction is a fugitive criminal of a foreign State or commonwealth country, he may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of that person on such information and on such evidence as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the offence of which the person is accused or has been convicted had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

(2) The magistrate shall forthwith report the issue of a warrant under sub-section (1) to the Central Government and shall forward the information, and the evidence or certified copies thereof to that Government.

(3) A person arrested on a warrant issued under sub-section (1) shall not be detained for more than three months unless within that period the magistrate receives from the Central Government an order made with reference to such person under section 5.

Receipt in evidence of exhibits, depositions and other documents and authentication thereof.

10. (1) In any proceedings against a fugitive criminal of a foreign State or commonwealth country under this Chapter, exhibits and depositions (whether received or taken in the presence of the person against whom they are used or not) and copies thereof and official certificates of facts and judicial documents stating facts may, if duly authenticated, be received as evidence.

(2) Warrants, depositions or statements on oath, which purport to have been issued or taken by any court of justice outside India or copies thereof, certificates of, or judicial documents stating the facts of, conviction before any such court shall be deemed to be duly authenticated if—

(a) the warrant purports to be signed by a judge, magistrate or officer of the State or country where the same was issued or acting in or for such State or country;

(b) the depositions or statements or copies thereof purport to be certified, under the hand of a judge, magistrate or officer of the State or country where the same were taken, or acting in or such State or country, to be the original depositions or statements or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require;

(c) the certificate of, or judicial document stating the fact of, a conviction purports to be certified by a judge, magistrate or officer of the State or country where the conviction took place or acting in or for such State;

(d) the warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates and judicial documents, as the case be, are authenticated by the oath of some witness or by the official seal of a minister of the State or country where the same were respectively issued, taken or given.

Chapter not to apply to commonwealth countries to which Chapter III applies.

11. Nothing contained in this Chapter shall apply to fugitive criminals of a commonwealth country to which Chapter III applies.

CHAPTER III

Return of fugitive criminals to commonwealth countries with extradition arrangements.

Application of Chapter.

12. (1) This Chapter shall apply only to any such commonwealth country to which, by reason of an extradition arrangement entered into with that country, it may seem expedient to the Central Government to apply the same

(2) Every such application shall be by notified order, and the Central Government may, by the same or any subsequent notified order, direct that this Chapter and Chapters I, IV and V shall, in relation to any such commonwealth country, apply subject to such modifications, exceptions, conditions and qualifications as it may thing fit to specify in the order for the purpose of implementing the arrangement.

Liability of fugitive criminals from commonwealth countries to be apprehended and returned.

13. Where a fugitive criminal of any commonwealth country to which this Chapter applies is found in India, he shall be liable to be apprehended and returned in the manner provided by this Chapter to that commonwealth country.

Endorsed and provisional warrants.

14. A fugitive criminal may be apprehended in India under an endorsed warrant or a provisional warrant.

Endorsed warrant for apprehension of fugitive criminal.

15. Where a warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal has been issued in any commonwealth country to which this Chapter applies and such fugitive criminal is, or is suspected to be, in India, the Central Government may, it satisfied that the warrant was issued by a person having lawful authority to issue the same, endorse such warrant in the manner prescribed, and the warrant so endorsed shall be sufficient authority to apprehend the person named in the warrant and to bring him before any magistrate in India.

Provisional warrant for apprehension of fugitive criminal.

16. (1) Any magistrate may issue a provisional warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal from any commonwealth country to which this Chapter applies who is, or is suspected to be, in or on his way to India, on such information and under such circumstances as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant, if the offence of which the fugitive criminal is accused or has been convicted had been committed within his jurisdiction and such warrant may be executed accordingly.

(2) A magistrate issuing a provisional warrant shall forthwith send a report of the issue of the warrant together with the information or a certified copy thereof to the Central Government, and the Central Government may, if it thinks fit, discharge the person apprehended under such warrant.

(3) A fugitive criminal apprehended on a provisional warrant may, from time to time, be remanded for such reasonable time, not exceeding seven days at any one time, as under the circumstances seems requisite for the production of an endorsed warrant.

Dealing with fugitive criminal when apprehended.

17. (1) If the magistrate, before whom a person apprehended under this Chapter is brought, is satisfied on inquiry that the endorsed warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal is duly authenticated and that the offence of which the person is accused or has been convicted is an extradition offence, the magistrate shall commit the fugitive criminal to prison to await his return and shall forthwith send to the Central Government a certificate of the committal.

(2) If on such inquiry the magistrate is of opinion that the endorsed warrant is not duly authenticated or that the offence of which such person is accused or has been convicted is not an extradition offence, the magistrate may, pending the receipt of the orders of the Central Government, detain such person in custody or release him on bail.

(3) The magistrate shall report the result of his inquiry to the Central Government and shall forward together with such report any written statement which the fugitive criminal may desire to submit for the consideration of that Government.

Return of fugitive criminal by warrant.

18. The Central Government may, at any time after a fugitive criminal has been committed to prison under this Chapter, issue a warrant for the custody and removal to the commonwealth country concerned of the fugitive criminal and for his delivery at a place and to a person to be named in the warrant.

CHAPTER IV

Surrender or return of accused or convicted persons from foreign States or commonwealth countries

Mode of requisition or form of warrant for the surrender or return to India of accused or convicted person who is in a foreign State or commonwealth country.

19. (1) A requisition for the surrender of a person accused or convicted of an extradition offence committed in India and who is or is suspected to be, in any foreign State or a commonwealth country to which Chapter III does not apply, may be made by the Central Government –

(a) to a diplomatic representative of that State or country, of Delhi; or

(b) to the Government of that State or country through the diplomatic representative of India in that State or country;

and if neither of these modes is convenient the requisition shall be made in such other mode as is settled by arrangement made by the Government of India with that State or country.

(2) A warrant issued by a magistrate in India for the apprehension of any person who is, or is suspected to be, in any commonwealth country to which Chapter III applies shall be in such form as may be prescribed.

Conveyance of accused or convicted person surrendered or returned.

20. Any person accused or convicted of an extradition offence who is surrendered or returned by a foreign State or commonwealth country may, under the warrant of arrest for his surrender or return issued in such State or country, be brought into India and delivered to the proper authority to be dealt with according to law.

Accused or convicted person surrendered or returned by foreign State or commonwealth country not to be tried for previous offence.

21. Whenever any person accused or convicted of an offence, which, if committed in India would be an extradition offence, is surrendered or returned by a foreign State or commonwealth country, that person shall not, until he has been restored or has had an opportunity of returning to that State or country, be tried in India for an offence committed prior to the surrender or return, other than the extradition offence proved by the facts on which the surrender or return is based.

CHAPTER V

Miscellaneous

Liability of fugitive criminals to be arrested and surrendered or returned.

22. Every fugitive criminal of a foreign State or commonwealth country shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be liable to be arrested and surrendered or returned, whether the offence in respect of which the surrender or return is sought was committed before or after the commencement of this Act, and whether or not a court in India has jurisdiction to try that offence.

Jurisdiction as to offences committed at sea or in air.

23. Where the offence in respect of which the surrender or return of a fugitive criminal is sought was committed on board any vessel on the high seas or any aircraft while in the air outside India or the Indian territorial waters which comes into any port or aerodrome of India, the Central Government and any magistrate having jurisdiction in such port or aerodrome may execise the powers conferred by this Act.

Discharge or person apprehended if not surrendered or returned within two months.

24. If a fugitive criminal who, in pursuance of this Act, has been committed to prison to await his surrender or return to any foreign State or commonwealth country is not conveyed out of India within two months after such committal, the High Court, upon application made to it by or on behalf of the fugitive criminal and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given to the Central Government, may order such prisoner to be discharged unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary.

Release of persons arrested on bail.

25. In the case of a person who is a fugitive criminal arrested or detained under this Act, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to bail shall apply in the same manner as they would apply if such person were accused of committing in India the offence of which he is accused or has been convicted, and in relation to such bail the magistrate before whom the fugitive criminal is brought shall have, as far as may be, the same powers and jurisdiction as a court of session under that Code. 5 of 1898.

Abetment of extradition offences.

26. A fugitive criminal who is accused or convicted of abetting any extradition offence shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be accused or convicted of having committed such offence and shall be liable to be arrested and surrendered accordingly.

Lawfulness of, and re-taking on escape from, custody under warrants.

27. It shall be lawful for any person to whom a warrant is directed for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal to hold in custody and convey the person mentioned in the warrant to the place named in the warrant, and if such person escapes out of any custody to which he may be delivered in pursuance of such warrant, he may be re-taken as a person accused of an offence against the law of India may be re-taken upon an escape.

Property found on fugitive criminal.

28. Everything found in the possession of a fugitive criminal at the time of his arrest which may be material as evidence in proving the extradition offence may be delivered up with the fugitive criminal on his surrender or return, subject to the rights, if any, of third parties with respect thereto.

Power of Central Government to discharge any fugitive criminal.

29. If it appears to the Central Government that by reason of the trivial nature of the case or by reason of the application for the surrender or return of a fugitive criminal not being made in good faith or in the interests of justice or for political reasons or otherwise, it is unjust or inexpedient to surrender or return the fugitive criminal, it may, by order, at any time stay any proceedings under this Act and direct any warrant issued or endorsed under this Act to be cancelled and the person for whose arrest the warrant has been issued or endorsed to be discharged.

Simultaneous requisitions.

30. If requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal are received from more than one foreign State or commonwealth country or from any foreign State and any commonwealth country, the Central Government may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, surrender the fugitive criminal to such State or country as that Government thinks fit.

Restrictions on surrender.

31. A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered or returned to a foreign State or commonwealth country -

(a) if the offence in respect of which his surrender is sought is of a political character or if he proves to the satisfaction of the magistrate or court before whom he may be produced or of the Central Government that the requisition or warrant for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character;

(b) if prosecution for the offence in respect of which his surrender is sought is according to the law of that State or country barred by time;

(c) unless provision is made by the law of the foreign State or commonwealth country or in the extradition treaty with the foreign State or extradition arrangement with the commonwealth country, that the fugitive criminal shall not, until he has been restored or has had an opportunity of returning to India, be detained or tried in that State or country for any offence committed prior to his surrender or return, other than the extradition offence proved by the facts on which his surrender or return is based;

(d) if he has been accused of some offence in India, not being the offence for which his surrender or return is sought, or is undergoing sentence under any conviction in India until after he has been discharged, whether by acquittal or on expiration of his sentence or otherwise;

(e) until after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his being committed to prison by the magistrate.

Sections 29 and 31 to apply without any modification thereof.

32. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 3 or section 12, the provisions of sections 29 and 31 shall apply without any modification to every foreign State or commonwealth country.

Act not to affect the Foreigners Act, 1946.

33. Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of the Foreigners Act, 1946, or any order made thereunder. 31 of 1946.

Application of Act to Republic of Ireland.

34. The provisions of this Act shall apply in relation to the Republic of Ireland in the like manner and subject to the like conditions as they apply in relation to a commonwealth country.

Notified orders and notifications to be laid before Parliament.

35. Every notified order made or notification issued under this Act shall, as soon as may be after it is made or issued, be laid before each House of Parliament.

Power to make rules.

36. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the form in which a requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal may be made;

(b) the form in which a warrant for the apprehension of any person in a commonwealth country to which Chapter III applies may be made;

(c) the manner in which any warrant may be endorsed or authenticated under this Act;

(d) the removal of fugitive criminals accused or in custody under this Act and their control and maintenance until such time as they are handed over to the persons named in the warrant as entitled to receive them;

(e) the seizure and disposition of any property which is the subject of, or required for proof of, any alleged offence to which this Act applies;

(f) the form and manner in which or the channel through which a magistrate may be required to make his report to the Central Government under this Act;

(g) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule, or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

37. (1) The Indian Extradition Act, 1903, and any law corresponding thereto in force at the commencement of this Act in the territories which, immediately before the 1st day of November, 1956, were comprised in Part B States and the North East Frontier Agency and Tuensang District (Extradition) Regulation, 1961, are hereby repealed. Repeals and savings

33 and 34 Vict. c. 52; 36 and 37 Vict. c. 60; 6 Edw. 7, c. 15; 22 and 23 Geo. 5, c. 39. 44 and 45 Vict. c. 69.

(2) The Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1932 and the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, in so far as they apply to and operate as part of the law of India, are hereby repealed.

MINISTRY OF LAW

(Legislive Department)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 19th December, 1962, and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. 61 OF 1962.

THE DELIMITATION COMMISSION ACT, 1962

[19th December, 1962.]

An Act to provide for the readjustment of the allocation of seats in the House of the People to the States, the total number of seats in the Legislative Assembly of each State, the division of each State into territorial constituencies for elections to the House of the People and Legislative Assemblies of the States and for matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Delimitation Commission Act, 1962. Short title.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— Definitions.

(a) "article" means an article of the Constitution;

(b) "associate member" means a member nominated under section 5;

(c) "Commission" means the Delimitation Commission constituted under section 3;

(d) "latest census figures" mean the census figures as ascertained at the census held in 1961;

(e) "member" means a member of the Commission and includes the Chairman;

(f) "State" does not include the State of Jammu and Kashmir and the State of Nagaland.

3. (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the Central Government shall constitute a Commission to be called the Delimitation Commission which shall consist of three members as follows:— Constitution of Delimitation Commission.

(a) two members, each of whom shall be a person who is or has been a Judge of the Supreme Court or of a High Court, to be appointed by the Central Government, and

(b) the Chief Election Commissioner, ex officio.

(2) The Central Government shall nominate one of the members appointed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) to be the Chairman of the Commission.

4. It shall be the duty of the Commission to readjust on the basis of the latest census figures the allocation of seats in the House of the People to the several States, the total number of seats in the Legislative Assembly of each State and the division of each State into territorial constituencies for the purpose of elections to the House of the People and to the State Legislative Assembly. Duties of the Commission.

Associate members.

5. (1) The Commission shall associate with itself for the purpose of assisting it in its duties in respect of each State, nine persons four of whom shall be members of the House of the People representing that State and five shall be members of the Legislative Assmbly of that State.

(2) The persons to be so associated from each State shall be nominated, in the case of members of the House of the People, by the Speaker of that House, and in the case of members of a Legislative Assembly, by the Speaker of that Assembly, having due regard to the composition of the House or, as the case may be, of the Assembly.

(3) The first nominations to be made under sub-section (2)—

(a) shall be made by the Speakers of the several Legislative Assemblies within one month, and by the Speaker of the House of the People within two months, of the commencement of this Act, and

(b) shall be communicated to the Chief Election Commissioner, and where the nominations are made by the Speaker of a Legislative Assembly, also to the Speaker of the House of the People.

(4) None of the associate members shall have a right to vote or to sign any decision of the Commission.

Causal vacancies.

6. If owing to death or resignation the office of the Chairman or of a member or of an associate member falls vacant, it shall be filled as soon as may be practicable by the Central Government or the Speaker concerned under and in accordance with the provisions of section 3 or, as the case may be, of section 5.

Procedure and powers of the Commission.

7. (1) The Commission shall determine its procedure and shall in the performance of its functions have all the powers of a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, while trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely:— 5 of 1908.

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses;

(b) requiring the production of any document; and

(c) requisitioning any public record from any court or office.

(2) The Commission shall have power to require any person to furnish any information on such points or matters as in the opinion of the Commission may be useful for, or relevant to, any matter under the consideration of the Commission.

(3) The Commission may authorise any of its members to exercise any of the powers conferred on it by clauses (a) to (c) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2), and any order made or act done in exercise of any of those powers by the members authorised by the Commission in that behalf shall be deemed to be the order or act as the case may be, of the Commission.

(4) If there is a difference of opinion among the members, the opinion of the majority shall prevail, and acts and orders of the Commission shall be expressed in terms of the views of the majority.

(5) The Commission as well as any group of associate members shall have power to act notwithstanding the temporary absence of a member or associate member or the existence of a vacancy in the Commission or in that or any other group of associate members; and no act or proceeding of the Commission or of any group of associate members shall be invalid or called in question on the ground merely of such temporary absence or of the existence of such vacancy.

(6) The Commission shall be deemed to be a civil court for the purposes of sections 480 and 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898.

5 of 1898.

Explanation.—For the purposes of enforcing the attendance of witnesses the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Commission shall be the limits of the territory of India.

Readjustment of number of seats.

8. The Commission shall, on the basis of the latest census figures and having regard to the provisions of articles 81, 170, 330 and 332, by order determine—

(a) the number of seats in the House of the People to be allocated to each State and the number of seats, if any, to be reserved for the Scheduled Castes and for the Scheduled Tribes of the State; and

(2) the total number of seats to be assigned to the Legislative Assembly of each State and the number of seats, if any, to be reserved for the Scheduled Castes and for the Scheduled Tribes of the State;

Provided that the total number of seats assigned to the Legislative Assembly of any State under clause (b) shall be an integral multiple of the number of seats in the House of the People allocated to that State under clause (a).

Delimitation of constituencies.

9. (1) The Commission shall, in the manner herein provided, then distribute the seats in the House of the People allocated to each State and the seats assigned to the Legislative Assembly of each State to single-member territorial constituencies and delimit them on the basis of the latest census figures, having regard to the provisions of the Constitution and to the following provisions, namely:—

(a) all constituencies shall, as far as practicable, be geographically compact areas, and in delimiting them regard shall be had to physical features, existing boundaries of administrative units, facilities of communication and public convenience;

(b) every assembly constituency shall be so delimited as to fall wholly within one parliamentary constituency;

(c) constituencies in which seats are reserved for the Scheduled Castes shall be distributed in different parts of the State and located, as far as practicable, in those areas where the proportion of their population to the total is comparatively large; and

(d) constituencies in which seats are reserved for the Scheduled Tribes shall, as far as practicable, be located in areas where the proportion of their population to the total is the largest.

(2) The Commission shall—

(a) publish its proposals for the delimitation of constituencies, together with the dissenting proposals, if any, of an associate member who desires publication thereof, in the Gazette of India and Official Gazettes of all the States concerned and also in such other manner as it thinks fit;

(b) specify a date on or after which the proposals will be further considered by it;

(c) consider all objections and suggestions which may have been received by it before the date so specified, and for the purpose of such consideration, hold one or more public sittings at such place or places in each State as it thinks fit; and

(d) thereafter by one or more orders determine—

(i) the delimitation of parliamentary constituencies, and

(ii) the delimitation of assembly constituencies, of each State.

Publication of orders and their date of operation.

10. (1) The Commission shall cause each of its orders made under section 8 or section 9 to be published in the Gazette of Inda and in the Official Gazettes of the States concerned.

(2) Upon publication in the Gazette of India, every such order shall have the force of law and shall not be called in question in any court.

(3) As soon as may be after such publication, every such order shall be laid before the House of the People and the Legislative Assemblies of the States concerned.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), the readjustment of representation of the several territorial constituencies in the House of the People or in the Legislative Assembly of a State and the delimitation of those constituencies provided for in any such order shall apply in relation to every election to the House or to the Assembly, as the case may be, held after the publication in the Gazette of India of that order and shall so apply in supersession of the provisions relating to such representation and delimitation contained in the Representation of the People Act, 1950, and the Delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies Order, 1961. 43 of 1950.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect the representation in the House of the People or in the Legislative Assembly of a State until the dissolution of the House or of the Assembly, as the case may be, existing on the date of publication in the Gazette of India of the final order or orders of the Commission relating to the delimitation of Parliamentary constituencies or, as the case may be, of the Assembly constituencies of that State.

Power to maintin delimitation orders up-to-date.

11. (1) The Election Commission may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India and in the Official Gazette of the State concerned,—

(a) correct any printing mistake in any of the orders made by the Delimitation Commission under section 9 or any error arising therein from an inadvertent slip or ommission; and

(b) where the boundaries or name of any district or any territorial division mentioned in any of the said orders are or is altered, make such amendments as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for bringing the orders up-to-date.

(2) Every notification under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is issued, before the House of the People and the Legislative Assembly of the State concerned.

Act No. 1 of 1962

THE GOA, DAMAN AND DIU (ADMINISTRATION) ACT, 1962.

[21th March 1962.]

An Act to provide for the administration of the Union territory of Goa, Daman and Diu and for matters connected therewith.

BE IT enacted by Parliament in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu (Administration) Act, 1962.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 5th day of March, 1962.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) "Administrator" means the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu appointed by the President under article 239 of the Constitution;

(b) "appointed day" means the twentieth day of December, 1961;

(c) "Goa, Daman and Diu" means the Union territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

Representation in the House of the People.

3. (1) There shall be allotted two seats to the Union territory of Goa, Daman and Diu in the House of the People.

43 of 1950. (2) In the Representation of the People Act, 1950,—

(a) in section 4, in sub-section (1), after the words "to Dadra and Nagar Haveli", the words "to Goa, Daman and Diu" shall be inserted;

(b) in the First Schedule,—

(i) after entry 22, the following entry shall be inserted namely:—

"23. Goa, Daman and Diu.....2";

(ii) entries 23 and 24 shall be re-numbered as entries 24 and 25 respectively.

43 of 1951 (3) In the Representation of the People Act, 1951, in section 4, after the words "to Dadra and Nagar Haveli", the words "to Goa, Daman and Diu" shall be inserted.

Officers and functionaries in relation to Goa, Daman and Diu.

4. Without prejudice to the powers of the Central Government to appoint from time to time such officers and authorities as may be necessary for the administration of Goa, Daman and Diu, all judges, magistrates and other officers and authorities who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, were exercising lawful functions in connection with the administration of Goa, Daman and Diu or any part thereof, shall, unless otherwise directed at any time by the Central Government in relation to any such judge, magistrate or other officer or authority, or until other provision is made by law, continue to exercise in connection with such administration their respective functions in the same manner and to the same extent as before such commencement with such altered designation, if any, as that Government may determine.

Continuance of existing laws and their adaptation

5. (1) All laws in force immediately before the appointed day in Goa, Daman and Diu or any part thereof shall continue to be in force therein until amended or repealed by a competent Legislature or other competent authority.

(2) For the purpose of facilitating the application of any such law in relation to the administration of Goa, Daman and Diu as a Union territory and for the purpose of bringing the provisions of any such law into accord with the provisions of the Constitution, the Central Government may, within two years from the appointed day, by order, make such adaptations and modifications, whether by way of repeal or amendment, as may be necessary or expedient and thereupon, every such law shall have effect subject to the adaptations and modifications so made.

Power to extend enactments to Goa, Daman and Diu.

6. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, extend with such restrictions or modifications as it thinks fit, to Goa, Daman and Diu any enactment which is in force in a State at the date of the notification.

Extension of the jurisdiction of Bombay High Court to Goa, Daman and Diu.

7. As from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify, the jurisdiction of the High Court at Bombay shall extend to Goa, Daman and Diu.

Power to construe laws.

8. For the purpose of facilitating the application of any law in relation to Goa, Daman and Diu, any court or other authority may construe any such law in such manner not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt it to the matter before the court or other authority.

Validation of certain action and indemnity of officers for certain acts.

9. (1) All things done and all action taken (including any acts of executive authority, proceedings, decrees and sentences) in or with respect to Goa, Daman and Diu on or after the appointed day and before the commencement of this Act, by the Administrator or any other officer, whether civil or military, or by any other person acting under the orders of the Administrator or such officer, which have been done or taken in good faith and in a reasonable belief that they were necessary for the peace and good government of Goa, Daman and Diu shall be as valid and operative as if they had been done or taken in accordance with law.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding whatsoever, whether civil or criminal, shall lie in any court of law against the Administrator or any other officer of Government, whether civil or military, or against any other person acting under the orders of the Administrator or such other officer for, or on account of, or in respect of, anything done or any action taken in Goa, Daman and Diu or any part thereof on or after the appointed day and before the commencement of this Act which has been done or taken in good faith and in a reasonable belief that it was necessary for the peace and good government of Goa, Daman and Diu:

Provided that if any such suit or other legal proceeding has been instituted before the commencement of this Act, it shall, on such commencement, abate.

Power to remove difficulties.

10. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act or in connection with the administration of Goa, Daman and Diu, the Central Government may, by order, make such further provision as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

(2) Any order under sub-section (1) may be made so as to be retrospective to any date not earlier than the appointed day.

Repeal and saving.

11. (1) The Goa, Daman and Diu (Administration) Ordinance, 1962, is hereby repealed. 2 of 1962.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken in exercise of any of the powers conferred by or under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken in exercise of the powers conferred by or under this Act.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

MINISTRY OF LAW

(Legislative Department)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 19th December, 1962, and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. 64 OF 1962

THE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1962

[19th December, 1962.]

An Act further to amend the Workmen's Compensation Act 1923.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Workmen's Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1962.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 2.

2. In section 2 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in sub-section (1),— 8 of 1923.

(i) in clause (g), for the words and figure "in Schedule I", the words and figures "in Part II of Schedule I" shall be substituted;

(ii) in clause (l), for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided that permanent total disablement shall be deemed to result from every injury specified in Part I of Schedule I or from any combination of injuries specified in Part II thereof where the aggregate percentage of the loss of earning capacity, as specified in the said Part II against those injuries, amounts to one hundred per cent. or more;";

(iii) in sub-clause (ii) of clause (n), for the words "four hundred rupees", the words "five hundred rupees" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 3.

3. In section 3 of the principal Act,—

(i) in sub-section (2), the following provisos shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

"Provided that if it is proved,—

(a) that a workman whilst in the service of one or more employers in any employment specified in Part C of Schedule III has contracted a disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment during a continuous period which is less than the period specified under this sub-section for that employment, and

(b) that the disease has arisen out of and in the course of the employment;

the contracting of such disease shall be deemed to be an injury by accident within the meaning of this section:

Provided further that if it is proved that a workman who having served under any employer in any employment specified in Part B of Schedule III or who having served under one or more employers in any employment specified in Part C of that Schedule, for a continuous period specified under this sub-section for that employment and he has after the cessation of such service contracted any disease specified in the said Part B or the said Part C, as the case may be as an occupational disease peculiar to the employment and that such disease arose out of the employment, the contracting of the disease shall be deemed to be an injury by accident within the meaning of this section.";

(ii) for sub-section (2A), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(2A) If a workman employed in any employment specified in Part C of Schedule III contracts any occupational disease peculiar to that employment, the contracting whereof is deemed to be an injury by accident within the meaning of this section, and such employment was under more than one employer, all such employers shall be liable for the payment of the compensation in such proportion as the Commissioner may, in the circumstances, deem just.".

Amendment of section 4.

4. In section 4 of the principal Act, in sub-clause (i) of clause (c) of sub-section (1), for the word and figure "Schedule I", the words and figures "Part II of Schedule I" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 10.

5. In section 10 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), after the first proviso, the following provisos shall be inserted, namely:—

"Provided further that in case of partial disablement due to the contracting of any such disease and which does not force the workman to absent himself from work, the period of two years shall be counted from the day the workman gives notice of the disablement to his employer:

Provided further that if a workman who, having been employed in an employment for a continuous period, specified under sub-section (2) of section 3 in respect of that employment, ceases to be so employed and develops symptoms of an occupational disease peculiar to that employment within two years of the cessation of employment, the accident shall be deemed to have occurred on the day on which the symptoms were first detected.".

Amendment of section 18A.

6. In sub-section (2) of section 18A of the principal Act, for the words "within six months of the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed, the words "within 6 months of the date on which the alleged commission of the offence came to the knowledge of the Commissioner" shall be substituted.

Amendment of sections 20 and 21.

7. In the principal Act, in sections 20 and 21 the word "local", wherever it occurs, shall be omitted

8. After section 35 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:— Insertion of new section 36.

"36. Every rule made under this Act by the Central Government shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.". Rules made by Central Government to be laid before Parliament.

9. In Schedule I of the principal Act,— Amendment of Schedule I.

(i) for the heading "LIST OF INJURIES DEEMED TO RESULT IN PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABLEMENT" the following heading shall be substituted, namely:—

PART V—Acts of the Parliament of India assented to by the President and Ordinances promulgated by the President

MINISTRY OF LAW

Legislative Department

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 29th April, 1961, and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. 14 OF 1961

THE FINANCE ACT, 1961.

[29th April, 1961.]

An Act to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 1961-62

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twelfth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Finance Act, 1961.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, sections 3 to 10 inclusive shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of April, 1961.

Income-tax and super-tax.

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4), for the year beginning on the 1st day of April, 1961,—

(a) income-tax shall be charged at the rates specified in Part I of the First Schedule, and, in the cases to which Paragraphs A, B and C of that Part apply, shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union and a special surcharge, calculated in either case in the manner provided therein; and

(b) super-tax shall, for the purposes of section 55 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (hereinafter referred to as the Income-tax Act), be charged at the rates specified in Part II of the First Schedule, and in the cases to which Paragraphs A, B and C of that Part apply, shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union and a special surcharge, calculated in either case in the manner provided therein.

(2) In making any assessment for the year ending on the 31st day of March, 1962,—

(a) where the total income of an assessee, not being a company, includes any income chargeable under the head "Salaries", the income-tax payable by the assessee on that part of his total income which consists of such inclusion shall be an amount bearing to the total amount of income-tax payable according to the rates applicable under the operation of the Finance Act, 1960, on his total income the same proportion as the amount of such inclusion bears to his total income; 13 of 1960.

(b) where the total income of an assessee, not being a company, includes any income chargeable under the head "Salaries" on which super-tax has been or might have been deducted under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 18 of the Income-tax Act, the super-tax payable by the assessee on that portion of his total income which consists of such inclusion shall be an amount bearing to the total amount of super-tax payable according to the rates applicable under the operation of the Finance Act, 1960, on his total income the same proportion as the amount of such inclusion bears to his total income. 13 of 1960.

(3) In making any assessment for the year ending on the 31st day of March, 1962, where the total income of a company, other than the Life Insurance Corporation of India established under the Life Insurance Corporation Act, 1956, includes any profits and gains from life insurance business the super-tax payable by it shall be the aggregate of the tax calculated— 31 of 1956.

(i) on the amount of profits and gains from life insurance business so included, at the rate applicable to the Life Insurance Corporation of India in accordance with Paragraph E of Part II of the First Schedule; and

(ii) on the remaining part of its total income, at the rate applicable to the company on its total income.

(4) In cases to which section 17 of the Income-tax Act applies the tax chargeable shall be determined as provided in that section, and with reference to the rates imposed by sub-section (1).

(5) In cases in which tax has to be deducted under section 18 of the Income-tax Act at the prescribed rates, the deduction shall be made at the rates specified in Part III of the First Schedule.

(6) For the purposes of this section, and of the rates of tax imposed thereby, the expression "total income" means total income as determined for the purposes of income-tax or super-tax, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Income-tax Act, and the expression "earned income" has the meaning assigned to it in clause (6AA) of section 2 of that Act.

Amendment of section 4.

3. In section 4 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (3),—

(i) after clause (ii), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(iia) Any income of an association or institution established in India having as its object the control, supervision, regulation or encouragement in India of the games of cricket, hockey, football, tennis or such other games or sports as the Central Government may specify in this behalf from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette:

Provided that—

(i) the association or institution applies its income, or accumulates it for application, solely to the objects for which it is estbalished;

(ii) no part of the income of the association or institution is distributed in any manner to its members except as grants to any association or institution affiliated to it; and

(iii) the association or institution is, for the time being approved for the purpose of this clause by the Central Government by general or special order.";

(ii) in clause (xiva), for the second proviso, the following provisos shall be substituted, namely:—

'Provided further that in the case of a person referred to in this clause whose contract of service was approved by the Central Government before the commencement of his service, this clause shall have effect as if for the words "during the financial year in which he arrived in India and the financial year next following", the words "during the thirty-six months commencing from the date of his arrival in India" had been been substituted and as if the proviso immediately preceding had been omitted:

Provided also that where a person referred to in the proviso immediately preceding continues to remain in employment in India after the expiry of the thirty-six months commencing from the date of his arrival in India the employer may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 200 of the Companies Act, 1956, pay to the Central Government the tax on the income of such person chargeable under the head 'Salaries' for a period not exceeding twenty-four months following the expiry of the said thirty-six months and if the tax is so paid it shall not be included in his total income of the said period.';

1 of 1956.

(iii) in clause (xvi), after the words "International Bank for Reconstruction and Development,", the words "or under a loan agreement between the Central Government and the Development-Loan Fund of the United States of America," shall be inserted and after the words "under a loan agreement with the said Bank", the words "or Fund, as the case may be," shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 7.

4. In section 7 of the Income-tax Act, in the proviso to Explanation 2, after the words "a Central, State or Provincial Act", the words, letters and figures "or any payment of retiring gratuity received after the 1st day of June, 1953, under the New Pension Code applicable to the members of the Defence Services" shall be inserted and shall be deemd always to have been inserted.

Amendment of section 9.

5. In section 9 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (2), after the third proviso, the following proviso and Explanation shall be inserted, namely:—

"Provided further that in respect of a building the erection of which is begun and completed after the 1st day of April, 1921, the annual value for a period of three years from the date of such completion shall be reduced by a a sum equal to the aggregate of—

(a) in respect of any residental unit (comprised in the building) whose annual value does not exceed six hundred rupees, the amount thereof; and

(b) in respect of any residential unit (comprised in the building) whose annual value exceeds six hundred rupees, an mount of six hundred rupees, so, however, that the income in respect of any residential unit shall in no case be a loss.

Explanation.—Where a residential unit is in the occupation of the owner for the purposes of his own residence, and the annual value thereof is computed in accordance with the first proviso, such computation shall be made as if the fourth proviso had been omitted.".

Amendment of section 10.

6. In section 10 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (2),—

(i) in clause (vi), after the words "in the case of machinery or plant, to twenty per cent. of the cost thereof to the assessee:" and before the proviso, the following paragraph shall be inserted, namely:—

"and where the buildings have been newly erected after the 31st day of March, 1961, such buildings being used solely for the purpose of residence of person employed in the business and drawing remuneration not exceeding two hundred rupees per mensem or such buildings being used solely or mainly for the welfare of such persons as hospitals, creches, schools, canteens, libraries, recreational centres, shelters, rest rooms and lunch rooms, a sum (which shall not be deductible in determining the written down value for the purposes of this clause) equal to twenty per cent. of the actual cost of the building to the assessee in respect of the previous year of erection of the building:";

(ii) in clause (vib),—

(1) for sub-clause (i) and sub-clause (ii), the following sub-clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

"(i) to the case of a ship acquired after the 31st day of December, 1957, forty per cent. and in the case of a ship acquired before the 1st day of January, 1958, twenty-five per cent. of the actual cost of the ship to the assessee; and

(ii) in the case of machinery or plant installed before the 1st day of April, 1961, twenty-five per cent. and in the case of machinery or plant installed after the 31st day of March, 1961, twenty per cent. of the actual cost of the machinery or plant to the assessee.";

(2) in the first proviso, after the words "any person other than the Government", the words "or for any consideration not connected with any amalagation or succession referred to in clause (vic)" shall be inserted;

(iii) after clause (vib), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

'(vic)(i) where in a scheme of amalgamation, a company (hereinafter in this sub-clause referred to as the predecessor) sells or otherwise transfers to the company formed in pursuance of the predecessor's amalgamation with that company (hereinafter in this sub-clause referred to as the successor) any ship, machinery or plant in respect of which development rebate has been allowed to the predecessor under clause (vib),—

(1) the successor shall continue to fulfil the conditions mentioned in the first proviso to clause (vib) in respect of the reserve created by the predecessor and in respect of the period within which such ship, machinery or plant shall not be sold or otherwise transferred and in default of any of these conditions, the provisions of sub-section (11) of section 35 shall apply to the successor as it would have applied to the predecessor had it it committed the default;

(2) the balance of development rebate, if any still outstanding to the predecessor in respect of such ship, machinery or plant shall be allowed to the successor in accordance with Explanations I and II of clause (vib), so, however, that the total period for which the balance of development rebate shall be carried forward in the assessments of the predecessor and the successor shall not exceed the period of eight years specified in Explanation I to clause (vib) and the successor shall be treated as the assessee in respect of such ship, machinery or plant for the purposes of clause (vib) and this sub-clause.;

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-clause, "amalgamation" means the merger of two companies (each of which is hereinafter in this Explanation referred to as the amalgamating company) to form one company (hereinafter in this Explanation referred to as the amalgamated company) in such a manner that—

(a) all the property of the amalgamating companies immediately before the amalgamation becomes the property of the amalgamated company by virtue of the amalgamation;

(b) all the liabilities of the amalgamating companies immediately before the amalgamation become the liabilities of the amalgamated company by virtue of the amalgamation; and

(c) all the shareholders of the amalgamating companies immediately before the amalgamation become shareholders of the amalgamated company by virtue of the amalgamation, otherwise than as a result of the acquisition of property of one company by another company pursuance to the purchase of such property by the other company or as a result of the distribution of such property to the other company after the winding up of the company;

(ii) where a firm is succeeded to by a private company, as defined in the Companies Act, 1956, in the business carried on by it as a result of which the firm sells or otherwise transferred to the private company any ship, machinery or plant, the provisions of sub-clause (i) of this clause shall, so far as may be, apply to the firm and the company;

1 of 1956.

Explanation.— The provisions of this sub-clause shall apply only where—

(a) all the property of the firm immediately before the succession becomes the property of the company;

(b) all the liabilities of the firm immediately before the succession become the liabilities of the company; and

(c) all the partners of the firm immediately before the succession become shareholders of the company;';

(iv) after clause (xiv), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(xiva) in respect of any special reserve created by a financial corporation which is engaged in providing long term finance for industrial development in India, an amount not exceeding ten per cent. of the total income carried to such reserve account:

Provided that the corporation is for the time being approved by the Central Government for the purposes of this clause:

Provided further that where the aggregate of the amounts carried to such reserve account from time to time exceeds the paid-up share capital (excluding the amounts capitalised from reserves) of the corporation no allowance under this clause shall be made in respect of such excess;";

(v) in clause (xv), the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

"Provided that in the case of a company, no expenditure in the nature of entertainment expenditure shall be allowed which exceeds the aggregate amount computed as hereunder—

(i) on the first Rs. 10,00,000 of the profits and gains of the business [computed before making any allowance under clause (vib) or in respect of entertainment expenditure]— at the rate of 1 per cent. or Rs. 5,000 which ever is higher;

(ii) on the next Rs. 40,00,000 of the profits and gains of the business (computed in the manner aforesaid)—at the rate of $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent;

(iii) on the next Rs. 1,20,00,000 of the profits and gains of the business (computed in the manner aforesaid)—at the rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.,

(iv) on the balance of the profits and gains of the business (computed in the manner aforesaid)— nil.".

ACT No. 10 OF 1963

THE AGRICULTURAL REFINANCE CORPORATION ACT, 1963

[24th March, 1963.]

An Act to provide for the establishment of a Corporation for granting medium and long term credit by way of refinance or otherwise, for the development of agriculture and for other matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Fourteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

Preliminary

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Agricultural Refinance Corporation Act, 1963.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Definition.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "agriculture" includes animal husbandry, dairy farming, pisciculture and poultry farming;

(b) "Board" means the Board of directors of the Corporation;

(c) "central land mortgage bank" means the principal land mortgage bank in a State which is registered, or deemed to be registered, under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 or any other law for the time being in force in any State relating to co-operative societies and the primary object of which is the providing of long term finance for agricultural development:

of 1912.

Provided that in addition to such principal land mortgage bank in a State or where there is no such bank in a State, the State Government may, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, declare any one or more land mortgage banks registered or deemed to be registered as aforesaid and carrying on the business of providing long term finances for agricultural development in that State to be a central land mortgage bank or banks within the meaning of this definition;

(d) "co-operative society" means a society registered, or deemed to be registered, under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 or any other law for the time being in force in any State relating to co-operative societies;

2 of 1912.

(e) "Corporation" means the Agricultural Refinance Corporation established under this Act;

(f) "eligible institution" means—

(i) a central land mortgage bank or a State co-operative bank or a scheduled bank, being in each case a shareholder of the Corporation; and

(ii) a co-operative society (other than a central land mortgage bank or a State co-operative bank) approved by the Reserve Bank in this behalf;

(g) "Life Insurance Corporation" means the Life Insurance Corporation of India established under section 3 of the Life Insurance Corporation Act, 1956; 31 of 1956.

(h) "prescribed" means prescribed by regulations made under this Act;

(i) "Reserve Bank" means the Reserve Bank of India constituted under the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934; 2 of 1934.

(j) "scheduled bank" means a bank for the time being included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934; and (k) "State co-operative bank" has the same meaning as in the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

CHAPTER II

Establishment and capital of the Agricultural Refinance Corporation

Establishment and incorporation of Agricultural Refinance Corporation.

3. (1) With effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint, there shall be established for the purposes of this Act a Corporation to be known as the Agricultural Refinance Corporation.

(2) The Corporation shall be a body corporate with the name aforesaid, having perpetual succession and a common seal with power, subject to the provisions of this Act, to acquire, hold and dispose of property, and to contract, and may by that name sue and be sued.

Offices and agencies.

4. The Corporation shall establish its head office in Bombay and may, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, establish offices or agencies in other places in India.

Share capital and shareholders.

5. (1) The authorised capital of the Corporation shall be twenty-five crores of rupees divided into twenty-five thousand fully paid-up shares of ten thousand rupees each of which five thousand shares of the total value of five crores of rupees shall be issued in the first instance, and the remaining shares may, with the sanction of the Central Government, be issued from time to time by the Corporation as and when the Corporation may deem fit.

(2) Of the capital issued in the first instance and before such date as may be notified by the Central Government in the Official Gazette in this behalf—

(a) the Reserve Bank shall subscribe for two thousand five hundred shares;

(b) central land mortgage banks and State co-operative banks may subscribe for one thousand five hundred shares;

(c) scheduled banks, the Life Insurance Corporation, insurance and investment companies and such other classes of financial institutions as may be notified by the Central Government in the Official Gazette in this behalf may subscribe for one thousand shares.

(3) The allotment of shares to the institutions mentioned in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (2) shall be made by the Board in accordance with the regulations made in this behalf:

Provided that no such institution shall be allotted more than ten per cent. of the shares reserved for the class of institutions to which it belongs.

(4) If any shares referred to in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (2) remain unallotted, they shall be subscribed for by the Reserve Bank:

Provided that the Reserve Bank may dispose of the shares subscribed for by it in pursuance of this sub-section, to any institution mentioned in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (2), so however that—

(i) the institutions referred to in the said clause (b) shall not together hold more than one thousand five hundred shares and the institutions referred to in the said clause (c) shall not together hold more than one thousand shares, and

(ii) no institution shall hold more than ten per cent. of the shares reserved for the class of institutions to which it belongs.

(5) If and when the remaining shares or any part thereof are issued, the Reserve Bank shall, and the institutions referred to in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (2) may, subscribe for such shares in the same proportion as for the first issue and the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4), except clause (ii) of the proviso to sub-section (4), shall also apply to such shares.

(6) Shares of the Corporation shall not be transferable except—

(a) to the institutions specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (2), and

(b) in accordance with the regulations made in this behalf.

Guarantee by Central Government.

6. Shares of the Corporation shall be guaranteed by the Central Government as to the repayment of the principal and the payment of a minimum annual dividend at such rate as may be fixed by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette at the time of issuing the shares.

Shares of Corporation to be deemed to be securities for certain purposes.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Acts hereinafter mentioned in this section, the shares of the Corporation shall be deemed to be included among the securities enumerated in section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, and be also deemed to be approved securities for the purposes of the Insurance Act, 1938 and the Banking Companies Act, 1949.

2 of 1882.
4 of 1938.
10 of 1949.

Register of shareholders.

8. (1) The Corporation shall maintain at its head office a register of the shareholders and shall enter therein the following particulars so far as they may be available, namely:—

(i) the names and addresses of the shareholders and a statement of the shares held by each shareholder distinguishing each share by its denoting number;

(ii) the date on which each person is entered as a shareholder;

(iii) the date on which any person ceases to be a shareholder; and

(iv) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, no notice of any trust, express, implied or constructive, shall be entered on the register maintained under sub-section (1) or be receiveable by the Corporation.

CHAPTER III

Management of the Corporation

Management.

9. (1) The general superintendence, direction and management of the affairs and business of the Corporation shall vest in a Board of directors which may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Corporation.

(2) The Board, in discharging its functions, shall act on business principles with due regard to public interest.

Board of directors.

10. The Board of directors shall consist of the following, namely:—

(a) a Deputy Governor of the Reserve Bank nominated by that Bank, who shall be the Chairman of the Board;

(b) a director nominated by the Reserve Bank;

(c) three officers of the Central Government nominated by that Government;

(d) one director elected in the prescribed manner by such of the central land mortgage banks as are shareholders of the Corporation;

(e) one director elected in the prescribed manner by such of the State co-operative banks as are shareholders of the Corporation;

(f) one director elected in the prescribed manner by the Life Insurance Corporation, scheduled banks, insurance and investment companies and other financial institutions, which are shareholders of the Corporation; and

(g) a managing director to be appointed by the Reserve Bank and, except in the case of the first appointment, after consultation with the Board:

Provided that on the first constitution of the Board, the directors referred to in clauses (d), (e) and (f) shall be nominated by the Central Government and the directors so nominated shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be elected directors:

Provided further that the directors so nominated shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting of the Corporation.

Term of office and retirement of directors and payment of fees to them.

11. (1) A nominated director shall hold office during the pleasure of the authority nominating him.

(2) An elected director, other than a director deemed to be elected under the first proviso to section 10, shall hold office for four years:

Provided that an elected director shall continue in office until his successor has been elected and shall also be eligible for re-election but shall not hold office for more than two consecutive terms.

(3) A casual vacancy in the office of an elected director shall be filled by election and a director so elected shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of his predecessor:

Provided that no casual vacancy occurring within three months of the date of expiry of the normal term of office of an elected director need be filled under this sub-section.

(4) Directors shall be paid such fees and allowances as may be prescribed for attending the meetings of the Board or of any of its committees and for attending to any other work of the Corporation:

Provided that no fees shall be payable to the Chairman, managing director or to any other director who is an officer of the Government or of the Reserve Bank.

Disqualifications.

12. No person shall be a director who—

(a) except in the case of the managing director, is a salaried official of the Corporation; or

(b) is, or at any time has been, adjudicated insolvent or has suspended payment of his debts or has compounded with his creditors; or

(c) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court; or

(d) is or has been convicted of any offence which, in the opinion of the Central Government, involves moral turpitude.

Vacation and resignation of office by directors.

13. (1) If a director—

(a) becomes subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in section 12; or

(b) is absent without leave of the Board from more than three consecutive meetings thereof, his seat shall thereupon become vacant.

(2) Any director elected under clause (d), or clause (e) or clause (f) of section 10 may resign his office by giving notice thereof in writing to the Board and, on such resignation being accepted, shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

Managing director.

14. (1) The managing director shall—

(a) be a whole-time officer of the Corporation;

(b) perform such duties as the Board may entrust or delegate to him;

(c) hold office for such term not exceeding five years as the Reserve Bank may at the time of appointment specify and be eligible for re-appointment; and

(d) receive such salary and allowances and be governed by such terms and conditions of service as the Board, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, may determine:

Provided that the first managing director shall receive such salary and allowances and be governed by such terms and conditions of service as the Reserve Bank may determine.

(2) The Reserve Bank may at any time, after consultation with the Board, remove the managing director from office.

Casual vacancies in the office of managing directors.

15. If the managing director is by infirmity or otherwise rendered incapable of carrying out his duties or is absent on leave or otherwise, in circumstances not involving the vacation of his appointment, the Reserve Bank may, after consultation with the Board, appoint another person to act in his place during his absence.

Meetings of Board.

16. (1) The Board shall meet at such times and places and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings as may be prescribed.

(2) The Chairman, or, if for any reason he is unable to attend any meeting, any other director elected by the directors present at the meeting shall preside at the meeting of the Board.

(3) All questions which come up before any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting, and, in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman or, in his absence, the person presiding, shall have a second or casting vote.

Committees of Corporation.

17. (1) The Board may constitute an Executive Committee consisting of such number of directors as may be prescribed.

(2) The Executive Committee shall discharge such functions as may be prescribed or may be delegated to it by the Board.

(3) The Board may constitute such other committees, whether consisting wholly of directors or wholly of other persons or partly of directors and partly of other persons as it thinks fit and for such purposes as it may decide.

(4) A committee constituted under this section shall meet at such times and places and shall observe such rules and procedure in regard to the transaction of business of its meetings as may be prescribed.

(5) The members of a committee (other than the directors of the Board), shall be paid by the Corporation such fees and allowances as may be prescribed for attending its meetings and for attending to any other work of the Corporation.

Member Board or Committee thereof not to vote in certain cases.

18. A director of the Board or a member of a committee who has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any matter coming up for consideration at a meeting of the Board or a committee thereof, shall, as soon as possible after relevant circumstances have come to his knowledge, disclose the nature of his interest at such meeting and the disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board or the committee, as the case may be, and the director or member shall not take any part in any deliberation or decision of the Board or the committee with respect to that matter.

CHAPTER IV

Funds and business of the Corporation

Central Government to make a loan of five crores of rupees.

19. The Central Government shall, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, make to the Corporation an interest-free loan of five crores of rupees, repayable in fifteen equal annual instalments commencing on the expiry of a period of fifteen years from the date of receipt of the loan:

Provided that the Central Government may, on a request being made to it by the Corporation, increase the number of instalments or alter the amount of any instalment or vary the date on which any instalment is payable.

Borrowings by Corporation.

20. (1) The Corporation may, for the purpose of carrying out its functions under this Act, with the previous approval of the Central Government—

(a) issue and sell bonds and debentures carrying interest, which bonds and debentures shall be guaranteed by the Central Government as to the repayment of principal and payment of interest at such rates as may be fixed by the Central Government at the time the bonds or debentures are issued;

(b) borrow money from the Reserve Bank repayable on the expiry of fixed periods not exceeding eighteen months from the date of the making of the loan or advance, against the security of stocks, funds and securities (other than immovable property) in which a trustee is authorised to invest trust money by any law for the time being in force in India;

(c) borrow money from the Central Government and from any other authority or organisation or institution approved by that Government, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon; and

(d) accept from the Central Government, a State Government, a local authority, a central land mortgage bank, a State co-operative bank, a scheduled bank or any person, deposits re-payable after the expiry of a period which shall not be less than twelve months from the date of the making of the deposit and on such other terms as the Corporation may, with the prior approval of the Reserve Bank, fix.

(2) The amount of loan granted by the Central Government under section 19 and outstanding, together with the amount of bonds and debentures issued under clause (a) of sub-section (1) and outstanding, the amounts borrowed by the Corporation and outstanding under clauses (b) and (c) of that sub-section and the amount of deposits accepted under clause (d) of that sub-section, shall not at any time in the aggregate exceed twenty times the amount of the paid up share capital and the reserve fund of the Corporation.

7 of 1947.

21. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947, or in any other law for the time being in force relating to foreign exchange, the Corporation may, for the purpose of granting loans and advances to eligible institutions, borrow, with the previous consent of the Central Government, foreign currency from any bank or financial institution in India or elsewhere.

(2) The Central Government may guarantee loans taken by the Corporation under sub-section (1) as to the repayment of principal and the payment of interest thereon and other incidental charges.

(3) All loans and advances made to eligible institutions out of foreign currency borrowed under sub-section (1) shall be granted in Indian currency and shall be repayable by such institutions in Indian currency.

(4) Any loss occurring or profit accruing in connection with any borrowing of foreign currency under sub-section (1) for the purpose of granting loans or advances to any eligible institution or its repayment, on account of any fluctuations in the rates of exchange shall be reimbursed by, or paid to, the eligible institution.

Business which the Corporation may transact.

22. (1) The Corporation may provide such financial assistance to eligible institutions as it considers necessary for promoting the development of agriculture in India and shall not—

(a) transact any business except for that purpose, and

(b) grant, except as hereinafter provided, loans and advances otherwise than by way of refinance.

(2) No institution other than an eligible institution shall be entitled to assistance under sub-section (1).

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2), the Corporation may transact the several kinds of business hereinafter specified, namely:—

(a) the granting of loans and advances by way of refinance to an eligible institution mentioned in sub-clause (i) of clause (f) of section 2, repayable within a period not exceeding twenty-five years from the dates on which they are granted;

(b) the granting of loans and advances otherwise than by way of refinance to an eligible institution mentioned in sub-clause (ii) of clause (f) of section 2 repayable within a period not exceeding twenty-five years from the dates on which they are granted;

(c) the subscribing to the debentures of any eligible institution repayable within a period not exceeding twenty-five years from the dates on which they are issued:

Provided that repayment of principal and payment of interest thereon are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Government;

(d) the guaranteeing, with the prior approval of the Central Government and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, of deferred payments in connection with the purchase of of capital goods from outside India,

(i) due from an eligible institution mentioned in sub-clause (ii) of clause (f) of section 2; or

(ii) due from any other person and guaranteed to the Corporation by one of the eligible institutions mentioned in sub-clause (i) of clause (f) of section 2;

(e) acting agent for the Central Government or a State Government in the transaction of any business with an eligible institution in respect of loans and advances granted or to be granted, or debentures subscribed for or to be subscribed for, by such Government; and

(f) generally, the doing of all such matters and things as may be incidental to or consequential upon the discharge of its functions under this Act.

(4) No accommodation shall be granted under clauses (a), (b) and (d) of sub-section (3) to an eligible institution unless it is fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to the repayment of principal and payment of interest by Government:

Provided that no such guarantee shall be required in cases in which an eligible institution makes available other security to the satisfaction of the Board:

Provided further that any sums received by a scheduled bank in repayment or realisation of loans and advances refinanced either wholly or partly by the Corporation shall, to the extent of the accommodation granted by the Corporation remaining outstanding, be deemed to have been received by the scheduled bank in trust for the Corporation, and shall accordingly be paid by such scheduled bank to the Corporation.

(5) The Corporation shall not grant any loan or advance on the security of its own shares, bonds or debentures or for the purpose of providing working capital.

(6) The Corporation may receive, for the rendering of any of the services mentioned in sub-section (3), such commission or other consideration as may be agreed upon.

(7) If any question arises whether a transaction undertaken by the Corporation is for the purpose of providing finance or refinance for the development of agriculture in India, the matter shall be referred to the Reserve Bank and the decision of the Reserve Bank thereupon shall be final.

Limit of accommodation.

23. The Corporation shall not, without the prior approval in writing of the Reserve Bank, enter into any transaction under clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c) of subsection (3) of section 22 involving an amount exceeding fifty lakhs of rupees.

Power to impose conditions for accommodation.

24. In entering into any transaction under section 22 with an eligible institution, the Corporation may impose such conditions as it may think necessary or expendient for protecting the interests of the Corporation.

Power to call for repayment before agreed period.

25. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any agreement, the Corporation may, by notice in writing, require any eligible institution to which it has granted any loan or advance to discharge forthwith in full its liabilities to the Corporation, -

(a) if it appears to the Board that false or misleading information in any material particular was given in the application for the loan or advance; or

(b) if the eligible institution has failed to comply with any of the terms of its contract with the Corporation in the matter of the loan or advance; or

(c) if there is a reasonable apprehension that the eligible institution is unable to pay its debts or that proceedings for liquidation may be commenced in respect thereof; or

(d) if for any reason it is necessary to do so to protect the interests of the Corporation.

Deposit accounts and investments.

26. All moneys belonging to the Corporation which may not for the time being be required by it shall be invested in promissory notes, stock or securties of the Central Government and all other moneys shall be deposited with the Reserve Bank or with any agency of the Reserve Bank or, in consultation with the Reserve Bank, with a State cooperative bank or a scheduled bank.

CHAPTER V

Accounts and audit

Preparation of balance-sheet, etc., of Corporation.

27. (1) The balance-sheet and accounts of the Corporation shall be prepared and maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The Board shall cause the books and accounts of the Corporation to be balanced and closed as on the thirtieth day of June, each year.

Disposal of profits.

28. (1) The Corporation shall establish a reserve fund by transferring such sums as it may deem fit out of its net annual profits before declaring a dividend.

(2) After making provision for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation of assets and all other matters which are usually provided for by bankers, the Corporation may out of its net annual profits declare a dividend:

Provided that for so long as the reserve fund is less than the paid-up share capital of the Corporation and until there have been repaid to the Central Government such sums, if any, as that Government may have paid under the guarantee given in pursuance of section 6 or under any guarantee given in pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 20 or sub-section (2) of section 21, the rate of such dividend shall not exceed the rate guaranteed by the Central Government under section 6.

Special deposit.

29. (1) For a period of fifteen accounting years following the accounting year during which the Corporation is established, all dividends according on the shares of the Corporation held by the Reserve Bank shall, instead of being paid to that Bank, be held by the Corporation as a special deposit in a separate account and no interest shall be payable on such deposit.

(2) On the expiry of the period referred to in sub-section (1), the Corporation shall, if so required by the Reserve Bank, pay to it the said special deposit and in case the Reserve Bank does not require the same to be paid to it, continue the said special deposit on such terms and on such conditions, including payment of interest, and for such period as may be mutually agreed upon between the Corporation and the Reserve Bank.

(3) No shareholder of the Corporation other than the Reserve Bank shall have any claim to the special deposit referred to in sub-section (1).

Audit.

30. (1) The affairs of the Corporation shall be audited by an auditor duly qualified to act as auditor under sub-section (1) of section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956, who shall be appointed by the Board with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank and shall receive such remuneration from the Corporation as the Board may, with the approval of the Reserve Bank, fix: 1 of 1956.

Provided that the first auditor shall be appointed by the Reserve Bank within one month from the establishment of the Corporation on such terms and conditions as the Reserve Bank may determine.

(2) The auditor so appointed shall hold office from the conclusion of an annual general meeting of the Corporation until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting:

Provided that the first auditor shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

(3) The auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance-sheet of the Corporation and it shall be his duty to examine it together with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and he shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Corporation and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts, vouchers and other documents of the Corporation.

(4) The auditor may, in relation to the accounts of the Corporation, examine any director of the Board or any officer or employee of the Corporation, and shall be entitled to require from the officers of the Corporation such information and explanation as he may think necessary for the performance of his duties.

(5) The auditor shall make a report to the Corporation upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts examined by him and in every such report he shall state whether in his opinion the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Corporation and in case he had called for any explanation or information from the Board, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory.

(6) Without prejudice to anything contained in the preceding sub-sections, the Central Government may at any time appoint the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India to examine, and report upon the accounts of the Corporation, and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such examination and report shall be payable by the Corporation to the Compotroller and Auditor-General of India.

General meeting.

31. (1) A general meeting shall be held annually (hereinafter referred to as the annual general meeting) at a place in India where there is an office of the Corporation within three months from the date on which the annual accounts of the Corporation are closed, and any other general meeting may be convened by the Board at any other time:

Provided that the Central Government may extend the time within which any annual general meeting shall be held, by a period not exceeding one month.

(2) The shareholders present at the annual general meeting shall be entitled to discuss the annual accounts, the report of the Board on the working of the Corporation throughout the year and the auditor's report on the annual balance-sheet and accounts.

Returns.

32. (1) The Corporation shall furnish, from time to time, to the Central Government and to the Reserve Bank such returns as the Central Government or the Reserve Bank may require.

(2) The Corporation shall furnish to the Central Government and the Reserve Bank within fifteen days of the conclusion of the annual general meeting in respect of any year, a copy of its balance-sheet as on the close of that year together with a profit and loss account for the year and a report of the working of the Corporation during the year, and copies of the said balance-sheet, profit and loss account and report shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall be laid before each House of Parliament.

CHAPTER VI

Miscellaneous

Power of Central Government to give directions.

33. In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Corporation shall be guided by such directions in matters of policy involving public interest as the Central Government may after consulting the Reserve Bank give to it in writing, and if any question arises whether the direction relates to a matter of policy involving public interest, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

Staff of Corporation.

34. (1) The Corporation may appoint such number of staff as it considers necessary or desirable for the efficient performance of its functions and determine the terms and conditions of their appointment and service.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the Corporation to utilise, and for the Reserve Bank to make available the services of, such staff of the Reserve Bank on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Corporation and the Reserve Bank.

Corporation to have access to records.

35. (1) The Corporation shall have free access to all such records of an eligible institution or any person availing of a loan or advance from such eligible institution perusal whereof may appear to the Corporation to be necessary in connection with the providing of finance or other assistance to such eligible institution or the refinancing of the loan or advance made to such person by the eligible institution.

(2) The Corporation may require any eligible institution or person referred to in sub-section (1) to furnish to it copies of any of the records referred to in that sub-section and the eligible institution or the person, as the case may be, shall be bound to comply with such requisition.

Act 18 of 1891 to apply to books of Corporation.

36. The Corporation shall be deemed to be a bank for the purposes of the Bankers' Books Evidence Act, 1891.

Liquidation of Corporation.

37. No provision of law relating to the winding up of companies or corporations shall apply to the Corporation, and the Corporation shall not be placed in liquidation save by order of the Central Government and in such manner as it may direct.

Indemnity of directors.

38. (1) Every director shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all losses and expenses incurred by him in, or in relation to, the discharge of his duties, except such as are caused by his own wilful act or default.

(2) A director shall not be responsible for any other director or for any officer or other employee of the Corporation or for any loss or expenses resulting to the Corporation from the insufficiency or deficiency of value of, or title to, any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Corporation or the insolvency or wrongful act of any debtor or any person under obligation to the Corporation or anything done in good faith in the execution of the duties of his office in relation thereto.

Defects in appointment not to invalidate acts, etc.

39. (1) No act or proceeding of the Board or of any committee of the Corporation shall be questioned on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Board or committee or on the ground of any director or member of any committee having acted or taken part in any proceeding in contravention of section 18.

(2) No act done by any person acting in good faith as a Director the Board or as a member of a committee of the Corporation shall be deemed to be invalid merely on the ground that he was disqualified to be a director or that there was any other defect in his appointment.

Protection of action taken under the Act.

40. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Corporation or any director or any officer of the Corporation or any other person authorised by the Corporation to discharge any functions under this Act for any loss or damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act.

Declaration of of fidelity and secrecy.

41. Every director, auditor, officer, or other employee of the Corporation or an employee of the Reserve Bank, whose services are utilised by the Corporation under sub-section (2) of section 34, shall, before entering upon his duties, make a declaration of fidelity and secrecy in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Act.

Provisions relating to income-tax and super-tax.

42. Any sum paid by the Central Government under the guarantee given in pursuance of section 6 or, under any guarantee given in pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 20 or sub-section (2) of section 21 shall not be treated as the income, profits and gains of the Corporation, and any interest paid by the Corporation on debentures or bonds or on foreign currency borrowed under sub-section (1) of section 21 out of such sum shall not be treated for the purpose of income-tax or super-tax as expenditure incurred by it:

Provided that in the case of any shareholder such portion of a dividend as has been paid out of any such sum advanced by the Central Government shall be deemed to be his income from interest on securities declared to be income-tax free within the meaning of clause (i) of section 86 of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Delegation of powers.

43. The Board may, by general or special order, delegate to any committee of the Board or to the Chairman or managing director or any other officer of the Corporation, subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as may be specified in the order, such of its powers and duties under this Act as it may deem necessary.

Penalties.

44. (1) Whoever in any return, balance-sheet, or other document or in any information required or furnished by or under or for the purposes of any provision of this Act, wilfully makes a statement which is false in any material particular, knowing it to be false, or wilfully omits to make a material statement, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years and shall also be liable to fine.

(2) If any person fails to produce any book, account or other document, or to furnish any statement or information which, under the provisions of this Act, it is his duty to produce or furnish, he shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to two thousand rupees in respect of each offence and in the case of a continuing failure, with an additional fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which the failure continues after conviction for the first such failure.

Offences by companies.

45. (1) Where an offence has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liablbe to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section—

(a) "company" means anybody corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

Powers of Board to make regulations.

46. (1) The Board may, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, make regulations not inconsistent with this Act to provide for all matters for which provision is necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for—

(a) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which the first allotment of shares of the Corporation shall be made;

(b) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which the shares of the Corporation may be held and transferred, and generally all matters relating to the rights and duties of the shareholders;

(c) the holding and conduct of elections under this Act, including the final decision on doubts or disputes regarding the validity of elections;

(d) the manner in which general meetings shall be convened, the procedure to be followed thereat and the manner in which voting rights may be exercised;

(e) the fees or allowances that may be paid to the directors;

(f) the times and places of the meetings of the Board or of any committee constituted under this Act and the procedure to be followed at such meetings including the quorum necessary for the transaction of business;

(g) the number of directors constituting the Executive Committee, and the functions that such committee shall discharge;

(h) the functions which any other committee may discharge under this Act;

(i) the fees and allowances that may be paid to the members of a committee other than directors;

(j) the manner and terms of issue and redemption of bonds and debentures by the Corporation;

(k) the conditions which the Corporation may impose in granting loans and advances;

(l) the manner and conditions subject to which the Corporation may borrow in foreign currency;

(m) the form and manner in which the balance-sheet and the accounts of the Corporation shall be prepared or maintained;

(n) the forms of returns and statements required under this Act;

(o) the duties and conduct, salaries, allowances and conditions of service of officers and other employees;

(p) the establishment and maintenance of provident or other benefit funds for employees of the Corporation; and

(q) generally, the efficient conduct of the affairs of the Corporation.

(3) Any regulation which may be made by the Board under this Act may be made by the Reserve Bank within three months of the establishment of the Corporation; and any regulation so made may be altered or rescinded by the Board in the exercise of its powers under this Act.

(4) No regulations made under this Act shall have effect until they are published in the Official Gazette.

(5) All regulations made under this Act shall be placed before each House of Parliament.

Amendment of certain enactments.

47. The enactments specified in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be amended in the manner provided therein.

DIRECTORATE OF AGRICULTURE, WEST BENGAL

Calcutta, the 23rd June 1961

Final estimate of Tur (or Arhar) crop of West Bengal for 1960-61

(Note: The figures of acreage and yield rate of Tur crop for last year and this year as shown in this estimate are based on the results of sample surveys and crop-cuttings experiments conducted by the State Statistical Bureau, West Bengal.)

Season: The weather conditions have generally been favourable for the cultivation and growth of the crop.

Area and Yield: 85,000 acres are estimated to have been sown with Tur (or Arhar) this year against 52,300 acres of last year. The total outturn of the crop for the State as a whole has been estimated at 21,300 tons this year as against 9,400 tons of last year.

The average yield rate per acre of the crop in the State as a whole has been estimated at 6.82 mds. this year as against 4.90 mds. of last year. Increase in acreage, yield per acre and production may be attributed to favourable weather condition.

Calcutta, the 26th May 1960 and Final Forecast of Barley Crop of West Bengal for 1959-60

...—The figures of last year and this year shown in this forecast are based on the results of sample surveys and crop cuttings experiments conducted by the State Statistical Bureau, West Bengal.)

son.—The weather conditions were generally ...able for the cultivation and growth of the ... in the districts of West Bengal excepting Nadia, ...lpaiguri, Burdwan, Bankura, and Malda.

... and yield.— 159,600 areas are estimated to ... been under Barley crop this year as against ... acres of last year.

Increase in acreage may be attributed to diversion of some aman paddy land where paddy crop was destroyed by floods to the cultivation of this crop.

The total outturn of Barley crop is estimated at 27,100 tons this year as against 28,900 tons of last year.

The average yield per acre of the crop is estimated at 4.62 maunds this years as against 7.28 maunds of last year.

The fall in average yield per acre may be attributed to lower yield rates generally obtained from new cultivated areas also to the unfavourable weather in some of the major Barley growing districts.

CALCUTTA IMPROVEMENT TRUST

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF CALCUTTA

Notice under section 43 of the Calcutta Improvement Act, 1911 (Bengal Act V of 1911)

SCHEME No. 105

[Widening of a section of Chitpore Road Upper (Rabindra Sarani) between Vivekananda Road and Dwarkanath Tagore Lane]

Dated the 13th August 1963

1. It is notified under section 43 of the Calcutta Improvement Act that a Street Scheme to be known as Scheme No. 105 (Chitpore Road Upper-Vivekananda Road to Dwarkanath Tagore Lane) for widening of a section of Chitpore Road Upper (Rabindra Sarani) between Vivekananda Road and Dwarkanath Tagore Lane, for the purpose of improving existing means of communication and facilities for traffic and providing building sites has been framed by the Board of Trustees for the Improvement of Calcutta in ward Nos. 21 and 25 of the Corporation of Calcutta.

2. The boundaries of the area comprised in the Scheme, shown by red verge on plan, are as follows:—

On the north: Starting from the north-western corner of premises No. 3B, Kali Krishna Tagore Street and running in a straight line south-eastwards to the north-eastern corner of premises No. 73, Chitpore Road Upper (Rabindra Sarani).

On the east: From that point running southwards in a straight line to the north-eastern corner of premises No. 69/1, Chitpore Road Upper (Rabindra Sarani) and then southwards along its eastern boundary to its south-eastern corner, then running southwards in a straight line to the south-eastern corner of premises No. 1, Dwarkanath Tagore Lane.

On the south: From that point running in a straight line south-westwards to the south-eastern corner of premises No. 374, Chitpore Road Upper (Rabindra Sarani), then running westwards along the southern boundary of the same premises to its southwestern corner.

On the west: From that point running northwards in a straight line to the starting point.

3. Further particulars of the Scheme, a plan showing the Scheme area and a statement of the lands proposed for acquisition or for levy of betterment fee, may be inspected at the office of the Trust at 10 Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on weekdays and 11 a.m. and 12-30 p.m. on Saturdays.

Copies will be available on payment of the following fees:—

Plan of the Scheme area—Re. 1.00.

Particulars and other information of the scheme —Re. 0.25.

Statement of lands proposed for acquisition or for levy of betterment fee—Re. 0.25.

4. Objections to the scheme will be received up to the 16th November 1963.

5. Under section 6A of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, as introduced by the schedule to the Calcutta Improvement Act, 1911 as amended by the West Bengal Act XXXII of 1955, the publication of this notice shall have the same effect as the publication of notification under section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.
